For Absolute Surrender.

After Senator Hitchcock and others had declared an armistice impossible, Senator McCumber introduced a resolution, proposing as the first requisite to any peace negotiations, absolute surrender by Germany, including dissolution of her army and navy and pledges for complete indemnifications. The resolution was referred to the foreign relations committee.

Altho first pointing out that Germany's offer acknowledges acceptance of President Wilson's 14 peace terms, many's offer acknowledges accep'ance of President Wilson's 14 peace terms, Senator Hitchcock declared that the request for an armistice is "absolutely abhorrent' to every member of the senate. "It is unthinkable," he said. "that the German and Austrian proposals will be accepted," and he insisted that not only must Alsace-Lorraine be restored to France, but that in any peace pregistions an orthat, in any peace negotiations, an or-ganic change in Germany's laws must be had so that the akkes will deal with representatives of the German

Declaring that an armistice would ean loss of the war, Senator Lodge id the allies must gain a complete said the allies must gain a complete military victory and that Germany must be put "behind the bars." He pointed out the danger of the "peace offensive," which he predicted last August the enemy would make, and he said that he did not believe President Wilson contemplates accepting any such proposal as that made by the enemy.

Defeat May be Seen.

The allied armies are in a strong and advantageous position, and the general feeling here is that the defeat of Germany may some scener than expected elsewhere than at the front. By retiring unhindered the Germans could materially shorten their lines and save men thereby. Thus they could strengthen their ranks and probably be able to hold out until all the new 1920 class of about 500,000 young men could be incorporated in the units in the battle zone.

In addition, a vigorous "combing out" is in progress in Germany, which will undoubtedly yield reinforcements. Also, machine guns could be shapped into the field to replace some of the immense number the allies
