Official Figures of New Year's Results—Some Probabilities—Gossip.

The official figures for the power by-law confirm the sweeping victory already announced, the majority being 7783 in a total vote of 13,327. The trunk sewer fare better than its companion bylaws, going under to the extent of 2018 votes, while Yonge-street bridge had 4098 to make up, and the exhibition entrance bylaw 4612. Mayor Coatsworth's official majority is 5618. The World yesterday gave him one more than that.

For board of control, the figures are: Ward 5, 5857; Harrison 5024; Hooker 5623; Hubbard 4473; Fleming 5083; Jones 4712; Shaw 6449; Dunn 5055; Davis 1382; Briggs 491.

For board of education: Rawlinson 9316; Levee 7920; Henry Simpson 8017; James Simpson 6597; Hunter 4900; Hawke 4835; Houston 3823; Davis 3738; Tomlin 2167; Gooch 3536; Thompson 2442; Scott 1820; Rawbone 1597; Gribble 1213; Stamford 1001.

For board of health: Ward One: Chisholm 1856; Wilson 1312; Hales 1203; Stewart 1142; Sanderson 1111.

Ward Two: Foster 1719; Hales 1896; Church 1653; Noble 1172; Cox 1065; Hoeg 818; O'Connor 725.

Ward Three: Geary 2718; Bengough 2386; McBride 1956; Humphrey 959; Johnston 876; Harris 755; Granatstein 409; Friedman 135.

Ward Four: McMurrich 2603; Vaughan 2589; Lytle 1863; Lovelock 1513; Williamson 1062; Stacey 940.

Ward Five: Keeler 1863; Graham 1660; P. B. Whytock 1469; Aldridge 1174; Carlyle 1065; Scott 959; Bell 845; Hurd 622; Cook 500; Meredith 483.

Ward Six: McGhie 2554; Graham 2271; Adams 1850; Hurs 1405.

Business Disappointed.
"I was disappointed with the vote on the trunk sewer bylaw," said City Engineer Rust. "I think it will be wanted soon. I think the difference of opinion as to the final disposition of the sewage has had something to do with the result, and before the bylaw is again submitted the council should decide whether it is advisable to empty the effluent in the lake or employ septic tanks. While I have reported in favor of the former method, I am opposed to the tanks only because of the extra expense. I would be willing to have a bylaw submitted, making such provision. I think that if definite proposition were put before the people they would carry it."

Says Dr. Sheard: "I think the vote was due to two causes. There was a certain degree of uncertainty in the minds of the people as to how the trunk sewer would end. They could not be exactly sure of the ultimate termination, and how much that ending of it might cost."

Dr. Sheard thinks newspaper hostility against the bylaw turned many votes. If the sewer bylaw had been in complete form, it would probably have carried by a margin bringing it up again for some time.

Labour and Liberals for Lindala.
Now that the majority vote, he gives the opinion that the labor unions almost solidly supported Lindala, as did also a number of his members. He deprecates the defeat of Controllers Shaw and Jones, considering that the city loses much in the former's experience and in the latter's energy in fighting the street railway.

The defeat of the Yonge-street bridge bylaw will mean, it is understood, that the new city council will vigorously renew the struggle to have the order of the railway commission made binding. It is now suggested that the car line entrance to the exhibition grounds should be by Tecumseh-street, and that route would do violence to historic tradition. The board of control and the Exhibition association will confer on this proposition. The mayor has declared he will fight to have the trunk sewer bylaw re-submitted before the next month.

Committee Possibilities.
The smoke of battle has cleared away, busy speculation is going on around the city hall touching the probable make-up of the new civic committee. The "striking" committee of the board of control, consisting of Vaughan, Keeler and Graham is well balanced politically, so that the making of selections, so as to give a party majority to ensure a partisan election of chairman, is not probable.

While it is not, of course, a set rule that old members should be returned to their respective committees, it is recognized as a good principle not to make too many shifts, and probably the majority of the survivors of the 1906 council will be found in their old committee allotments. However, there are five vacancies on the board of works, two on the legislation and reception committee, three on fire and light, five on parks and exhibition, and three on the island committee, while Chairman Aid. Dunn is the sole casualty on the property committee.

The local board of health loses its chairman in Aid. Noble. The appointment being for a term of three years, the mayor, ex-Controller Shaw, Aid. Dunn, Noble and Stewart makes it certain that Aid. Vaughan will resign again.

Controller Ward could have the vice-chairmanship of the board of control if he so wished, but it is not known whether the honor appeals to him, as it means more work, and work is not understood to be his strong point.

The defeat of Aid. Noble and Aid. Stewart on their home grounds means that the movement, understood to be in the making to reinstate former Street Commissioner Jones, has been given a rude jolt. Some weeks ago Aid. Noble was credited with being the originator of a quiet conspiracy of the kind, but when asked about it he stated that Aid. Stewart was the real mover. The undertaking was abandoned only temporarily, it was understood, and was to be attempted early in the New Year, after the elections were safely over.

Two Left Out of Seven.
The slaughter among the members of the parks and exhibition committee, Chairman Aid. Vaughan and Aid. Adams being the sole survivors of the seven, in the retirement of Aid. Sheppard, and the defeat of Controller Shaw, Aid. Dunn, Noble and Stewart makes it certain that Aid. Vaughan will resign again.

The Works Chairmanship.
Aid. Geary will probably again be chosen chairman of the works committee, the his frequent absence during the year, due to stress of private business, has developed a certain amount of feeling that a chairman with more time to give to the committee's work would be preferable. Aid. McGhie, chairman in 1905, is, however, the only member who is considered really eligible. A successful year's chairmanship and a vigorous policy of improving the parks and exhibition, and the new asphalt plan, would materially aid in furthering the majority ambitions for 1908 he is believed to possess.

Aid. J. Graham has made a splendid chairman of the legislation and reception committee. He has been a particularly happy choice so far as receiving convention guests is concerned, and no rival for his post is likely to loom up.

The translation of Aid. Chisholm from the chairmanship of the island committee back to his old position on the property committee, whose work is more important, is predicted, as no one else seems to covet the honor. There is the usual talk of abolishing the island committee, which serves little purpose beyond adjudicating upon long-drawn-out debates over petty leases of sandbar lots. If the committee is again

Good Intentions.
Ald. J. J. Graham says he will endeavor to have the street railway restore the original service on the west end car lines by preventing the company from taking off cars, and will move to have an interim of two weeks.

The city clerk is well pleased with the result of the arrangements for handling the returns. Of the 200 deputies only two were prevented from acting, due to illness.

SMALLPOX IN VAUGHAN BUT BREAK NOT SERIOUS
Disease Brought From Manitoba — East Toronto Residents in Fatal Accident.

Toronto Junction, Jan. 2.—The vital statistics for the town for December show 22 births, 6 marriages and 8 deaths.

The excitement caused by the nomination meeting has somewhat abated, and matters are beginning to find their way. The only contest for the council will take place in ward 5, where Councillors Howell and Greenleaf are fighting for their seats against Robert Shey, Toronto, and J. W. Moore. For the school board the only election will be in ward 1, in which Trustee Deane and Robert Williamson are contesting.

W. J. Wadsworth, the recently elected school trustee, is very ill at his home on Kent Lodge No. 1. Daughters of England met tonight in St. James' Hall, and installed the following officers: President, Mrs. Lowndes; vice-president, Mrs. Warren; secretary, William Harris; treasurer, Mrs. K. Mould; chaplain, Mrs. Mould; first guide, Miss C. Mould; second guide, Mrs. Alderson; third guide, Mrs. Bentley; fourth guide, Mrs. Mose; inside guard, Mrs. Hanley; outside guard, Mrs. Blackburn.

A well-attended meeting of the Ladies' Aid Society was held in St. James' Hall to-night, for the purpose of organizing in ward 5, to further the interests of the poor. A number of members of the society were present. After some discussion it was decided not to endorse any candidate now in the field for mayor.

Wallace Black, Freeparty No. 675, held his first annual supper to-night in St. James' Hall. Over 100 guests were seated in the dining room. A number of prominent air knights from Toronto were present.

St. John's Sunday school Christmas entertainment was held this evening. Over 300 children met in the Sunday school at 4 o'clock this afternoon, where the teachers and members of the little ones. Refreshments were served and the meeting adjourned to St. James' Hall, where a magic lantern show was given by the children. Bert Hounsell, one of the pianomakers, was in charge of the music. Refreshments were served by the ladies. The case was adjourned until Saturday.

This evening (Thursday) the Citizens' League will hold a mass meeting in St. James' Hall at 8 o'clock. Rev. Lawlor will preside, and others will address the meeting. George A. Wilson of Toronto will occupy the chair. A good program of music will be provided also.

Toronto.
The most stirring campaign meeting held so far in the municipal contest in York Township was convened in the schoolhouse of the "Yonge" ward, last night. The audience represented polling subdivisions Nos. 2, 4 and 5, and was thoroughly representative. Robert McKay, president and Robert Hazell, secretary. The chairman called the aspirants for municipal offices to the platform. The candidates were: Mr. Mortimer, R. Keys, J. R. Segriff, Thos. C. McKay, Boby Eads, Howard, Chris Leaman, J. Bolderstone, W. Andrews, James Bell and School Trustees James Stevens and Harry Miles responded to the request, after which the candidates were allowed ten minutes each to address the meeting. Rev. Lawlor presided, and the meeting was an unlimited opportunity to reply to each other, and the excitement and approval of the meeting was such that the speaker for the "Yonge" ward, Mr. W. Pickett of Deer Park is still confined to the General Hospital, with little or no improvement.

Weston.
T. W. Griffith Jr. is in the field for re-election as councillor for Weston.

Malvern.
The home of Councillor John Lawrie was the scene of a pretty evening, when the Ontario cousins of Miss Bena Mcowan of Weston, in Prairie assembled to have a photo taken and to present Miss Mcowan with a pearl set consisting of a number of twenty-two, took their places at the front of the house. The photograph was taken by the "snap." After tea, Miss Bena Mcowan of Brown's Corners, in a few well-chosen words, addressed the Malvern cousins and Miss Bessie Lawrie presented the pin.

and sister, Dr. Bell went out Saturday, and under his instructions a strict quarantine was established, and is being maintained by Dr. Robinson, M. H. O. of Kleinburg. The disease was communicated to the Card family by the return of Albot Card, who lately came home from Manitoba, but who is now fully recovered. The others are making fair progress and no serious results are anticipated. The other case is located in the Village of Maple. The patient is named Lloyd. He is sufficiently recovered now to sit up. The customary visiting is said to have been carried on before the nature of the illness was diagnosed, since which time the strictest quarantine has been exercised. No further spread of the disease will, it is thought, occur.

POWER BYLAW WILL CARRY
Ingersoll, Jan. 2.—(Special.)—Deputy Mayor to-day carried the belief that the municipal campaign will be of unusual interest. Dr. J. B. Colridge and Mr. S. Fleet are in the race for the mayoralty, and a fight all the way is promised. R. A. Skinner was elected deputy-reeve by acclamation. Nine of the 21 nominees for the aldermanic contest qualified. They were, J. W. Elliott, J. D. Knapp, S. W. Laird, W. Miller, C. A. O'Neill, J. L. Paterson, F. Richardson, George Sutherland and Thomas Timms.

Ingersoll is enthusiastic over the result, and it is thought that the by-law power bylaw will be carried by a large majority.
