

- This announcement was the culmination of efforts last year to ensure that NAFTA becomes the principal tool for liberalizing trade and investment in the hemisphere.
- By the end of May this year, the three NAFTA partners will have completed the preliminary work required to add a fourth member. All participants are expecting to conclude the negotiations by the end of 1995.