

CONTENTS.

CHAPTER I.

	PAGE.
An Eighteen-Cara* Desperado.—The Man from Texas.—An Awful Accident.—Heroic Conduct of the Man from Texas.—His Ranch on the Rio Frio.—Invited to Texas.—Leaving New York.—Arrival in Texas.—Galveston.—Strange and Unique City.—Cosmopolitan Population.—Diversity of Languages.—Magnificent Beach.—Tropical Vegetation.—“Dreams of the Orient.”—Board of Health.—Disinfecting Dead Letters.—The Pirate Lafitte.—First Great Fraud in Louisiana.—Jealousy between Galveston and Houston.—Sand-Crabs and Mud-Turtles.—Yellow-Fever Germs.—The Infected Coffee-Bean.—Quarantine.—Two Thousand Dollars’ Worth of Strategy	15

CHAPTER II.

Sunday in Galveston.—Houses built on the Sand.—Bathing Facilities.—Expostulating with a Policeman.—A Popular Fallacy.—The Beach.—Scanty Costume.—The Man with a Spy-Glass.—The Bar.—A Thousand Per Cent.—Acres of Calico.—At Dinner.—The Doctor	28
---	----

CHAPTER III.

The Procession.—Extraordinary Outfit.—The Doctor’s Arsenal.—He wanted to buy Beads for the Indians.—All Aboard for Houston.—Buffalo Bayou.—The Magnolia.—Spanish Moss.—Ninety-Five Degrees in the Shade.—The Superannuated Old Hen-Coop.—Ten Miles of History.—Dry Seasons.—“Let’s Wood Up.”—Shooting Alligators.—Devastating the Boat’s Commissary.—The Journey of Life.—Born with the Family Plate in his Mouth.—Arrival at Houston.—Houston in 1840.—“Infested with Red Ants and Methodists.”—Hotel Chair-Sculptors.—Competitive Lying.—The Rooter Dog.—“Green from the States.”—Tropical Welcome.—One Policeman to Fifteen Saloons	38
--	----

CHAPTER IV.

“Giving Galveston Hell.”—Pluribus Unum, Nox Vomica, Vox Populi.—Anchoring Galveston Island with an Artesian Well.—Houston as a Sea-
---	--