CLEVER BURGLAR IS CAUGHT BY POLICE

Three Years for Jewelry Thief, Who Also Broke in Barber's Shop.

It is seldom a really clever burglar is captured in Toronto, but when one is caught he looms up large and bright like a good diamond from a bit of ordinary glass. In the police dock yesterday stood a Russian Pole named John Hoffman, who by his past actions evidently thought that a real burglar should be like the stage counterpart, clean-cut and well-groomed. Hoffman was badly in want of some jewelry and selected the City Hall Jewelry Co. as the firm who could supply all his wants. He hated to shop by daylight—at night the stones sparkle much brighter. Having thought out his expedition and counted his money, the burglar hired a sleeping room at the Municipal Hotel, and fearful that his personal belongings might be burnt if a fire occurred insisted that his window be near the fire escape. Mr. Hoffman retired to bed early and evidently slept until late at night.

to such an hour when he was ready to proceed on his expedition. Fearful of disturbing the other guests in the hotel, Mr. Hoffman with great consideration left the building, not by the usual way but via the fire escape, which landed him at the back entrance to a barber's shop.

Used Barber's Uniform. The man entered and lighted up the place to full blast. He next dressed himself up in barber's uniform and proceeded to shave, hair cut and generally to perfume himself. His toilet completed, he thought he would take his morning exercises, so he just cut a hole thru the wall between the barber's shop and the jewelry store. He next crawled thru the hole and as the jewelry clerks were absent he just did his shopping all on his lonesome and helped himself to about a thousand dollars' worth of gems. He then returned to his hotel a richer and happy man.

Next morning Mr. Hoffman found himself short of cash for transportation purposes, so he determined to sell some of his jewelry; whilst doing so he met a friend in the person of Detective-Sergt. C. Young, who, with every consideration for a distinguished foreigner visiting the city, offered him a house room at the city hall, and promised to introduce him to Colonel Demison. The detective kept his word, and the host of the police court expressed such satisfaction in meeting Mr. Hoffman that he loaned him the use of a room in a penitentiary for three years from date.

WOULD TRANSFER POWER OF COMMERCE BOARD

Mayor Church has written to Sir George Foster, minister of trade and commerce, suggesting that the powers of the late board of commerce should be conferred on county court and high court judges and grand juries, so that an effort could be made to reduce the cost of living and stamp out profiteering.

BUILDING PERMITS ISSUED. The city architect's department issued permits yesterday for the following buildings: Dunlop Tire and Rubber Goods Co. pipe tunnel in plant, 244 Booth avenue, $13,000; Stuart J. Wilson, addition to dwelling, 82 Chestnut Park avenue, $4,000; Davenport Methodist Church and dwelling, 1902 Davenport road, $6,000; F. L. Ray, dwelling north side of Park drive, near Glen road, $7,800.

QUEBEC STARTS OUT FOR FRIENDLY FIGHT

Provincial Minister Offers Ontario a Challenge in Trade and Finance.

"We are about to offer you in the fields of commerce and finance and industry a loyal and unceasing fight. Before the encounter Quebec cordially holds out her hand to you. Grab it! And in the struggle to come let us dominate and exclude as illegal war are the implements of fanaticism and prejudice. We have had enough interecnic quarrels, these religious differences. How much harm it has done both of us."

Thus spoke Louis A. David, K.C., provincial secretary and minister of education for the province of Quebec, in the course of an interesting address to the Empire Club at the King Edward yesterday.

to rival for financial superiority, while our sane and solid mentality, as well as our unshaken conviction, allowed us to make Montreal the third French city of the world."

Resources of Province. Mr. David, alluding to the resources of the province, said that they did not fear the "big stick" which an American senator said he held behind his back when he talked of conciliation. The province furnished 85 per cent. of the world's asbestos, Quebec was a farming centre, and would always remain an agricultural province. But industry was also essential.

"Quebec," Mr. David said, "spent nearly a quarter of its revenue on education. The prosperity and peace of Quebec was all owed to the 'modest, humble primary school, that institution of ours so much decried. It respect for convictions and principles, the respect for religion, for the rights and obligations of each, the respect, finally, of authority."

OBJECT TO GAS INCREASE. The Provincial Natural Gas Co. of Welland has recently raised its rates from 50c to 80c per thousand feet. A deputation protested against this to the Ontario government yesterday and consideration of the matter was promised.

PAYS COMPLIMENTS TO STOOL PIGEONS

Counsel in Police Court Sums Up Virtues of Liquor Case Witnesses.

Police "stool pigeons" are coming into their own and hearing exactly the estimation in which they are held by those they trap for their masters, the police, and by fair-minded citizens. Yesterday in a liquor case before Magistrate Cohen, Austin Ross, who defended, summed up the "virtues" of the stool pigeon thuswise: "These low-down—what shall I call them?" said the angry counsel—"these scum of the earth, these demagogues of sewers, come here and ask you to believe them. They have got no character; their whole life is a living lie; their evidence is a tissue of falsehood from beginning to end. It is almost a joke to convict anybody on them."

blushed badly at these "compliments" to their efforts. One of them confessed to having spent $21 of marked money on the case before the court and got only half a bottle of whiskey and one of beer, but one of their assistants confessed to having had a lot of free drinks and a "good time" in the house before the police came.

ARCHBISHOP SILENT ON MACSWINEY MASS

Archbishop McNeill yesterday declined to make any statement in connection with the proposed celebration of mass in one of the Toronto Roman Catholic churches for the repose of the soul of the lord mayor of Cork, Terence J. MacSwiney. "The mass to be celebrated at the Holy Name," said the Archbishop "will be the only one in Toronto. I believe. There is no necessity for any statement to be made on the matter."

APPEAL DISMISSED. Judge Morson yesterday dismissed an appeal against a police court conviction of Magistrate Cohen, who imposed a fine of $50 and costs upon M. H. Thomas, for practicing medicine without a license, in August.
