Cynthia Grey's Mail-Box

All through life there are wayside inns.
Where man may refresh his soul with love.

A Bit of Sunset.
Dear Mail-Box Friends,—I just have to tell you how well I liked the letters of March Wind and Mrs. Eli Gee.

Your home, Mrs. Eli Gee, must surely be one of happiness and love. I'm sure it would be a sight to see this veritable palace with its "old-fashioned beams in the ceilings and massive fireplace of stone," but, above all, health and joy within. I would judge from your letter that such would be the case. The sunlight that comes in through the "open windows" is a privilege to be able and strong enough to see potatoes at the sun! I have been doing outside work until I am brown. But still this is my favorite time of the year.

As Lowell tells us in his "Vision of Sir Launfal" that "Every cloud feels a stir of life, as if it were a living thing, reaches and gropes." I only wish the section, commonly known as "June", might be printed on our particular Page.

I was sitting alone on the beach, watching the old sea take a parting glance before he went to rest, very lately. The sunset was wonderful. This huge ball of fire, as it appeared, swung slowly down to touch the wave and burn its rut of fire into the distant horizon.

Miss Isabel Armstrong is the guest of Mr. and Mrs. William Allen Young at their summer home, Magnetawan, Muskoka.

The Mothers' Club at St. Paul's Cathedral held a very delightful little picnic at Springbank this week. Miss Gladstone, Mrs. Harris Elliott and Mrs. C.
Foreman acting as hostesses for the occasion.

At the close of the evening service on Sunday at St. Paul's Cathedral, the choir, under the direction of Fred Kil-master, will give a musical service. The cloisters, chairs being arranged out on the green for those who remain for the music.

Miss Maybelle Douglass, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. H. F. Douglass of Central avenue, captured the highest standing in the 1920 graduating class of Wellesley Hospital, Toronto, by being awarded the Sir Edmund Osler scholarship for general proficiency.

Yesterday morning the kindergarten at the Talbot street school was the scene of a "Flower Party," held by the small children of that department, who will soon part for the summer months. An invitation to the function was by pretty pink cards, carried home by the children to their parents.

Another delightful garden bridge is planned for Monday afternoon, when the ladies of St. Paul's Church, who have made it their work to establish the Girls' Friendly Club in the city, will entertain in the Huron College grounds in aid of this fund. Miss Louise Carling, chairman of the committee, is working energetically to make the fair a success.

Miss McCamus and Miss Helen d'Avignon are at Port Bruce getting everything in readiness at the Y. W. camp there, to receive the first group of girls, which will arrive at camp on Saturday under the care of Mrs. E. H. Johnston, who is to be camp hostess for the first two weeks.
The trip to the camp will be made by boat from Port Stanley.

The home of Mr. and Mrs. J. F.
Fleckenstein, 1801 street, was the scene of a pretty garden party last night, given by the Ladies Aid of the Ridout street Methodist church. Chinese lanterns used abundantly under the trees in the garden beautifully, with ice cream, strawberries, cake and home-made cooking was sold from artistic booths. The Ladies Aid of the church, under the leadership of Mrs. N. J. Johnston, who is in charge of the fund, are working hard to raise money for the building of a new church.

Many happy social events were given recently in honor of the bride-elect, Miss Ethel Reynolds, whose marriage takes place this month.

Miss Norrie Johnston gave a delightful party at her home last Friday, when she entertained the members of the Count-On-Me class, of which Miss Reynolds was teacher.

On Thursday evening Mrs. W. A.
Tanner was in charge of the social and officers of the New St. James' Presbyterian Sunday School, when they gathered to bid farewell to Miss Reynolds, who has been a most valued worker in the church. On both of these occasions Miss Reynolds has presented with a handsome gift in appreciation of her services. The Y. P. A. of the church also presented her with a present, and the members of the servatory of Music, when Miss Reynolds was showered with best wishes.

Another happy event held in honor of this popular bride-elect was a luncheon at Wong's Cafe, given by the members of the faculty of the London Cen-
nolds was showered with best wishes.

CAMPBELL-BOWMAN.
Nuptials of wide interest were solemnized in Kitchener recently when Miss Lillian Bowman of Kitchener became the bride of Orison Campbell, also of that city. Mr. and Mrs. Campbell will reside in Kitchener.

ANDREWS-MILLERSON.
At the residence of the bride's parents, 59 Wilson avenue, on Wednesday, June 23, Miss Alice Evelyn Miller-son was united in marriage to Mr. Archibald Andrews, both of London.
Ont. Lieut.-Col. Rawling officiated at the ceremony.

HILLIS-STEPPLER.
Egerton Street Baptist parsonage was the scene of a very pretty wedding on Wednesday afternoon at 4:30 o'clock, when Miss Elizabeth Steppeler was united in marriage to Mr. Frederick E.
Hillis of Oil Springs. The Rev. A. C.
Bingham officiating. After the ceremony a reception was held at the home of the bride's uncle, William Trotter, 289 Waterloo street. The groom's gift to the bride was a silver service. The bride and groom left by motor for their future home at Oil Springs.

SCHLEE-HUEHNERGARD.
Miss Cora Marie Huehnergard and Wilfred Schlee were married in Kitchener last night. The ceremony was performed by Rev. J. A. McLean. The bride's gift to the groom was a silver service. The groom's gift to the bride was a silver service. The bride and groom left by motor for their future home at Kitchener.

SKELDING-MORGAN.
Miss Margaret Morgan and Mr.
Joseph Skelding were married on Wednesday afternoon at Grace Methodist Church, the Rev. G. T. Watts officiating.
The bride's gift to the groom was a silver service. The groom's gift to the bride was a silver service. The bride and groom left by motor for their future home at Kitchener.

SULLIVAN-NEELANDS.
A very quiet wedding was solemnized in the Front Street Methodist Church, Strathroy, last week, when Nursing Sister Elizabeth Neelands, daughter of the late Rev. John Neelands, was united in marriage to Lieut. T. F. Sullivan of Trenton, Ont. The ceremony was performed by Rev. J. C. Reid, was military in character, flags being used in the church decorations. Lieut. Sullivan went overseas as a private in the 1st Battalion, winning his commission on the field. He was decorated by the King, receiving the military medal for bravery. Nursing Sister Neelands spent a long active service in hospital work in France.

KLINKHAMMER-CLARK.
Another pretty June wedding took place on Monday morning at St. Patrick's Church, Dublin, when Miss Nora Adeline Clark, youngest daughter of Mr. Adam Clark, was married to John J. Klinkhammer of Detroit. The Rev. Father McCordie performed the marriage ceremony and read the mass.
The presence of many friends of the bride and groom was a feature of the contracting parties. The bride wore her traveling dress of old Roman striped silk, and carried a bouquet of white carnations and pink sweet peas. She wore a beautiful jeweled brooch worn by her grandmother at her wedding over 50 years ago. Miss Mary Beale of Sand-colored silk with hat to match and corsage bouquet of pink and white carnations assisted the bride, and Mr.
Martin Klinkhammer of Dublin was groomsmen. The bride is a granddaughter of the late Philip Conroy. Mr. and Mrs. Klinkhammer will take a boat trip to the upper lakes and on their return they will reside in Detroit.

COYLE-WOULD.
On Wednesday, June 16, at high noon an interesting event took place at the home of Mr. and Mrs. H. J. Gould, Winchester, Ont. when their daughter, Henrietta Belle, was united in marriage to Jack H. Coyle, the Rev. H. M. Mc-Donald officiating. The bride, who was married by her father, was prettily gowned in shell pink georgette over black tulle, and carried a bouquet of pink roses. The groom wore a tuxedo and pearls, and wore a bride veil of embroidered net with coronet of orange blossoms. The bride's bouquet was of bridal roses and Baby's Breath. Miss Marion Coyle, sister of the groom, was bridesmaid, wearing a chic frock of king's blue georgette over old rose silk, black lace hat and corsage of yellow tulle. The groom's attendant was Miss Thomas Smith, an overseas comrade. Little Dorothy Johnston, in a pretty French dress, acted as flower girl. The bride descended the stairs into the drawing-room, brightened with beautiful bouquets of pink and white roses. Miss Norrene Moore played Mendelsohn's wedding march, and during the signing of the register, Miss Grace Coyle sang very sweetly, "O Promise Me."

Following the ceremony a dinner was served, the immediate relatives of the contracting parties participating. At the reception after the dinner, Mrs.
Gould, mother of the bride, wore a charming gown of rose voile with over-drapery of Irish lace and corsage of pink roses. Mrs. Coyle, mother of the groom, wore a becoming gown of black tulle with bead trimming, which trimming has been in the family for generations.

Mr. and Mrs. Coyle left on a boat trip to Buffalo, the bride traveling in a smartly tailored suit of navy tricot-ine with black picture hat. On their return they will reside in Detroit.

representation from all the auxiliaries in attendance. The reports brought in by the delegates were very encouraging and showed increases in membership.
The afternoon session opened at 2 o'clock and the president gave a review of the work of the society. In home mission and foreign fields. "In the school of homes for children of foreign parentage in the west, good results are being obtained and also in the work among the foreigners in the west," she said. "The work in the foreign field is all the greater because the missionaries are not willing to receive the missionaries and the women should be all the more awake to the responsibility of the work." "The help to this plan of the work."

GRACE COUNTY CLUB.
The regular meeting of the Grace County Club was held June 19 at the McKay. A considerable amount of work was accomplished, as there was a large attendance, including three new members. It was decided that the club have a picnic at Springbank, Ont., July 1. The collection amounted to $22, including a liberal donation of $20 from Walkers Red Cross Society.

WHAT'S IN A NAME
ADA.
Ada is the fortunate possessor of two sources of derivation, likewise she may choose her own significance, since there is considerable conflict in translating the name. Some etymologists take Ada to be an adaptation of the early Biblical name Adah, meaning ornament, which occurs frequently in Hebrew nomenclature. Others believe that it is derived from the Teutonic Oda, which signified rich, or the old Saxon Ide, meaning happy. In all events, Ada may be said to find happiness in riches which are exploited by ornaments.

The first feminine form corresponding to Ada was Audir, the name being bestowed upon a beautiful viking, one of the first Icelandic settlers. Audir or Ada named the wife of Orlando, the Paladin.
A queen of Italy in 926 was so called, and the name was still in use in 1393 by the feminine members of the House of Este.

The low German form, Ead, came to be translated as Ide and appears as such in the Cambrian register. As Ide, it was bestowed upon the Countess of Boulogne, granddaughter of King Stephen. Ada seems to have been really common, until its adoption in this country.

The ruby is Ada's talismanic gem.
It is said to fulfil for her its promise of courage and invulnerability, and to shield her from adverse fortune. Wednesday is her lucky day and three her lucky number.

Pattern 2169 is illustrated here. It is cut in 6 sizes: 34, 36, 38, 40, 42, and 44 inches, bust measure. Width of skirt at lower edge is 1 1/2 yards. A medium size will require 6 3/4 yards of 40-inch material.

Silk poplin with pipings in a contrasting or matched shade of color, and lace or embroidery would be attractive for this. It is likewise appropriate for serge, shantung, linen, failard, crepe, taffeta and satin.

A pattern of this illustration mailed to any address on receipt of 15 cents in silver or stamps.
