steam being shut off the train on this occasion was entirely stopped, although the steam was kept on. A number of pas-sengers alighted, and during a lull of the storm, by dint of shoving, the train was started, and reached town about three quarters of an hour past the usual time. The wind, by getting into the fire-box, blew the coke so much about, forcing part of it also through the bars, altogether causing a diminution in the quantity of steam.—Glasgow Paper.

CLERGY RESERVES. REPORT of the Select Committee of the Legislative Council, to whom were referred the several Petitions presented to this House, praying that the Clergy Reserves may be sold in conformity with the provisions of the Imperial Statute, or otherwise

LEGISLATIVE COUNCIL COMMITTEE ROOM,

Wednesday, 13th May, 1846. The Select Committee to whom were referred certain Petitions presented to your Honourable House, during the present Session, from various parts of the Province, and from various classes of the community, praying that no interruption or delay might take place in bringing to sale the Clergy Reserve Lands; neither that any portion of these lands be given to any sect or denomination of Christians for their exclusive benefit; nor any interruption take place in carrying out the Act 3 and 4 Vic. cap. 78, beg leave to report-

That the settlement of the appropriation and division of the Clergy Reserve Lands, is well known to have been attended with difficulties of no ordinary nature, and to have threatened, more than once, consequences of the most disastrous and dange-

Year after year did the Provincial Government and Legisla-Year after year did the Provincial Government and Legisla-ture strive to come to an equitable arrangement, which might satisfy reasonable hopes, and extinguish the force fiame of sec-tarian discord. The Home Government displayed no less anxiety to have the question accommodated, and finally, the desirable object was sitained, by the Act 3 and 4 Vic., cap. 78, passed by the Imperial Parliament.

This brought the matter so long in dispute to an issue; not, perhaps, entirely to the satisfaction of the various sects, but which was hailed by all patriotic minds as one of the most fortunate events which could have occurred in the affairs of the course now adopted would have met with no interruption, least of all from that body of Christians who have enjoyed nume-rous exclusive advantages and privileges in the Province, and who have ultimately secured a portion, so large and liberal, of the lands in question. the lands in question.

It would appear, however, that not satisfied with the ques-The would appear, nowever, that not satisfied with the ques-tionable allotment of Glebes, to numerous Rectories of the Episcopalian Church, and with the more than liberal propor-tion of Clergy Reserve Funds which was placed at their dispo-sal, certain members of that Church have not hesitated to break in upon the barrier which the British Parliament had interposed against Provincial discontent, and have devised a interposed against Provincial Lord Courser. scheme for creating a Clerical Land Corporation in Canada, at once at variance with the liberal spirit of the age and with the reference to this Institution, has at length called forth the Athabits and views of Canadian settlers. It is now desired by a portion of the inhabitants of the Province, to adopt a course which would virtually defeat the object of the Imperial Act, and which would place a numerous class of industrious and deserving settlers at the mercy of a fluctuating body as mere tenants, when their neighbours on every hand are attaining, or have attained, the object of all en-terprising and hard working yeomen, the freehold ownership of the soil, which their labour and capital have reclaimed.

Your Committee might enlarge upon the danger of subject-ing any class of their fellow-colonists to the caprice, and it night be to the persecution, of landholders upon local or genequestions of a political nature. It is sufficient to know, that such a power would be placed in the hands of Clerical Corporations, should the law permit them to create a class de-pendent in a great degree upon their pleasure and good-will. Your Committee, for this and many other reasons too nu-merous to detail, feel no hesitation in expressing their bigh sat-ifaction with the determining of the sate of isfaction with the determination of Government to proceed with the sales of the Clergy Reserve Lands, and recommend that the most acconomical mode of sale be adopted; and that no interruption be offered to the wise and well-matured conclusion adopted by the Imperial Parliament. state, there mighted is defined by those society of that Church, now in flourishing operation. That the lands would not be better managed by those Societies, than by the Crown Lands department, no one is hardy enough to assert. The management of that department has long since passed into a proverb, and the sooner the Clergy Lands are removed from its control, it that it should take place gradually and evenly, has been the management of that more rapidly and evenly, has been the case to the often the ministers of all denominations entitled to a share of them.

We are glad that the Committee of the Legislative Council to whome the Clergy Reserve Question was referred, have re-always running either in or out, and consequently a portion of the sand stirred up by the dredging, and held in suspension, and that when the question comes before the Lower House, it may likewise receive the favourable consideration of that body. The application is nothing more than what is reasonable, and we are only surprised that any member of the Legislature—let alone a member of the Church of England,—should be opposed to the demand.—Montreal Courier. In our Parliamentary proceedings it will be seen that the Government Ioan £100,000 to the sufferers by the Quebee yard, would amount to the sum of  $\pm 175$ . By the section and soundings of the channel, which were furnished by the Engineer on the 26th February last, there appears to be a channel through the canal of not less than nine feet six inches in any spot; the level of the lake is described, by those long acquainted with it, as being two feet lower than dinary; from the rise of the water, therefore, now taking place, and the additional means provided for the improvement of the channel, I have every reason to believe that no inconve-nience will be experienced, but I certainly would not recom-mend, under any circumstances, that the dredging should be so orced as to endanger the uniform settlement of the piers.

THE STEAMERS KENT AND LONDON.—At the Western stick I whittled, with as good a jack-knife as ever was clasped. could be called a chip, whittled from off it. The stick itself I mean, the chips might, and were the whittlings, and if of soft pinc, the whittlings,—(my son Nathan dos'nt like the word, but that's nothing.)—the whittlings were not the stick, they were really and "de facto" that's Nathan's putting in, "chips," or as Fwould say whittlings, from the stick. Now, this dark and solemn man, who they said was a Bishop, called this Col-lege a sectarian Institution, inasmuch as it was claimed to be an Institution exclusively belonging to the Church. Now my son, Nathan, tells me, and I'm satisfied he's right, for he's a well educated boy, though I say it, that should'nt say it, that Sectarian means something cut off, as a chip whitled off from a stick. And, therefore, it appears to me that the Church is the stick, and the sectarian is the chip whitled off from it, and consequently if this College belong to the Church, or be claimed by the Church, as a Church Institution, it cannot be a secta-tion of the function of the method and a sectarian Institution, but must be a part and parcel of the origina stick; while Victoria College at Cobourg, and Queen's College at Kingston, are cuttings from the original stock ; chips whittled off from the original stick, and consequently sectarian

MEXICO.

The New York papers are in a state of great indignation vith their Government and the General of their army on the o Grande. The President and the Executive are blamed for having committed the country to war without even cor ulting the Congress; and the Ceneral is blamed for his gross incapacity. It appears that General Taylor has grossly un-derrated his enemy, and has allowed himself to be surrounded. It is said that the General has it in his power to destroy Matamoras with his batteries, but it does not appear to us that that will make any difference to the American cause, because t is asserted that the city is deserted by its inhabitants, and it the Mexicans know their true policy, they will offer no serious resistance to the Americans, until they have advanced well int the country; above all they will keep away from any wooded portion of the territory, where their cavalry will be of no use, and where the American rifle, even in the hands of undisciplined men, will prove a formidable foe to them.

The intelligence received yesterday, gives no further news om the seat of war. The excitement at Washington is in-It is reported that the Committee of Congress on Natense. val and Military affairs have determined to urge the immediate passage of a Bill to enable the President to equip fifty thou-and volunteers and appropriate two millions of dollars for ef-fectual operations against Mexico, and to call into requisition the whole force of the navy.

The next thing we shall probably hear is that the American quadron have attacked Vera Cruz: if they do the Castle of St. Juan d'Ulloa is likely to give them full employment. The intelligence of the destruction of the two troops of cavalry is confirmed, and seems to have been admirably managed

THE STEAMBOAT NEW-YORK WITH THE RECRUITS ASHORE.

(Correspondence of the Tribune)

New-Orleans, May 3, 1846. 7

Sunday Morning, 101 o'clock. We have had no farther arrival from Brazos Santiago, but I have to state that the steamboat New York, in proceeding on her voyage thither, got ashore near the South West Pass, and is feared will have to discharge before she can be got off .-She has 180 recruits on board, 1 piece artillery, and some munitions of war. We had counted upon her arrival at Brazos Santiago by this time. Now our hope is that the steamboat Monmouth, from Galvestown, may have arrived in season to save Point Isabel and the stores there, from falling into the hands of the Mexicans. No one feels the least alarm for Gen. Taylor.

TEXAS.

The Rio del Neuces has always been considered the Texan frontier, and the advance of a single soldier beyond it even conceding the whole question of the justice of Texan revolt and subsequent annexation, would have been a positive act of hos tility. But the advance of a whole corps d'armee, which, in-significant as it is in numbers, is declared by the president of the United States himself to be two-thirds of his whole dispo-extraordinary procedure on the part of General Taylor, of declaring the port of Matamoras in a state of blockade-the
