

the day following, if the 30th happens to be on Sunday, the officers elected at the preceding meeting shall enter on their functions.

At the said Annual Festival, every member of the Society who shall appear without a St. Andrew's Cross on his breast, shall forfeit and pay to the Society's use, one dollar and fifty cents.

SECTION IV.

OF THE OFFICERS OF THE SOCIETY: THEIR DUTY AND BUSINESS.

No person shall be eligible to the office of President who has not been at least twelve months an ordinary or perpetual member of the Society.

The duty of the President, Vice-President or Chairman, is to preside at all meetings, to regulate the deliberations of the Society, to state and put questions both in the affirmative and the negative, according to the sense and intention of the meeting; to check undue warmth or irregularity, and keep all persons in order; and for this purpose he shall have the power of fining, at his discretion, an offending member, not exceeding twenty-five cents for each offence, without putting a vote; to direct summonses for all ordinary and extraordinary general meetings; and to execute or superintend the execution of all the rules and orders of the Society.

The custody and use of the seal, the power of naming the place of meeting, with all other powers vested in him by ancient usage, shall, as heretofore, remain with the President, or, in his absence, with the Vice-President or Chairman.

The President, Vice-President, or Chairman, shall approve of all disbursements, and sign all orders of distribution, the account of which shall, as usual, be submitted to the Society for its satisfaction.
