

war and hatred shall be no more. And as Thou hast commanded us to love our enemies, and to pray for them that despitefully use us, have mercy, we beseech Thee, on our adversaries in the present war. Deliver them from the guilt of ambition and blood, and dispose their hearts to clemency and justice. Overrule this strife to the renewal of kindly brotherhood amongst nations, the enlargement of the Redeemer's kingdom, and the union of the world in Christian faith and love, that all may unite together in striving to exalt and magnify Thy glorious Name, through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen."

Collect for the day, as before.

"Almighty and merciful God, who in our days, and in the days of our forefathers, hast visited this kingdom with many and great blessings, save and deliver us, we humbly beseech Thee, from the hands of our enemies; that being armed with Thy defence, we may be preserved from all perils, to glorify Thee who art the only Giver of all victory, through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen."

¶ For the Epistle. Jeremiah VII. Verse 1—7.

The word that came to Jeremiah from the Lord, saying, Stand in the gate of the Lord's House, and proclaim there this word, and say, Hear the word of the Lord, all ye of Judah, that enter in at these gates to worship the Lord. Thus saith the Lord of Hosts, the God of Israel, Amend your ways and your doings, and I will cause you to dwell in this place. Trust ye not in lying words, saying, The temple of the Lord, The temple of the Lord, The temple of the Lord, are these. For if ye thoroughly amend your ways and your doings, if ye execute judgment between a man and his neighbour; if ye oppress not the stranger, the fatherless, and the widow, and shed not innocent blood in this place, neither walk after other gods to your hurt: then will I cause you to dwell in this place, in the land that I gave to your fathers, for ever and ever.

¶ The Gospel. St. Luke XVIII. Verse 9—14.

And he spake this parable unto certain which trusted in themselves that they were righteous, and despised others: Two men went up into the temple to pray: the one a Pharisee, and the other a publican. The Pharisee stood and prayed thus with himself, God, I thank Thee, that I am not as other men
