New Industry for the City. If proof were wanted that Toronto is at least progressing in some particular directions, one has only got to notice the large number of alterations and erections of many new buildings that are taking place in and around the city. Owing to large and increasing business, the Newell and Higel Company, Limited, manufacturers of plano actions, keys and hammers, organ keys, reeds and boards, have purchased the Toronto Lithographing Company's old building, measuring 50x200 feet, at the northwest corner, of King and Bathurst-streets. To this the Newell and Higel Company have added new buildings to the extent of fifteen thousand dollars. The new buildings will include large boiler room, engine room, from which power and electric light for the entire buildings will be supplied. The dry kiln, winch is in course of erection, will, it is said on good authority, be the best on the continent. The number of the employes at nees. The work in connection with the new buildings is being satisfactorily carried out by the company with Messrs. Gowinlock and Baker as architects and Messrs. Orr Bros. as builders. It is of more than ordinary interest to mention that the company have successfully disposed of their present factories at Hayter-street and West Kingstreet to two other manufacturing companies, one being, it is stated on excellent authority, a new American industry. The names of this couple of companies are, set, being kept private as also is the nature of their respective businesses.

With reference to other building operations in and around the city, the following permits have just been obtained: M. H. MacLeod, two-storey and attic store and dwelling, brick, No. 36 Leopold-street, cost $3000; Mrs. Burns, to erect a wostorey wood, plaster and brick dwelling, near Youge-street, norfa side of Brooklyn-avenue, cost $2000; kms.
