WALLACE AND AMES.

St. Thomas Paper Says That the Two Men Are Not Friendly.

St. Thomas, Ont., July 19.—A. McCrimmon, late solicitor for the Atlas Loan Company, in a letter to the press of this city, yesterday, defends his position in reply to statements made by Mr. Hunt, one of the shareholders of the company.

After explaining how the shareholders had seen fit to supersede him and appoint a Toronto solicitor, Mr. McCrimmon says: "I must say that I have been and am now taking a hand in their interests, and I would advise them to strengthen the hands of their late manager, no matter how misguided he may have been. Let Mr. Hunt and the rest stand at his back to a man while he is in Toronto fighting in his own interests, in their interests and the interests of justice and fair play, an unequal battle against tremendous power and influence."

It is as Mr. McCrimmon says, A. E. Wallace is in Toronto fighting an unequal battle against tremendous power and influence. It looks as though there was some foundation for the rumors that A. E. Ames is trying to get rid of Mr. Wallace. Mr. Wallace is again doing business with good prospects."

Hunter, Rose Co.'s Annual Outing.
About 300 of the employees and friends of the Hunter, Rose Co. went down to Rosebank by special train on Saturday to enjoy their annual outing. The morning a baseball match was played between the composing room and the pressmen, which resulted in a victory for the former.

In the afternoon, games, races, fishing and dancing were indulged in. Prizes were distributed to all the children and to the successful competitors.

The special feature of the day was the foot race between Jack Sharp and Henry Watkins, two of the oldest employees of the firm, which resulted in a victory for Mr. Watkins, after a closely contested race.

The heads of the firm, Atwell Fleming and George M. Rose, gave their able assistance towards making this one of the best outings the employees have held, which shows that the friendly relations exist between employers and employees.

Syndicate Dissolved.
New York, July 18.—The Kuhn-Loeb-Speyer syndicate, which underwrote the $8,000,000 Pennsylvania stock issue, has been dissolved. Members of the syndicate received cheques for their share of the profits today. The syndicate was not called upon to advance any money in the deal.

EUCRE GAME OF CHANCE

SAY VISIONAL COURT

Conviction of Hotel Keeper Upheld, With Mr. Justice MacMahon Dissenting.

The Divisional Court has upheld the conviction of Hotel-keeper Laird of Ingersoll who was fined $5 and costs for allowing a game of chance to be played on his premises. Laird was away from home at the time, but some guests were playing eucra for amusement in a small room.

The matter was heard by Chancellor Boyd and Justices Ferguson and MacMahon. In his judgment, Mr. Justice MacMahon dissents from the view of the majority and says that eucra is a game of skill as much as whist is, and, in addition, a regulation which forbids the playing of such a game is unreasonable and beyond the power of the Police Commissioners.

Peck Unauthorised Fees.
James Muir, Justice of the Peace at Port Elgin, had a judgment of $80 recovered against him for taking unauthorised fees from a complainant in a criminal case. Mr. Muir had laid a complaint against his husband before him, and on the charge being dismissed, was mulcted in $180 costs. She then brought suit to recover penalties, and the County Judge found in her favor. The Divisional Court, however, has now reduced the amount to $180, the penalty for excessive fees does not cover this case, where no fees at all were charged.

Instructions Continued.
Mr. Justice MacMahon delivered his judgment in the well-known case of J. A. Small and the London & North Western Railway Co. The trial at the full assizes. The trouble is over the P. & N. Railway Co. The railway and the defendants are restrained from interfering with it.

William Campbell for Royalty.
William Campbell, the author of Toronto, has begun suit against George N. Morison, publisher of the book, for the profits derived from the publication of certain educational works, which plaintiff was the author of and had an interest in. Mr. Campbell asks that he be declared the author of the works, and that he be awarded a royalty of 5 per cent, and also for an injunction restraining the defendant from publishing the works "Our Home and Our Country" and "Our Earth as a World."

Coramans Goes to Muskoka.

Acting on the advice of his counsel, Mr. Cooke refused to sign a statement in answer to a question put to him by the examiner, and he was committed to the County Jail for contempt of court.

Mr. Arker's Withdrawal.
Mrs. Anna Arker has withdrawn her suit against A. E. Ames & Co. and G. L. Galloway, and the matter was settled between the parties, and Ames & Co. were not served with the writ.

WHISTLER COURTED PRIVACY.

London, July 18.—The last instructions given by James McNeill Whistler prior to his death were quite characteristic of the man. When the Associated Press correspondent called at the house to-day he was informed that the artist had left stringent instructions that no information whatever regarding his illness or death should be given either to his friends or the newspapers. The exact nature of Mr. Whistler's malady is not known. He grew rapidly worse a few days ago and died quite suddenly.

Cultivate a good acquaintance with the Nervine, which cures most of the troubles common to children. For sore throat rub Nervine over the throat. To break up a cold administer ten drops in hot water at bedtime. For indigestion, cramps, stomach ache, biliousness, there is no remedy so prompt as Nervine, which is as good as the doctor for ordinary ills. Children like Polio's Nervine because it makes a pleasant, invigorating drink in sweetened water. Older folks like it because it is an honest, reliable remedy for all pains, internal or external. Sold everywhere in large 25c bottles. Try Nervine yourself.

"HAPPY LIFE," SAID ONE

DURING SERMON ON POPE

Rev. J. L. Gordon's Discourse Interrupted by Visitor From New York.

"That's a lie!" shouted a young man during Rev. J. L. Gordon's sermon on the Pope, at the Bond-street Congregational Church, yesterday morning. This was when Mr. Gordon gave the Roman Catholic version of the following text: "Thou art Peter, and upon this rock will I build My Church, and the gates of hell shall not prevail against it."

Mr. Gordon proceeded with his sermon. Afterwards the interrupter apologized to Mr. Gordon. He was a visitor from New York City.

Good and Bad Poles.
During the course of his sermon, he said that in the past 2000 years, since Peter, who is supposed to have been the first occupant of the papal chair, there had been 250 Poles—some good, some bad. Some of the finest saints the world has known sat in the papal chair, and some of the worst specimens of humanity had occupied the same position.

Pope Leo XIII. was one of the finest characters which the Roman Catholic Church had ever promoted to the position. He stated that during the last century the world had been favored with three grand old men—Prince Bismarck, W. E. Gladstone and Pope Leo XIII. There had been a popular superstition among the Roman Catholics that no Pope would reign longer than St. Peter, who reigned 25 years, cardinal for 50 years and Pope for 25 years. The Pope was head of a church which had a constituency of nearly 200 million people. His history covers nearly 2000 years. There were 12,000 bishops in the Roman Catholic Church and 60 cardinals.

Great Religious Organization.
Mr. Gordon spoke of the Roman Catholic Church as being the greatest religious organization on the face of the earth, and that even her enemies acknowledged the fact. Whatsoever he might think of the Roman Catholics of to-day, any candid student of history would close their eyes to the fact that the history of the last 800 years was decidedly against the Roman Catholic Church. The fact was that the history of the last 800 years was decidedly against the Roman Catholic Church. The fact was that the history of the last 800 years was decidedly against the Roman Catholic Church.
