A. G. Morgan's many years experience in the shoe business means an extensive variety of shoes. It means his stock possesses style, excellence, and durability unequalled.

CITY AND ELSEWHERE.

NOVEMBER 1.

Oh, it's now the "side-show" is over.

The corkscrew is the only crooked thing many men will tolerate.

This is the season of the year you can get what you do not want real cheap.

Bishop Ryan, of Buffalo, will celebrate his silver episcopal jubilee, on the 8th inst.

When a young man asks a young lady for her hand, in nine cases out of ten she refers him to her paw.

After the show is over We stand on the railroad track We have all been living in clover But how shall we all get back.

CONTENTMENT is better than riches, but it takes about the same amount of money for one as the other.

Hon. C. H. Mackintosh was sworn in a lieutenant-governor of the Northwest Territories yesterday.

The World's Fair Chicago, is a thing of the past, it being brought to a close on Monday evening, the 30th ult.

Mr. James Jordan after viewing the World's Fair for two weeks returned to the city on Thursday last.

To-day, the Feast of All Saints, being a holy day of obligation, solemn masses were celebrated in all the churches.

A local poet sends in an effusion beginning "The stars are in the quiet sky." Does he expect to find them in the wash boiler?

Mr. O'Donohoe, of Stony Mountain, entertained a party of friends from Winnipeg, yesterday evening, when all present had a good time.

Our esteemed contemporary, the Catholic Citizen, published at Milwaukee, Wis., has entered upon its twenty-fourth year of publication.

The act of the last legislature permitting women to vote at municipal elections has been declared unconstitutional by the Michigan supreme court.

The girl who has learned to cheerfully submit to the inevitable has prepared herself to become a companion well worth the wooing and the winning.

Some of the light-fingered gentry who have been late infesting the city relieved Mr. T. D. Deegan, clothier of Main street, of a valuable beaver cap on Saturday night last.

Humor crops up in queer places. What was supposed to be the body of an infant killed in the terrible railway accident at Battle Creek, turns out to be the remains of a large bologna sausage.

All the English speaking and French parishes of the city of St. Paul are making preparations for a grand bazaar for the orphans. The benefit will be given at one of the large halls on November 20.

Under the new C. P. R. time card the eastbound express is due at Calgary at 2:05, Medicine Hat 9:15 and Regina 2:40. The westbound train is due at Calgary at 2:55, Medicine Hat 10:00 and Regina 2:05.

The Pall Mall Gazette editorially comments on the successful showing made by Canada at the World's Fair, as compared with the United States, and says Canada's success is attracting great attention in Great Britain.

The month of the Holy Rosary ended yesterday. The devil makes the Rosary a special subject of temptations, weariness, contempt, and the like. Persevere in the good work you commenced last week, and it will be the chain of your final perseverance towards happiness.

Mr. Hugh John Macdonald's resignation as M. P. for Winnipeg, has filled the air with rumors as to his successor, Mr. D. E. Sprague, in the Conservative interest, and ex-Mayor Macdonald, in the Liberal interest, are prominently mentioned.

The wisest course in politics is to vote for the best man, and you cannot be mistaken. So, in the use of blood purifiers, you can't be mistaken if you take Ayer's Sarsaparilla, because all parties agree that it is the best—the Superior Medicine. Try it this month.

It is said one of the infallible signs of winter in Kansas is when the owners of peanut stands sit them up with glass windows. We might add that is a sure sign of an approaching winter in Manitoba when you meet a coal cart on very corner.

The Fall Assizes opened yesterday.

It is authoritatively stated that the Hon. Mr. Laurier, the leader of the Liberal party, will not visit the prairie this year.

The school board of St. Paul, Minn., has fixed the scale of wages for the teachers of that city regardless of sex.

Mr. H. L. Chabot has re-opened the premises at 513 Main Street, lately occupied by Radiger & Co., with a fine stock of wines, liquors and cigars.

PATENT medicines are advertised as being worth their weight in gold, and the druggist takes good care to make you pay that much for them.

An exchange says of the life of clergymen 42 per cent. reach 70 years; farmers, 30; merchants, 33; soldiers and clerks, 32; lawyers, 29; teachers, 28; physicians, 24.

At a recent school examination held in Glasgow, Scotland, a pupil was asked to name the patron saint of Ireland. "Mr. Gladstone," was the unexpected reply.

She asked him why he did not go. Instead of waiting on and on, And the facetious youth replied: "Because I am already gone."

A CERTAIN farmer out west, who claimed that he was unable to spend a dollar for a year's subscription to his county paper, sent that amount down east for a receipt to stop a horse from slobbering—he got it, and here it is: "Teach your horse to spit."

In order that passengers for the Deloraine and Glenboro' branches would not be delayed in Winnipeg consequent on the change of train service, the C. P. R. started trains over these lines on Sunday, leaving here at 8:40 and 9 o'clock respectively. Trains over the branches left yesterday at the same hours.

Miss Lina McGurigan the young lady who was reported in these columns last week, as lying dangerously ill at Rat Portage, Ont., was taken to the St. Boniface hospital on Monday morning, under the medical treatment of Dr. Ferguson; and we regret to say her chances for recovery are reported as somewhat doubtful.

The attendance this year at the October devotions has been encouraging. The congregation seemed to increase in numbers with each week. If this continues, as we hope, the Holy Father will realize his desire that the devotion of the Holy Rosary may become a common practice among all Catholics.

AMIDST the hard times we take great pleasure in congratulating our esteemed contemporary, the Colorado Catholic, upon its neat new dress, and of what is of greater credit to it, its columns are always interesting and invigorating. The editorial portions of it, from the able pen of Rev. Father Malone, invariably have a substantial ring and a bright color.

The eminent Jesuit Father, John Joseph Franco, who has long and closely studied the spiritist movement in Italy, has published a manual on this serious subject. As in other countries, the spiritist movement is rapidly extending in Italy, to the grave detriment of faith and morals, and to a greater extent than is generally believed.

The musical world has sustained a severe loss in the death of the great composer, M. Gounod, who passed away recently at Paris. For the last quarter of a century he has held a commanding place among the musical geniuses of the world. He is best known by his setting of that touching masterpiece of comedy, the Faust of Goethe, to music that will never die so long as the human heart is moved by passions.

The Catholic who is not interested in church news, has little love for religion or gratitude for the gift of faith. He is of the class that find Catholic papers uninteresting. How will he be content, should he get to heaven, for the talk there will not be of the kind that he likes now?—Catholic Review. In the above case that prominent Catholic of the Rev. Dr. Bryce's no doubt would feel very uncomfortable, should he be blessed with sufficient grace to enter into heaven.

The Brantford Courier reports quite a suggestive case before the police court of that city. A man named McPherson was fined $10 and costs for stealing $25 from another man. The magistrate who imposed that sentence ought to have considered the probability of starting a new industry among the unscrupulous. Being fined $10 for stealing $25 nets the offender about $15. This might become quite a lucrative business if encouraged.

W. W. OGLIVIE has returned to Montreal from the west, and states this season's crop will grade at least 75 per cent. No. 1 hard, the best quality in the market, and that the yield, both in point of quality and otherwise, will surpass that of last year. The east bound movement of grain has begun. Thus far the receipts at his company's Montreal mills of this season's crops exceed 150,000 bushels, and they have also stored 330,000 in Fort William elevator.

Mrs. John Hofferan, of Winona, Minnesota, used a novel argument to get work for her husband, says the Catholic Review,—she marched into the store from which he had been discharged, carrying her six-months old baby in her arms, and quietly informed his late employers that they must either give him back his place or take care of the infant, whom she put down on the counter. Then she hurried away. The store-keepers at once capitulated. They agreed that if she would take the baby back they would take her husband back. So all's well that ends well.

Lord Shannon, who has been called "the cowboy lord," is a good type of the generous Irishman. His wild life in America gave him a taste for rough men and hard labor, and he spends much of his time at his beautiful country seat in county Cork, with his men in the fields. He is particularly fond of woodchopping, and the results of his labors in this respect are always distributed as fuel to his cottagers. Some of his brother peers might follow a worse example.

"Here's a little poem," said the poet, "which has never been in print."

"Yes," replied the grumpy editor, "If you'll let me hint a hint."

"In that basket by the door, And another half a thousand You will find upon the floor— To be printed? Nevermore!"

A new form of marriage ceremony is practiced by a Georgia justice of the peace. He concludes as follows: By the authority vested in me, as an officer in the State of Georgia, which is sometimes called the empire state of the south; by the fields of cotton that lie spread out in snowy whiteness around us; by the howl of the coon dog and the gourd vine, whose clinging tendrils will shade the entrance to your humble dwelling place; by the red and luscious heart of the watermelon, whose sweetness fills the heart with joy; by the heavens and earth, in the presence of these witnesses, I pronounce you man and wife. There is evidently a good deal of room for a missionary enterprise in Georgia.

WANTED.

A GOOD LIVE CATHOLIC CORRESPONDENT to the Northwest Review in every town of importance in Manitoba and the Northwest. A liberal offer will be made to applicants. Address P. O. Box 508.

The Law Regarding Newspapers

1. Any person who takes a paper regularly from the post office, whether in his name or another's, or whether he has subscribed or not, is responsible for payment.

2. If a person orders his paper discontinued, he must pay up all arrears, or the publisher may continue to send it until payment is made and then collect the whole amount whether the paper is taken from the office or not.

3. In suits for subscriptions, the suit may be instituted in the place where the paper is published, although the subscriber may reside hundreds of miles away.

4. The courts have decided that refusing newspapers or periodicals from the post office, or removing and leaving them uncalled for, is prima facie evidence of intentional fraud.

To Subscribers.

Subscribers wishing to discontinue taking the Northwest Review, when mailing it refused, or directing their postmaster to return their copies to this office, should at the same time see that they do not owe any arrears. No subscriber has the privilege of discontinuing a newspaper upon which the arrears are unpaid. The printed slip on each issue tells the date to which the last payment was made. We never send our paper to any but actual subscribers, and always discontinue sending to those so directing us provided they are not in arrears. Neither are we particular for a few weeks, but we ought not to be expected to lose sums of twenty-five cents and upward.

OVERCOATS

On Saturday last the Great Overcoat Sale started in with the biggest rush ever seen in the clothing trade of this city. The crowd is still with us and we have extra salesmen engaged to take care of them. If you want a Winter Overcoat now is your opportunity. Grasp it and be quick about it, for the large stock we started in with is melting like snow under a noonday sun.

TOO MANY SUITS, We must Sell them out, no Matter what the Cost is.

We are growing a little anxious in connection with our Men's Suit Department on account of the enormous quantity still on hand. Notwithstanding the large trade we have done so far this season we find we have too many on our tables, which must be sold by Christmas. In order to accomplish this object we will commence tomorrow, Saturday, one of the most genuine Suit Sales ever held by any house in Canada. Remember these suits are all first class, so you can buy them with every assurance that you will get satisfaction.
