

on the personal character and virtues of the king for the time being, (which would have been the consequence of the system of measures recommended by the archbishop,) would be a much greater. And in this opinion, I trust, I am not singular, but have the concurrence of thousands and tens of thousands of my fellow-subjects.

Prohibe lamentatione sonare;
vixta populos; Lachrymas, luctus que vere pejus erat. — Lucane Pharsal.
