Announcement of Generous Terms in the House of Commons Greeted With Cheers -Burghers Acknowledge King Edward as Their Sovereign-Dual Language -Colonies Not to Be Taxed For War-Treatment of Colonial Rebels.

VOTE OF THANKS TO KITCHENER AND ARMY TO BE MOVED

London, June 2 .- Not in years had | the House of Commons been so thronged with a brilliant and enthusiastic ience as when the First Lord of the Treasury and government leader in the house, Mr. Balfour, announced this afternoon the peace terms concluded with the Boers.

An hour before the house met a large crowd in Whitehall vociferously cheered the notable politicians, particularly the Colonial Secretary, Joseph Chamberlain, who walked unconcernedly from the Colonial Office with a broad smile on his face.

Long before the customary prayer, the galleries of the house were packed. Joseph H. Choate, the United States ambassador, Henry White, the Secretary of the Embassy, Lord Rothschild and many members of the cabinet patiently waited thru the answering of questions in the house for the momentous announcement. An unusually large number of peers sat in their gallery and behind the ladies' grill aristocrati women were closely packed. Notice able among them was Lady Sarah Wilson, who thus saw the end of the drama in which she played such an active part.

Ovation to Leaders.

Mr. Chamberlain and Mr. Balfour both received a great ovation as they walked to their seats, Mr. Chamberlain's ovation being by far the more thusiastic of the two.

The period of waiting finally came to an end. Amid breathless silence, broken a few seconds later by applause such as the House of Commons seldom hears, Mr. Balfour stood up and announced the terms on which the war in South Africa had been ended, The reference to the Boers acknowledging King Edward as their sovereign was the hit of the day, being greeted with a salvo of "Hear, hears" and applause from the galleries, the occupants of which refused to be silenced.

Liberality Cheered.

Rosebery associated themselves with the Premier's tribute. Lord Salisbury, then remarking that he hoped the agreed-on- terms of sur-render would bring the lamentable state of things in South Africa to an end, proceeded to read the terms of the agreement arrived at with the The benefits of this clause do not extend to certain acts contrary to extend to certain acts contrary to the usages of war, which had usen notified by the commander-in-chief to the Boer generals, and which shall be tried by court marúai after the close of hostilities. So soon as the conditions permit it, a commission, on which the local inhabitants will be represented, will be appointed in each district of the Transvaal and Orange River Colony under the presidency of a magistrate or other official for the purpose of assisting in the restoration of the people to their homes, and supplying these who, owing to war losses, are unable to provide for themselves, with food and shelter, and the nece sary amount of seed, stock and imple-ments, etc., indispensable to the re-sumption of the former occupants. "His Majesty's government will be and the dispense of these commendous noise in the streets, composed of a pandemonium of horns and cheers and the coarse jests of costers, but the abandon which marked the announcement of the relief of Mafeking and Ladysmith was lacking. Women, many of them carrying babies, boys, drunken loafers and others, glad of any excus to defy law and order, were the principal elements in the ragged processions which wended their ways thru the city thru Pall Mall and up Piccadilly. The crowds concentrated in Regentstreet, and especially on the Strand sumption of the former occupants. "His Majesty's government will place at the disposal of these com-missions the sum of three million pounds sterling, $15,000,000,and will allow all the notes issued under the law of 1900 of the South African Re-public, and all receipts given up to officers in the field of the late re-publics, or under their orders to be and let themselves loose. Women of the lower class jabbed men in the face with feathers, indiscriminately flung an apology for confetti, and in turn were hugged and kissed by any men who found time for such a diversion. A few helpless policemen stood around and watched the fun. One of the BUT RAIN SPOILED THE FUN
