

number present to be Chairman of the Meeting, and the Chairman so chosen shall exercise all the functions and authority of the President for the transaction of business at that Meeting.

19. The Council may delegate any of its powers to Committees consisting of such member or members of its body as it sees fit; any Committee so formed shall in the exercise of the powers so delegated conform to any regulations that may be imposed on it by the Council.

20. All Committees shall elect one of their number a Chairman. If at any meeting the Chairman is not present within ten minutes after the time appointed for holding the same, the members present may choose one of their number to be Chairman of the Meeting.

21. A Committee may meet and adjourn as it sees fit. Questions arising at any Meeting shall be determined by a majority of the members present, and in case of an equality of votes, the Chairman shall have a casting vote.

22. The Council shall cause true accounts to be kept of the sums of money received and expended by the Association and the matter in respect of which such receipt and expenditure takes place, and of the Assets and Liabilities of the Association.

23. The books of accounts shall be kept at the office of the Association or at such other place or places as the Council sees fit and shall always be open to the inspection of the Council.

24. The Council shall from time to time determine whether and to what extent and at what times and places and under what conditions or regulations the accounts and books of the Association or any of them shall be open to the inspection of members of the Association (not being Councillors), and no member (not being Councillor) shall have any right of inspecting
