

BOOKS THAT ARE BIG SELLERS.

FROM THE PRESS OF W. J. GAGE & CO., LIMITED, TORONTO.

DEACON BRADBURY—By Edwin Asa Dix.

A VERY STRIKING AND HANDSOME COVER DESIGN.

The title, "Deacon Bradbury," gives a hint as to the character of the book that bears it. It is spoken of by many as a second "David Harum" in matter, yet an altogether different book—certainly one that bids fair to run "David Harum" close as a seller. Throughout, the book is absorbing and impressive, and no bookseller should be without a supply of "Deacon Bradbury" on his counters. Cloth, $1.25; attractive paper edition, 75c.

BOY—By Marie Corelli.

ODD TITLE, ODD STORY, AND QUICK SELLER.

This book is the longest and most important work by Miss Marie Corelli, since her "Sorrows of Satan." It is an oddly striking and interesting book from various standpoints, being a distinct departure by the author from the lines of her previous works. With the title, "Boy," a word of only three letters, the publishers had a problem in the making of a striking cover design, but everyone will grant that they have succeeded admirably. The book is meeting with an exceptionally large sale. Cloth, $1.25, hand some paper edition, 75c.

THE RED BADGE OF COURAGE—By Stephen Crane.

A FASCINATING STORY. AN EPISODE OF WAR.

Mr. Crane's recent death adds interest to this, his most important work. It is a story of war, and the critics unite in their praises of the remarkable pen pictures that the author has been able to present of actual scenes on the battlefield—entering into the conditions with all the sympathy and accuracy of a veteran war correspondent. For the first time a handsome paper edition has been brought out, and at the special price of 50c.

THE LUNATIC AT LARGE—By J. Storer Clouston.

A SPLENDID SELLER. GOOD SUMMER READING.

This is one of the books that is winning large sale and that the bookseller need not fear of holding as unsalable stock. The Toronto Globe has spoken of it as "the most mirth provoking book that has appeared in many a day," whilst another says it is one of the best bits of light reading published within the year. Cloth, $1.00; paper, 50c.

A PAUPER MILLIONAIRE—By Austin Fryers.

NEW EDITION WITH STRIKING COVER.

This is a book that is taking a first place as a specimen of good reading for summer holidaying. It is a story in which one will be interested from the outset, and which once begun will likely be finished at a sitting. Booksellers can safely recommend it to their customers. Cloth, $1.00; paper, 50c.

FORTHCOMING BOOKS—READY FOR EARLY JULY.

We are able to announce three of the most important books of the year, to be ready early this month.

"Robert Orange," sequel to "School for Saints," by John Oliver Hobbes. The book is exceptionally clever, thoughtful and fascinating. 400 pages. Cloth, $1.25; paper cover, 75c.

"The Girl at the Halfway House," by E. Hough. This is a book with a future. This author gained generous recognition by his wonderful book, the "Story of the Cowboy." Warmly endorsed by Governor Roosevelt. Cloth, $1.25; paper, 75c.

"Winnifred," a story of the Chalk Cliffs, by S. Barling Gould. A striking novel of English life in the eighteenth century by this well-known writer. Cloth, $1.25; paper, 75c.

A Liberal Discount to the trade. Books that should be on the counters of every progressive bookseller.
