

walked across feat, and ex-had served in 812. He then royal party e pretty little was the last very Englishress in Can-

United States aron Renfrew. Harrisburg. here he was for home Oct.

ng success of States." He sult-the lon for Eng-owing in the s of the na-s, and which kable love for y, which pre-country, and a spell upon century." r the Prince

Consort and for his first n addition to Prince Cor es on modern Modern Hisvisit to Ira-Germany, Ir d the library rince Consort isit traveling nd the Prince day records toured Egypt isited Munich otable occur stine was a nital city of as taken. Owof Mussulagainst per tioned in eve lurking.

MARRIAGE

ondon Times His Destined

arances out exactly sevunless, in-

Established 1864.

JOHN CATTO & SON

FLANNELETTE BLANKETS FOR SUMMER CAMPS

three-quarter and double-bed sizes. Special at $1.00, $1.25, $1.50 pair.

FANCY PRINTED SUMMER BEDSPREADS

Very light weight, effective appearance, great range of colors; for all sizes of beds-$1.50, $3.00, $3.50, $4.00 and $5.00.

PURE IRISH LINEN DAMASK TABLECLOTHS

Great assortment of patterns laid out to clear, 2 x 21/2 yards only. Regularly $3.50. Clearing, $2.50

Patterns-Polka Dots, Shamrocks. Tulips, Stars, Poppies, Daisies, Florals, Scrolls, Stripes, etc., etc.

TOWEL CHANCE

About 100 dozen Hemmed and H. S. Towels, Pure Linen Pearl Huckaback, hard wearing and fine laundering properties, 22 x 40; regular $4.00 and $4.50 values. Weekend Special, $2.90 dozen.

LADIES' SUITS

Special line-regularly $22.00 to $32.00. Clear-out Price $15.00 to in all the season's latest novelty materials, thoroughly waterproof. very light, odorless, $11.00, $13.00. $16.00, $18.00, $22.00 each .

RAINCOATS

SILK BLOUSES

Ladies' Black Taffeta Silk Blouses; all sizes; well made. Snap, $3.00

MAIL ORDERS A SPECIALTY.

JOHN CATTO & SON

55 to 61 King Street East. TORONTO.

Continued From Page 1.

red. In any case, the council would not be officially represented there.

Hon. Mr. Gibson's Tribute.

His honor the lieutenant-governor, when seen, said that he could only express the feeling which universally prevailed, that of the deepest sorrow that the king's reign should have so suddenly been cut short. His majesty had denly been cut short. His majesty had always been personally liked and was very popular; but the empire at large was ever able to rely with confidence good sense, and his great wislam, tact and sagacity. Probably no king will ever again, under our system of limited monarchy, personally exercise an equal amount of influence in international relationships ternational relationships.

"There are many Canadians now well up in years, who will vividly remember his visit to Canada in the year 1860, when they joined in the enthusiastic cheers which greeted him everywhere as the young Price og Wales appeared at different centres in the province. His reign has been short, but by no means uneventful, and it can be truthfully said that his record has been free from criticism. His people will always cherish the memory of good King Edward VII. as one of the best of British kings." Premier Whitney. Sir James Whitney, premier of On-tario, said last night:

"The sudden and unexpected death of His Majesty King Edward VII. comes as a tremendous shock to the people of the whole world. It goes without saying that wherever the British flag floats there will be mourning, as there will be also in

"Under any circumstances, it would be difficult to express the feeling of love, respect and admiration entertained by British peoples for their late sovereign, who, in his comparatively short reign, has so borne himself, and has so done his part, that the whole human race has participated in the shown by him. Probably no wiser monarch ever reigned over a nation. Probably no monarch ever reigned who was so thoroly imbued with the spirit of constitutional rule, and who was so careful to keep ever before his mind the responsibility of the sovereign under the well understood principles on Sorrow Will Be Lasting. Sorrow Will Be Lasting.

"The sorrow and regret of his people will be intense and lasting. One feels acutely how utterly impossible it is to fitly express our sense of this great national bereavement. However, the great work which has been ap-It is to fitly express our sense of this great national bereavement. However, the great work which has been apparently set apart by Providence to be accomplished by the British nation than yesterday in Ontario and Quebec, and cool in the maritime provinces. A disturbance now over the southwestern states will probably move northeastward to the great lakes.

THE WEATHER

Lower Lakes and Georgian Bay—Moderate winds and fine to-day; showers late at night and on Sunday. Superior—Light variable winds; fine and moderately warm.

Western Provinces—Fine and warm.

TO-DAY IN TORONTO.

May 7
Flower Show, St. George's Hall,
Anglican Women's Auxiliary
Girls' Branches, Guid Hall, 3.
Canadian Institute annual meet-

DSS—To Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Ross (nee Lottle Townsend), a son, at their home in Newark, N.J., May 2, 1910.

MARRIAGES. SYRETT-MEYERS-On Wednesday, May 4th, at residence of bride's father, May Walden Meyers, only daughter of Mr. and Mrs. G. W. Meyers, to Charles V.

Syre	tt of Tor	onto.
	STEAM	SHIP	ARRIV	ALS.
May	61	At		From
La Sa		New 1		На
Rynda Alice.	ım	.Rotter		New Y

CARR—On Tuesday, May 3, 1910, at 237 West Queen-street, Felix Carr, in his 76th year. Funeral from J. A. Humphrey & Son's undertaking parlors, 475 Church-street, at z o'clock Satur-day day.

DENBEIGH — At his residence, 214 St.
John's-road, West Toronto, on Friday, May 6, 1910, George Denbeigh, in his 66th year.
Funeral (private), Monday, May & to Prospect Cemetery.

KENNEDY — Suddenly, on Friday, May 6, 1910, at 147 West Bloor-street, Sarah, wife of George Kennedy.
Funeral on Monday, May 9, at 3 o'clock to Necropolis.

McKEE—On May 5, 1910 suddenly, at 139 Gladstone-avenue, W. A. McKee, aged 51 years.
Funeral private, from R. Moffatt's undertaking parlors. 571 Collegestreet.

NURSEY—On April 9, 1910 at Spaxton street.

NURSEY—On April 9, 1910 at Spaxton Rectory, near Bridgwater, Somersetshire, England, the Rev. Peregrine Fairfax Nursey, rector of the parish, fifth son of the late Rev. Peregrine Nursey formerly rector of Crostwick. Norfolk, grandson of the late Peregrine F. Nursey. Esq., of the Grove, Little Bealings, Suffolk, and brother of Walter R. Nursey of Toronto aged 70 years.

STONE — On Thursday May 5, 1910.

STONE — On Thursday, May 5, 1910.
Thomas Knight Tapley (Tap) Stone, at his late residence 19 Galt-avenue.
Funeral Saturday, 2 p.m., to St.
James' Cemetery from above address.

market, Monday. May 9, at 2.30 p.m. Orangeville papers please copy.

JONES—In loving memory of Samuel Jones, who died at Smith's Falls on May 7, 1909. I do not forget, nor do I intend; I think of you daily, and will to the end.

my mind
My dearest Brother, who was loving and kind.
I cannot tell the pain he bore, I did not see him die.
I only know he passed away, And never heard good-byc.
—Sister Maggie.

R. MOFFATT

UNDERTAKER Removed to 571 College Street, Toronto

Phone College 762 4.36 Edward, the Peacemaker, will rally order that that work may go on as Archbishop McEvay. His Grace the Roman Catholic Archbishop of Toronto, being requested to express his sentiments on the death of the King, replied as follows: "The loyal Catholic subjects in this Dominion have every reason to moura the death of His Majesty King Ed-ion, and therefore there will be universal sorrow over the unexpected death of our beloved King."

The St. Michael's Cathedral and everal other Catholic churches of the city tolled their bells on the announcethe Catholic institutions will be at half-mast until after the funeral.

Special Anglican Services. quests that the clergy, by use of special Psalms 39 and 90, and lesson and collect from the burial office, give the services on Sunday a memorial char-acter; and it is likely that a service will be held in St. James' Cathedral at the hour set for the royal funeral in Lon-of Toronto will preach.

WELL, IT IS ALL OVER, BUT I THINK I HAVE DONE MY DUTY," LAST WORDS

Continued from Page One. great gloomy building, with the exception of Lord Knollys' office, is entirely darkened.

steat gloomy building, with the exception of Lord Knollys' office, is entirely darkened.

It was nearly half an hour after the King breathed his last when Lord Knollys walked into the office and said to the waiting reporters: "Gentlemen, His Majesty is dead."

The people outside the palace only learned the news when boys appeared with papers. In the meantime the Prince and Princess of Wales that were had taken leave of the other members of the royal family at the main entrance soon after midnight. They drove directly to Mariborough House. Princess Victoria, who is her mother's constant companion, remained with the Queen. The others of the family followed the Prince and Princess of Wales.

Proclamation of New King.

A summons to the privy councillors has been issued by Sir Almaric FitzRoy, clerk of the council, convening the council in the throne foom of St. James' Palace at 2 o'clock this afternoon, when the councillors will, "with one voice and the consent of tongtie and heart, publish and proclaim that the high and mighty Prince George is now, by the death of our late Sovereign of happy memory, become our only lawful and rightful liege lord, George V., by the Grace of God, King of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, defender of the faith and Emperor of India, to whom we do acknowledge all faith and constant obedience, with all hearty and humble affection, beseching God, by whom kings and queens do reign, to bless the royal Prince George V. with long and happy years to reign over us."

Six Months' Mourning.

The new King, after this proclamation, will address the council and promise to reign as constitutional sovereign. At the end of the meeting King George will issue his first proclamation, requiring all officials to proceed with their duties. Formerly all offices, including the councillors, were vacated on the death of the Sovereign.

The aldermen of the City of London will attend the council and swear allegiance. A proclamation has already been issued by the

The aldermen of the City of London will attend the council and swear allegiance. A proclamation has already been issued by the home office, requiring theatres to close to-day.

The court will go into mourning for six months, and the lord mayor has ordered that the great bell of St. Paul's shall be tolled thru-

Premier Is Away.

So sudden was the King's death that most of the high government officials were absent. Premier Asquith, who is in Spain, cannot reach London before Monday. It is the duty of the members of both houses of parliament to meet without summons as soon as they can assemble, to take the oath of allegiance and receive the message of the King. Speaker Lowther of the house of commons, however, is in Constanti-

According to one report, important political developments will follow the arrival of the premier. The veto struggle will be deferred until the next session of parliament; the house of commons, with the consent of the Unionists, passing a non-contentious budget for the current year. Parliament, according to this plan, would be prorogued about the middle of July.

Queen's Thanks to London.

Queen Alexandra, replying during the day to a message of sympathy from the Lord Mayor of London, telegraphed: "I am most grateful for your telegram. Please convey to the citizens of London my heartfelt thanks.—Alexandra." The Duke and Duchess of Connaught arrived at Suez Friday upon their return from an African hunting trip. The duke is the King's When the royal ensign on Buckingham Palace was lowered as usual at sunset the waiting multitude thought that it was a signal that the King was dead. All removed their hats, and the scene was an affect-

The Duchess of Albany left the palace just before 8 o'clock. She was in tears. Friday was bright and sunny, and before noon a great crowd was loitering in front of the palace in the vicinity of the new Memorial Victoria Building, and many carriages gathered in St. James' Park.

Only officials were admitted to the palace precincts. "Very bad," said the Archbishop of Canterbury, with a solemn shake of his head, as he emerged from the palace gate and was questioned regarding His Majesty's condition. The archbishop then telegraphed to all the bishops of England and Wales as follows: "Prayers by the church and people of England are desired on behalf of His Majesty King Edward in his grave illness."

presiding. As soon as the news of King Edward's death was known the clubs, at which Archdes entertainment was stopped. It will be given at a later date.

St. George's Society.

The following resolution was passe May 7, 1909.
I do not forget, nor do I intend;
I think of you daily, and will to the end.
(ine year has passed, but still fresh in
my mind
My dearest Brother, who was loving and kind.
I cannot tell the pain he bore.

The following resolution was passed last evening:
"The members of the St. George's Society of Toronto, in monthly meeting assembled, having heard with profound regret of the death of our beloved Sovereign, His Majesty King Edward the Seventh, express their deep sorrow at the calamity that has befallen the empire and extend their sincere sympathy to Her Majesty Queen Alexandra and the royal family in this their hour of trial, and they pray Almighty God, the great assuager of all griefs, may sustain and comfort

"Moved by President R. S. Hudson and Past President W. T. Boyd and ordered to be transmitted to the secretary of state at Ottawa, to be by him forwarded to Britain."

Shock to the Actor. Forbes Robertson, playing at the Royal Alexandra in "The Passing of the Third Floor Back," was greatly upset by the news of the King's death. Had it not come so late, last night's performance would also have to be

The late King witnessed Mr. Robertson play numberless times. Mr. Rob-ertson gave a number of command performances before his majesty, and the King often visited the theatre when he was playing.

During the recent plenary council in Quebec His Majesty sent a beautiful reply to the message of the assembled bishops, who represented all parts of Canada.

"He was a peaceful ruler of a great empire, and trusted and loved by all his subjects, but nowhere was His Majesty more at home than in the hearts of the free and loyal citizens."

"During the recent plenary council when he was playing.

Before the performance commenced at the Grand last evening, and while the audience was assembling, the report wall when his father took the throne, and soon thereafter started on a tour of the colonies. He opened the first parliament of the Commonwealth of Australia. In celebration of his safe return from the tour, he was enter-tained by the lained by the lain hearts of the free and loyal citizens of this young and prosperous Dominion, and therefore there will be uni-

In the Anglican Churches of the city and diocese the Bishop of Toronto re-

Use Gibbons' Toothache Gum Price 10c. "The Finest Summer Reesort on the north of Toronto and about 25 miles north of Parry Sound, on the Georgian Bay, with possibly a thousand islands of the vocal chords due to pressure within a radius of five miles, sandy the blood vessels of the epiglottis." bathing beaches, innumerable shady fishing spots—where there are lots of rence the subject of his morning remarks. Dr. Carman stated that he himself would preach in Carlton-state parently set apart by Providence to be accomplished by the British nation has not yet been completed, and the people who to-day mourn loss of King George (born June 3, 1865) is hotels, rates, full information and the best map obtainable of that portion of the Georgian Bay are contained in a handsomely illustrated folder entitled "Beautiful Point au Baril," which has just been published by the Canadian Pacific Railway. Copies may be the Wing George (born June 3, 1865) is from the best map obtainable of that portion of the Georgian Bay are contained in a handsomely illustrated folder entitled "Beautiful Point au Baril," which has just been published by the Canadian Pacific Railway. Copies may be the Wing George (born June 3, 1865) is from the

Heir Apparent Whe is 45 Years of Age is Described as "Most Delightful of Companions."

George Frederick Ernest Albert Prince of Wales, who now becomes king, is the second son of King Edward and Queen Alexandra, and was born at Marlborough House on June 3, 1865, seventeen months after the birth of his brother, the late Duke of Clarence. He and his brother entered the navy togther as cadets, and he spent two years on the Britannia. Then he started on a three years' voyage around the world, sailing on the Bacchante. In 1892, when his brotner died, he became heir apparent, and took his seat in the house of lords as Duke of York. In May, 1893, his engagement was announced to Princess Victoria May of Teck, and they were married on July 6, 1893. 6, 1893.

Six children were born to them:
Edward Albert, Albert Frederick, Victoria Alexandra, Henry William, Geo.
Edward and John Charles.

the pit to commence with the opening overture. Instead, Mr. Jennings, the leader, instructed the orchestra to play the national anthem and the entire audience came to its feet and stood for several minutes after the last strain amidst the most intense silence.

At the close of the vaudeville performance at Shea's Theatre, Gus Naumann, leader of the orchestra, substituted "Lead Kindly Light" for the nature of the commence of the orchestra in the fall of 1905 he went to India, and when he returned there was another celebration. On this occasion he said: "The task of governing India will be made the easier if we on our mann, leader of the orchestra, substituted "Lead Kindly Light" for the nawill be made the easier if we on our part infuse into it a wider element of the leading trip was gentional anthem.

Beaches Lodge, A.F. & A. M. No. 473, was to have held its annual at home at the Temple Building last night.

About 200 guests were assembled when About 200 guests were assembled when a political viewpoint. In 1908 he visited Quebec.

KING WAS CARELESS

VIENNA, May 7.-Dr. Ott, King Ed-ward's physician at Marienbad, in an interview yesterday said: "The King's 246 age and full habit involved more danger in bronchial catarrh than in cr-dinary cases. Generally speaking the In the Cathedral of St. Alban a service of this character will be held on Sunday morning at which the Bishop

Georgian Bay"

Georgian Bay"

Is the title justly applied to Point au Baril—an ideal vacation spot, 180 miles ty would not take care of himself and the service and about 25 miles to the service and abou especially objected to remaining in bed. The King suffered from spasms of the vocal chords due to pressure of

THEY ARE COUSINS.

King George (born June 3, 1865) is first cousin of Kaiser William (born

HIS CAREER AND TASTES CAUSE POSTPONEMENT OF POLITICAL CRISIS of the instrument.

Unlikely That New Sovereign Will Be Asked to Deal With Pre-

blem Just Now. LONDON, May 7.—Public opinion will doubtless demand that the Lib-eral's program for reforming the house of lords with a possible appeal to the crown to make the most important decision a sovereign has been called upo to take in many years, shall be laid aside for a long time. They would be opposed to thrusting upon King Edward's successor at the very begin-ning of his reign a question so vital to the future of the empire.

Politically King Edward's reign has been chiefly notable for the inaugura-tion of a new era of social legislation for the benefit of the people, which followed the coming of the Liberals into power again, after a long Conservative regime. The general elections in 1906, fought on the free trade quesgovernment for generations into power. and Asquith ministeries, many measures dealing with education, old age pensions, the relations of workers to employers, and cognate matters were put into successful operation, also great Irish home rule question, which so agitated the political parties MONTREAL CONSTABLE MUR-

MONTREAL, May 6.—(Special.) was shot dead this evening and Con Donald O'Connell severely they were leading to the police station on suspicion of theft.

BABY CRIED CONTINUALLY.

Mrs. Eugene Gagnon, L'Islet Station, Que., says:-"I believe medicine in the world for little ones. I have given them to my baby for colic, constipation and sometimes for breaking up a fever, and I have never known them to fall in giving prompt relief. Before I began the use of the Tablets my baby was very thin and cried continually. Since then she has grown splen-didly and is plump and healthy. I also gave the Tablets to my four years old child who suffered frequently from convulsions, and they made a permanent cure. When I have Baby's Own Tablets in the house I feel safe. and I advise other mothers also to keep them on hand." Sold by medicine dealers or by mail at 25 cents a box from The Dr. Williams Medicine Co., Brock-ville, Ont.

DO YOU USE

A Birth-Right

A matchless purity of tone is the outstanding characteristic of the Mason & Risch Piano. It has other merits, but its supreme tonal beauty comes first. The

Mason & Risch

"The Piano With a Soul"

endows it with a clarity and wealth of tone that remains a life-long attribute-a veritable birth-right, in fact-

The Mason & Risch Piano Co., Limited

32 King Street West. Toronto.

let, "Inside Information," gladly mailed on request.

A cordial welcome awaits you at our warerooms. Free Book-

Aliquot System, exclusive to the Extra Granulated and Other Grades of Refined Sugar?

They represent perfection in Sugar Refining.

MANUFACTURED BY

THE CANADA SUGAR REFINING CO., Limited MONTREAL, QUE.

The of Canada

Quarterly Dividend Notice

Notice is hereby given that a Dividend at the rate of Six Per Cent. per annum upon the paid-up capital stock of the Home Bank of Canada has been declared for the Three Months ending 31st of May, 1910, and the same will be payable at its Head Office and Branches on and after Wednesday, the first day of June next. The Transfer Books will be closed from 17th to the

By order of the Board. JAMES MASON. General Manager.

Toronto, April 21st, 1910.

31st of May, 1910, both days inclusive.

WILL BUILD A TOWN HALL LINDSAY, May 6 .- (Special.)-Everything was propitious for the laying of the corner stone of the new Methodist parsonage at Omeniee today. The parsonage is the gift of Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Eaton of To- court in mourning, and the embassy ronto, and the corner stone was declared "well and truly laid" by their son, Master Timothy Craig Eaton. Col.
Sam. Hughes, M.P., was master of ceremonies. Mrs. Eaton was given a hearty welcome by her former associates. Other speakers were Rev.
Robert Burns, Rev. J. P. Wilson of Lindsay Rev. D. H. Currie and Rev.

Eaton will also erect a new town hall in the Village of Omemee,

ROOSEVELT HARD HIT. The death of his majesty will mean the abandonment of the principal functions of ex-President Roosevelt's tour. The official receptions, with the entertainments will be the presentation of the freedom of the city and the luncheon at the Guildhal:

will probably be given up. HANGED BY THE NEOK

Robert Burns, Rev. J. P. Wilson of Lindsay, Rev. D. H. Currie, and Rev. Mr. Earle. Mr. Eaton made a very fitting reply when presented with the silver trowel.

It is understood that Mr. and Mrs.

No death is more certain than the end that comes to every offender treated by Putnam's Corn Extractor. Outled the corn or warts, root and branch. Insist on "Putnam's" only, it's the best, free from acids and painless.