

ARTICLE 37

The present convention shall not be capable of being denounced until a period of five years has elapsed since the date of its coming into force.

Thereafter notifications of denunciation may be addressed to the Government of the French Republic and shall take effect one year after the date of their receipt. Certified copies of such notifications, showing the date on which they were received, shall be immediately transmitted by the Government of the French Republic to the Governments of all countries which have signed or acceded to the present convention.

The provisions of the present article apply also to colonies, protectorates, overseas territories and territories under suzerainty or mandate.

ARTICLE 38

If, by reason of denunciations, the number of contracting countries is reduced to less than seven, the Government of the French Republic shall immediately summon an international conference to consider what measures shall be taken.

ARTICLE 39

The Government of the French Republic shall communicate to the International Bureau copies of all ratifications, accessions and denunciations.

ARTICLE 40

The present convention shall remain open for signature at Paris until the 30th April, 1929.

In faith whereof the undermentioned plenipotentiaries have signed the present convention.

Done at Paris on the 22nd November, 1928, in one copy which shall be deposited in the archives of the Government of the French Republic, and of which certified copies shall be transmitted through the diplomatic channel to the Governments of all countries represented at the Conference of Paris.
