

Business of the House

establishment of an agricultural products board; Bill No. 44, an act to provide for short-term credit to grain producers of the prairie provinces; Bill No. 23, an act to amend the Government Annuities Act. To the best of my knowledge there are few items left on the order paper after these.

Mr. Drew: The minister does not think we can take up resale price maintenance tomorrow as well?

Mr. Fournier (Hull): I can try, but I do not think I shall succeed.

Mr. Drew: May I have an indication as to when the house leader does expect to bring forward the measure relating to resale price maintenance?

Mr. Fournier (Hull): I could not give the definite hour on Monday, but on Monday we intend to bring it up.

Mr. Graydon: You are going on with it?

Mr. Fournier (Hull): Certainly. It was announced in the speech from the throne.

At ten o'clock the house adjourned, without question put, pursuant to the order of the house passed on November 2, 1951.

BUSINESS OF THE HOUSE

Mr. Fournier (Hull) in speaking tonight, said that he would be bringing forward the bill to amend the Government Annuities Act, Bill No. 23, and the bill to provide for short-term credit to grain producers of the prairie provinces, Bill No. 44, on Monday. He also mentioned the bill to amend the Government Annuities Act, Bill No. 23, and the bill to provide for short-term credit to grain producers of the prairie provinces, Bill No. 44, on Monday. He also mentioned the bill to amend the Government Annuities Act, Bill No. 23, and the bill to provide for short-term credit to grain producers of the prairie provinces, Bill No. 44, on Monday.

CANADIAN - U.S. TRADE RELATIONS

Mr. Fournier (Hull) in speaking tonight, said that he would be bringing forward the bill to amend the Government Annuities Act, Bill No. 23, and the bill to provide for short-term credit to grain producers of the prairie provinces, Bill No. 44, on Monday. He also mentioned the bill to amend the Government Annuities Act, Bill No. 23, and the bill to provide for short-term credit to grain producers of the prairie provinces, Bill No. 44, on Monday.