

Responses to Public Consultations on Canada - Central America Free Trade Negotiations
January - February 2001
Volume II

Réponses aux consultations publiques en vue des négociations de libre-échange Canada - Amérique centrale janvier - février 2001

11	Northern Alberta Institute of Technology (NAIT) Mr. Jose Balcaceres International Education and Business Development Edmonton AB	02 Feb. 2001	Technical/ Vocational Training	For	(Education market, temporary entry, investment, other restrictions) <ul style="list-style-type: none"> - An FTA will facilitate NAIT's entry in Central American technical vocational training markets. - Improvement for education is essential for achieving the goals of human development, social change, economic progress and the elimination of poverty. - Factors that emphasize the demand for improvement of education: Economic globalization; extreme wage inequality; participatory democracy; role and organization of the state; and major demographic transition. - Highlights need for agreements that include standards for professional training, licensing and accreditation. - Lists a number of restrictions to travel, commercial presence and temporary entry of persons.
12	Okanagan University Mr. Wesley Johnson BC	01 Feb. 2001		For, with concerns	(Social Issues, Services) <ul style="list-style-type: none"> - Concerned about inclusion of social services. - Medical & education services should be excluded from negotiations in this FTA & the FTAA.