INCREASE IN THE SIZE OF THE CANADIAN PATRIOT.

On and after the month of July next, eight additional columns will be added to the size of the PATRIOT.

"THE PARDOE FAMILY,"

A new tale of thrilling interest, written expressly for this magazine, will commence with the July series.

This tale is illustrative of the hidden horrors of the Coal Pit, and descriptive of the state of things which existed in many of the Collieries of England a few years back, when females harnessed like beasts of burden, drew the heavy trams of Coal through mud and mire, and in regions of darkness. It also sets forth the fearful dangers from fire and from flood, from falling roofs, breking pit ropes, together with other casualties which beset the colliers life at every turn.

To non-Subscribers the price of the Patriot will in future be 12½ cents for a single number, and to subscribers commencing from the 1st of July next, $1,50 per annum.

We have a limited number of the monthly parts from January last, and those who wish to avail themselves of the complete series, may on early application do so at the original price of $1 for the 12 numbers for this year, and they will thereby secure the first year's issue inclusive of the enlarged numbers, at the original price.
