

Reference Material

The reference material section includes a wide range of information, from the customs tariffs for exporting, to directories of the trade fairs and professional conferences in Mexico, to the Canadian government programs and services available for Canadian business interested in exporting to Mexico.

Export Planning Tools

Critical to any successful business initiative are the tools used to strategically plan the activities. Templates have been prepared to guide the exporter through the export venture, from planning the initial export shipment and its logistics, to seeking out a partner in the new market to enhance future dealings with Mexico.
