

The second joint venture signed today involves DGM Consulting of Ottawa and SNC of Montreal in an equity partnership with Samsung of Korea to establish a trading house to pursue bilateral and third country trade.

Minister Rha, along with the Commercial Mission of senior executives from Korea which he is leading, will complete their visit to Canada in Vancouver where they will participate in a meeting of the Canada-Korea Business Council.

For information contact the East Asia Trade Division of the Department of External Affairs at 613-996-7582.