BURDOCK BLOOD BITTERS
A NEW DISCOVERY.
For several years we have furnished the best of America with an excellent medicinal color for the hair, so meritorious that it has with great success everywhere receiving the highest and only prizes at both International and Local Exhibitions.
But by patient and scientific chemical research we have improved in color, and now offer this new color as the best in the world. It will not turn rancid, it is the strongest, brightest and cheapest color made.
And, while prepared in oil, it is so compounded as to be applicable for the hair, and for all other oils, for they are liable to become rancid and spoil the hair.
Write for circular and to know where to get it without any delay.
WILLIAM RICHARDSON, 214 N. Washington St., Wash., D. C.

HOUSEHOLD HINTS.
Loosen screws and nuts by pouring on the thread a little kerosene.
Preserve carpets and prevent dust rising from between the boards of the floor, by laying down under the carpets large sheets of paper.
POTATO SALAD.—Cold boiled potatoes in slices, also one onion and small garlic; then season with two table-spoonsful of salad oil, one-half pint of vinegar; pepper and salt to taste; to be mixed three hours before serving; serve cold.
STEWED CUCUMBERS.—Pare the cucumbers and lay in salt and water for half an hour. Cut each cucumber lengthwise into four pieces, sprinkle with a little pepper and salt, flour and fry slightly in a little butter, drain and cover with as much rich cream and milk, one part each, as will cover them, and stew gently until they are tender.
TOMATO SALAD.—Pare with sharp knife. Slice and lay in salad bowl. Make dressing as follows: Work up table-spoonful each of salt, pepper and fresh made mustard, with two table-spoonfuls of salad oil, and when thoroughly mixed, adding only a few drops at a time; whip in with an egg beater, four table-spoonfuls of vinegar; toss up with fork.
STEWED TOMATOES.—Cut them as large and firm as possible; cut a round piece in top of each, scrape out all the soft parts; mix with stale bread crumbs, corn, onions, parsley, butter, pepper and salt; chop very fine, and fill tomatoes; carefully bake in moderately hot oven; put a little butter in pan; see that they do not burn or become dry.
COKE MUFFINS.—One pint corn meal, one pint flour, one table-spoonful sugar, one table-spoonful salt, three table-spoonfuls baking powder, one table-spoonful lard, two eggs, one pint milk. Sift together cornmeal, flour, sugar, salt and powder; rub in lard cold, and eggs beaten, and mix into batter of consistency of cup cake; muffin pans to be cold and well greased, then fill two-thirds. Bake in hot oven 15 minutes.
CATTLEFLOWER.—Plunge a head of cauliflower in salt water several times to remove any insect. Boil ten minutes in salt water, drain on sieve, put cauliflower in buttered dish. Melt piece of butter size of an egg; add to it one table-spoonful of flour, stir on the fire one minute, add gill of milk, a quantity of grated cheese, pepper and salt. Stir the sauce till it boils. Pour over the cauliflower, sprinkle over it a few browned bread crumbs, set it in a moderate oven for a few minutes to bake.
GRAHAM CRACKERS.—One quart best Graham flour, two table-spoonfuls sugar, half table-spoonful salt, half table-spoonful baking powder, two table-spoonfuls butter, little more than half pint milk. Sift together Graham, sugar, salt and powder; rub in lard cold, add milk mix into smooth, consistent dough, knead well five minutes. Roll with rolling pin to thickness of half an inch; cut with knife into small, envelope-shaped crackers. Bake in rather hot oven with care (as they burn readily) ten minutes. Handle carefully while hot; when cold, store for use.
PRESERVED QUINCES.—Pare, quarter and core them, save skins and cores. Put quinces over fire with just water enough to cover them, and simmer till soft, but do not let them cook till they break. Take out fruit and spread on dishes to cool; add parings and cores to water in which quinces were boiled; stew it an hour; then strain through jelly bag; to each pint of this liquor allow a pint of sugar. Boil and skim this, put in fruit and boil 15 minutes. Take all off the fire, and let stand in deep dish 24 hours. Then drain off syrup, let it boil, put in quinces, and boil 15 minutes. Take out fruit again, spread on dishes, boil syrup down to a jelly syrup. Put fruit into jars two-thirds full and cover with the syrup. The quinces will be a fine deep-red color.

KEPT SIXTY YEARS IN A PEN.
SHOCKING CRUELTY TO AN INSANE WOMAN BY HER INHUMAN PARENTS.
ALBANY, N. Y., Sept. 19.—An almost unparalleled case of cruelty has been discovered by John Moulvey, agent of Henry Bergh, acting for the Humane Society, in Cabo, ten miles from this city. A woman of sixty years, a lunatic by birth, was found in a pen 8 by 12 feet, entirely naked, groveling in filth. Her name is Angelina Hoyt, and she has a third interest in a farm of 100 acres, the homestead in which she has been confined her entire life. The room is in the corner of a woodshed and is without plaster. It has one door and a small window, which is closed with a board, admitting no light. Her father was a generous man, and began the course of treatment which has been continued since his death by her brother and sisters. Her mother died three years ago, and her only attendant is a sister aged fifty, a confirmed opium-eater. Her brother-in-law, James B. Knapp, operates the farm, and the only excuse given by him is that the present treatment is less costly than confinement in an asylum. The pen is supposed to be cleaned once a week, when fresh straw is thrown in. The woman sits picking at the straw all the time, and when dressed tears her clothing. Before she lost her teeth she would tear a bull-dog robe into pieces. The relatives of the woman are wealthy, and it is thought she is kept in this condition to save her property for themselves. Previous to the admission of Moulvey, and his companions Knapp gathered a shirt over the woman, and covered it with an old carpet. The woman has no gray hairs, her cheeks are red, and she is apparently healthy, notwithstanding her wretched surroundings. She has lost the use of her lower limbs and cannot stand. The overseer of the poor will send the woman to the asylum as soon as an order can be obtained, and her custodian will be proceeded against for misdemeanor. The woman has a brother in affluent circumstances living near.

IRISH AFFAIRS.
AN INFORMER'S EVIDENCE—AN IRISH LITERATURE WANTED.
DUBLIN, Sept. 24.—Patrick Cole, an informer in the trial of the thirteen prisoners charged with conspiracy to murder Wm. Smith, has made an affidavit declaring that the evidence he gave, which in a measure secured the conviction of six of the accused, was concocted, that he was paid for it, and coached by the prosecution. The recantation was made in the presence of three priests, who propose to impeach the evidence on which the accused were convicted.
CORK, Sept. 24.—Justin McCarthy, in delivering an inaugural address to-night to the Young Ireland Society, dwelt at considerable length upon the necessity for the establishment of an Irish national literature. He denounced all attempts at the denationalizing of the Irish.
