

apostles of strife; and they actually pester the Foreign Office to instruct the representative of the British nation to interfere in the domestic concerns of Sweden, Italy, and Germany.

STATE OF PROTESTANTISM IN WALES.—The Protestant Bishop of Llandaff, in an address lately delivered by him to the "Church Pastoral Aid Society" at Cardiff, quoted the following evidence as to the state of the Protestant bodies in the principality not in union with the Establishment:—"From a sermon of Mr. D. Jenkin, Methodist Minister of Tredegar, published in the Welsh Calvinistic Methodist Magazine:—

If we cast an eye upon our churches in the present day, it will be clearly perceived that religion is in a degenerate state. It is not necessary for me to spend time in persuading you to believe this. It is true that the outward and circumstantial matters of religion seem to be in a flourishing state, but the inward and spiritual matters are withered.

A CLEVER DODGE.—A correspondent of the Glasgow Free Press relates the following of a famous Protestant lecturer at Edinburgh, "till lately" in the service of the Free Church:—"This M'Minimy is, I believe, an apostate, who has been for many years engaged in the pestilent work of proselytism amongst the humbler portion of the Catholics of Edinburgh.

JOHN BULL ENTERTAINING UGLY SUSPICION.—Every now and then there occurs some huge startling contradiction to our sanguine estimate of our actual moral and social advances. We are in the habit of talking of our diligent cultivation of the domestic virtues—and then starts up some monstrous form of diabolical evil, to check the national pride.

much of our supposed moral progress may be fictitious; and in the region of social improvement matters seem no better.—Morning Chronicle.

UNITED STATES.

"THE PROTESTANT PRESS AND THE PAPAL NUNCIATE."—The malignity of the attacks, which—since his arrival in America—and at the instigation of Gavazzi, and the low blackguards his friends and admirers—have been made upon the character and person of Monsignor Bedini have aroused the disgust of the more respectable portion of the Protestant press of the United States; they cannot restrain their indignation at the malignant falsehoods daily uttered against their illustrious visitor by Gavazzi, or the still more cowardly attempts at assassination, at the instigation of the same vile renegade, which thank God, have been effectually defeated.

"We have never seen Monsignor Bedini. We have no connection or sympathy to interest us in him that does not belong to every Protestant American. But we sincerely believe, and are bold to say that he has received ungenerous and unjust treatment. His history has been misrepresented; his character has been maligned; and even his life assailed. All this has been done, it is true, chiefly by red republican refugees, but at no time has it excited the rebuke it deserved, and too frequently has it been received with positive favor and encouragement.

The New York Mirror asserts the somewhat startling belief, that one half of the fires that occur in that city are the deliberate work of the parties insured! For proof it refers to the statistics of the Fire Records, showing that the frequency of disastrous fires bears a proportion to the tightness of the money market.

PROTESTANTISM IN THE UNITED STATES.—The Miller doctrine is spreading in Maine. There are thousands who believe the world will be burnt up next Spring.—Boston Pilot.

A correspondent of the Christian Chronicle, writing from Newport, R. I., says of the first Baptist Church in that city: It stands a monument of the preserving care of God; for it is the only church in all New England that has existed for over two hundred and fifteen years, that has not departed from its original faith; every church in New England of the same age has gone over to Unitarianism.

SPIRIT RAPPINGS.—It is really melancholy to contemplate Protestantism when carried to its full length. There is no species of absurdity, to which human reason if left to itself, will not carry man. We live in an age of boasted enlightenment—freedom of thought is carried to its utmost limit—we have a free press, and what is better we profess and advocate any opinion that comes in our heads.

JOHN BULL ENTERTAINING UGLY SUSPICION.—Every now and then there occurs some huge startling contradiction to our sanguine estimate of our actual moral and social advances. We are in the habit of talking of our diligent cultivation of the domestic virtues—and then starts up some monstrous form of diabolical evil, to check the national pride.

thing better for him than a cell in an insane asylum ere long. This poor deluded man goes so far as to assert that spiritualism is a new and more advanced form of Christianity; and his associates say that he is, like another St. Paul, the Apostle of this more advanced and more perfect form of the Church of Christ.—Crusader.

HEATHENISM IN THE UNITED STATES.—In every city in the land, there are thousands of these Christian heathens growing up in sin and wickedness. In Cincinnati alone, for instance, there are said to be about sixteen thousand young persons growing up in ignorance of God and religion. In Covington and Newport, mere outskirts of Cincinnati, with 23,000 of population, more than one-half are without any religious instruction.

FACTS, WITHOUT COMMENT. THE PUBLIC SHOULD KNOW THEM.

New York, October 10, 1852. Mrs. Hardey, No. 119 Suffolk street, writes us that she has been troubled with worms for some three years, and that she used one vial of DR. M'LANE'S CELEBRATED VERMIFUGE, which brought away over FIFTY LARGE WORMS.

Mrs. Quigby, No. 182 Essex street, New York, under date of November 23, 1852, writes us that she had a child which had been unwell for better than two months. She procured a bottle of M'LANE'S Vermifuge, and administered it. The child passed a large quantity of worms, and in a few days was as hearty as ever it had been.

P. S. This valuable preparation, also Dr. M'LANE'S Celebrated Liver Pills, can now be had at all respectable Drug Stores in this city.

Purchasers will please be careful to ask for, and take none but DR. M'LANE'S VERMIFUGE. All others, in comparison, are worthless.
