

SPEAK WELL OF CANADA'S REGIMENT

Criticism of Queen's Own in England Are All Cordial

MANY INVITATIONS

Challenges to Baseball and Cricket Matches—Londoners Want Them to March Through City and Promise a Great Welcome to the Metropolis

LONDON SOCIETY GIRL FOUND IN DEATH ON SCOTTISH MOOR

Lady Margery Erskine, With Broken Ankles, Had Dragged Herself a Mile Only to Die of Exhaustion

CONSCRIPTION IN STATES SUGGESTED

New York, Aug. 31.—In an interview Paul Morton, who has just returned after a vacation in England, France and Germany, advances the radical proposition that enforced conscription in the military service for at least one year might be the most desirable thing for the United States.

WINNIPEG MAY GET A NEW INDUSTRY

Winnipeg, Aug. 31.—(Special)—G. F. L. Given, of Chicago, is in the city with a proposition to start here a factory for making flax fibre from western grown straw provided a certain amount of local capital and interest can be secured.

OLYMPIA MARINE EXHIBIT WILL OPEN TOMORROW

London, Aug. 31.—An interesting naval, mercantile marine, and general engineering and machinery exhibition will be opened on Sept. 1 at Olympia. Those visiting the exhibition will see a number of the latest inventions made in connection with the various branches of engineering. The Marquis of Graham has promised to open the exhibition which will remain open until Sept. 25.

MAY SEND WINDSOR BAND TO ENGLAND

Windsor, Aug. 31.—(Special)—A movement is on foot to send the 24th Regimental Band, to the coronation of King George V. The band is one of the crack military musical organizations of Canada and made a hit in St. Louis and Quebec.

THE WEATHER

Moderate to fresh south to west winds, showery tonight, and very fresh, with local thunderstorms.

DR. CREED DIED TODAY

Secretary of Baptist Convention Passed Away in Fredericton

HEMORRHAGE OF BRAIN

One of the Most Prominent Laymen in the Baptist Church in Provinces—Father Carney to Attend Eucharistic Congress—News of Capital

FORMER MINISTER KILLS WOMAN AND ENDS HIS OWN LIFE

Had Been Forgiven for Gambling Away Church Funds Once But Later Was Unforgotten

RUSSIAN VIEW OF ANNEXATION OF KOREA

Britain and States Hard Hit, Says Editor, But "No One Would Go to War for Korea"

IRELAND HOME RULE

London, Aug. 31.—John Redmond, the Irish parliamentarian, was broken on suddenly two years ago. Her grief was so keen that she removed herself completely from society. She brooded for a time and then went into absolute seclusion by accepting a position as probationary nurse in the Children's Hospital at Bloomsbury, at a salary of $5 a week. She became known as Nurse Margery and was treated no differently from the other nurses of the hospital. She kept her identity secret until friends calling on a mission of charity discovered her there.

SLID DOWN ROPE TO ESCAPE FROM BURNING HOTEL

Rochester, N. Y., Aug. 31.—Two fires which broke out in different parts of Charlotte early this morning threatened to wipe up the lakeside village. The first started in the Genesee Hotel and the thirty occupants escaped only by sliding down ropes, some of them burning their hands. While the hotel was burning, flames broke out in the Monroe Baking Company's ice house and Shiel's barns, a high wind spreading sparks and burning embers all over the village, several cottages catching fire. Damage of $25,000 was done.

AMERICAN GIRLS KILLED BY AUTO IN MUNICH

Munich, Bavaria, Aug. 31.—Miss Rose Buckingham of San Francisco was killed and Miss Agnes Ross of the same city was severely injured by a runaway automobile as they were leaving the Prinz Regent Theatre last night. The driver lost control of the car, and it plunged into the crowd on the sidewalk.

REPUBLICANS GAIN IN SPANISH ELECTIONS

Lisbon, Aug. 31.—Complete returns from the recent parliamentary elections, with the exception of such as were invalidated by riot or otherwise, show the following results:—Ministerialists, 90; Monarchists in opposition, 40; Republicans 14. This is a Republican gain, the party having elected but five candidates at the elections two years ago. The republicans charge extensive frauds and made frequent contests of the returns.

SECURE SPACE NOW!

The newspapers will have a greatly increased number of readers from this date until the close of the exhibition. Merchants who advertise will thus reach many more possible customers. The Telegraph and Times-Star are the papers most people read. They now have by far the largest circulation in the local field. The merchant who uses them as a medium will increase his sales during the exhibition period. Think it over!

THE TIMES' NEW REPORTER

HIGHWAYMAN BENTLEY. A wild-eyed and dishevelled supporter of Premier Hazen cautiously opened the door of the reporters' room in the Standard office last night and thrust in his head. Seeing another head appear suddenly from behind the desk, and catching a glimpse of steel, he drew hastily back and covered behind the wall. His labored breathing aroused the curiosity of the staff and a reporter, scissors in hand, went out. The dishevelled one entered and dropped into a chair, panting heavily, and furtively peering about him for possible enemies. "I am very glad you came to us," said the editor of the Standard. "This is a serious matter, and will be brought at once to Mr. Hazen's attention. I have no doubt that the road commission which did so deadly work in Fairville on election day will be sent at once to clear the road at Fairfield. The premier is a man of action. He will cut Bentley and his pulpwood into the Hay Fund, at once. Mr. Hazen is a terror when aroused. "I may add further," said the editor of the Standard, "that because the road commission in this province are in a horrible state, and the man Bentley has piled some pulpwood beside one of them, and therefore the Hazen Highway act is the best ever, Q. E. D. "The Hazen man breathed more freely, and consented to accompany a member of the staff to the nearest drugstore.

LATHAM GROSSES AND RE-GROSSES SEINE MOUTH

Young New York Husband Drinks Acid in Girl's Room

MONEY GONE, HE TRIES TO END IT ALL

Wife Learns of Act and Calls on Girl—Latter, Whom He Asked to Marry Him, Thought Him Single—Went Through $750,000

MILLTOWN GIRL IS SERIOUSLY INJURED

Dynamite Cartridge Explodes—Baby Had Been Playing With It

WATER ASSESSMENT SHOWS INCREASE OF $3,270,77

Filed This Afternoon—There are 7,078 Names on the List—Recommendations of Engineer—The Repairs to No. 2 Conduit

RUSSIAN VIEW OF ANNEXATION OF KOREA

Britain and States Hard Hit, Says Editor, But "No One Would Go to War for Korea"

IRELAND HOME RULE

London, Aug. 31.—John Redmond, the Irish parliamentarian, was broken on suddenly two years ago. Her grief was so keen that she removed herself completely from society. She brooded for a time and then went into absolute seclusion by accepting a position as probationary nurse in the Children's Hospital at Bloomsbury, at a salary of $5 a week. She became known as Nurse Margery and was treated no differently from the other nurses of the hospital. She kept her identity secret until friends calling on a mission of charity discovered her there.

SLID DOWN ROPE TO ESCAPE FROM BURNING HOTEL

Rochester, N. Y., Aug. 31.—Two fires which broke out in different parts of Charlotte early this morning threatened to wipe up the lakeside village. The first started in the Genesee Hotel and the thirty occupants escaped only by sliding down ropes, some of them burning their hands. While the hotel was burning, flames broke out in the Monroe Baking Company's ice house and Shiel's barns, a high wind spreading sparks and burning embers all over the village, several cottages catching fire. Damage of $25,000 was done.

AMERICAN GIRLS KILLED BY AUTO IN MUNICH

Munich, Bavaria, Aug. 31.—Miss Rose Buckingham of San Francisco was killed and Miss Agnes Ross of the same city was severely injured by a runaway automobile as they were leaving the Prinz Regent Theatre last night. The driver lost control of the car, and it plunged into the crowd on the sidewalk.

REPUBLICANS GAIN IN SPANISH ELECTIONS

Lisbon, Aug. 31.—Complete returns from the recent parliamentary elections, with the exception of such as were invalidated by riot or otherwise, show the following results:—Ministerialists, 90; Monarchists in opposition, 40; Republicans 14. This is a Republican gain, the party having elected but five candidates at the elections two years ago. The republicans charge extensive frauds and made frequent contests of the returns.

SECURE SPACE NOW!

The newspapers will have a greatly increased number of readers from this date until the close of the exhibition. Merchants who advertise will thus reach many more possible customers. The Telegraph and Times-Star are the papers most people read. They now have by far the largest circulation in the local field. The merchant who uses them as a medium will increase his sales during the exhibition period. Think it over!

THE TIMES' NEW REPORTER

HIGHWAYMAN BENTLEY. A wild-eyed and dishevelled supporter of Premier Hazen cautiously opened the door of the reporters' room in the Standard office last night and thrust in his head. Seeing another head appear suddenly from behind the desk, and catching a glimpse of steel, he drew hastily back and covered behind the wall. His labored breathing aroused the curiosity of the staff and a reporter, scissors in hand, went out. The dishevelled one entered and dropped into a chair, panting heavily, and furtively peering about him for possible enemies. "I am very glad you came to us," said the editor of the Standard. "This is a serious matter, and will be brought at once to Mr. Hazen's attention. I have no doubt that the road commission which did so deadly work in Fairville on election day will be sent at once to clear the road at Fairfield. The premier is a man of action. He will cut Bentley and his pulpwood into the Hay Fund, at once. Mr. Hazen is a terror when aroused. "I may add further," said the editor of the Standard, "that because the road commission in this province are in a horrible state, and the man Bentley has piled some pulpwood beside one of them, and therefore the Hazen Highway act is the best ever, Q. E. D. "The Hazen man breathed more freely, and consented to accompany a member of the staff to the nearest drugstore.

"TAY PAY" WILL BE IN CANADA NEXT MONTH

Packy McFarland's Name Off List of Travelling Pugilists

MOTHER SAYS HE CAN'T GO TO AUSTRALIA

Chicago, Aug. 31.—Packy McFarland, lightweight, will not be a member of the party of pugilists who are soon to go to Australia.

RECALLS ROWING DAYS HERE

Archdeacon Madden Gives Impressions After Trip On River

WANTS HIM TO QUIT RING AND "GOLDEN HARVEST DOES NOT CHANGE HER VIEWS—PRIZE FIGHTING IN FRISCO—A BIG RACE MEET—FUTURITY TODAY

Chicago, Aug. 31.—Packy McFarland, lightweight, will not be a member of the party of pugilists who are soon to go to Australia. This month was settled yesterday when Hugh McLoath, the Australian promoter, arrived in the city and visited McFarland's home. He did not see Packy, but had a long talk with the fighter's mother, and she decided the matter for her son. Mrs. McFarland told the Australian promoter that she did not want Packy to take the trip and under no conditions would she consent, as her health had been broken under the strain caused by worry over his fight. Mrs. McFarland always has been opposed to Packy fighting and is anxious for him to quit the ring. When told of the "golden harvest," Packy would reap on the other side and how his battles would be, Mrs. McFarland's mind was not changed, so the promoter gave up his quest.

RECALLS ROWING DAYS HERE

Archdeacon Madden said: "The panorama of the main river is very fine, the low lying hills and woods coming down to the water are striking features of the scenery. We were rather surprised at the lack of cultivated land on the banks of the river, but were told that there were more farms farther up."

WANTS HIM TO QUIT RING AND "GOLDEN HARVEST DOES NOT CHANGE HER VIEWS—PRIZE FIGHTING IN FRISCO—A BIG RACE MEET—FUTURITY TODAY

Chicago, Aug. 31.—Packy McFarland, lightweight, will not be a member of the party of pugilists who are soon to go to Australia. This month was settled yesterday when Hugh McLoath, the Australian promoter, arrived in the city and visited McFarland's home. He did not see Packy, but had a long talk with the fighter's mother, and she decided the matter for her son. Mrs. McFarland told the Australian promoter that she did not want Packy to take the trip and under no conditions would she consent, as her health had been broken under the strain caused by worry over his fight. Mrs. McFarland always has been opposed to Packy fighting and is anxious for him to quit the ring. When told of the "golden harvest," Packy would reap on the other side and how his battles would be, Mrs. McFarland's mind was not changed, so the promoter gave up his quest.

RECALLS ROWING DAYS HERE

Archdeacon Madden said: "The panorama of the main river is very fine, the low lying hills and woods coming down to the water are striking features of the scenery. We were rather surprised at the lack of cultivated land on the banks of the river, but were told that there were more farms farther up."

WANTS HIM TO QUIT RING AND "GOLDEN HARVEST DOES NOT CHANGE HER VIEWS—PRIZE FIGHTING IN FRISCO—A BIG RACE MEET—FUTURITY TODAY

Chicago, Aug. 31.—Packy McFarland, lightweight, will not be a member of the party of pugilists who are soon to go to Australia. This month was settled yesterday when Hugh McLoath, the Australian promoter, arrived in the city and visited McFarland's home. He did not see Packy, but had a long talk with the fighter's mother, and she decided the matter for her son. Mrs. McFarland told the Australian promoter that she did not want Packy to take the trip and under no conditions would she consent, as her health had been broken under the strain caused by worry over his fight. Mrs. McFarland always has been opposed to Packy fighting and is anxious for him to quit the ring. When told of the "golden harvest," Packy would reap on the other side and how his battles would be, Mrs. McFarland's mind was not changed, so the promoter gave up his quest.

RECALLS ROWING DAYS HERE

Archdeacon Madden said: "The panorama of the main river is very fine, the low lying hills and woods coming down to the water are striking features of the scenery. We were rather surprised at the lack of cultivated land on the banks of the river, but were told that there were more farms farther up."

WANTS HIM TO QUIT RING AND "GOLDEN HARVEST DOES NOT CHANGE HER VIEWS—PRIZE FIGHTING IN FRISCO—A BIG RACE MEET—FUTURITY TODAY

Chicago, Aug. 31.—Packy McFarland, lightweight, will not be a member of the party of pugilists who are soon to go to Australia. This month was settled yesterday when Hugh McLoath, the Australian promoter, arrived in the city and visited McFarland's home. He did not see Packy, but had a long talk with the fighter's mother, and she decided the matter for her son. Mrs. McFarland told the Australian promoter that she did not want Packy to take the trip and under no conditions would she consent, as her health had been broken under the strain caused by worry over his fight. Mrs. McFarland always has been opposed to Packy fighting and is anxious for him to quit the ring. When told of the "golden harvest," Packy would reap on the other side and how his battles would be, Mrs. McFarland's mind was not changed, so the promoter gave up his quest.

RECALLS ROWING DAYS HERE

Archdeacon Madden said: "The panorama of the main river is very fine, the low lying hills and woods coming down to the water are striking features of the scenery. We were rather surprised at the lack of cultivated land on the banks of the river, but were told that there were more farms farther up."

MOTHER SAYS HE CAN'T GO TO AUSTRALIA

Chicago, Aug. 31.—Packy McFarland, lightweight, will not be a member of the party of pugilists who are soon to go to Australia.

RECALLS ROWING DAYS HERE

Archdeacon Madden Gives Impressions After Trip On River

WANTS HIM TO QUIT RING AND "GOLDEN HARVEST DOES NOT CHANGE HER VIEWS—PRIZE FIGHTING IN FRISCO—A BIG RACE MEET—FUTURITY TODAY

Chicago, Aug. 31.—Packy McFarland, lightweight, will not be a member of the party of pugilists who are soon to go to Australia. This month was settled yesterday when Hugh McLoath, the Australian promoter, arrived in the city and visited McFarland's home. He did not see Packy, but had a long talk with the fighter's mother, and she decided the matter for her son. Mrs. McFarland told the Australian promoter that she did not want Packy to take the trip and under no conditions would she consent, as her health had been broken under the strain caused by worry over his fight. Mrs. McFarland always has been opposed to Packy fighting and is anxious for him to quit the ring. When told of the "golden harvest," Packy would reap on the other side and how his battles would be, Mrs. McFarland's mind was not changed, so the promoter gave up his quest.

RECALLS ROWING DAYS HERE

Archdeacon Madden said: "The panorama of the main river is very fine, the low lying hills and woods coming down to the water are striking features of the scenery. We were rather surprised at the lack of cultivated land on the banks of the river, but were told that there were more farms farther up."

WANTS HIM TO QUIT RING AND "GOLDEN HARVEST DOES NOT CHANGE HER VIEWS—PRIZE FIGHTING IN FRISCO—A BIG RACE MEET—FUTURITY TODAY

Chicago, Aug. 31.—Packy McFarland, lightweight, will not be a member of the party of pugilists who are soon to go to Australia. This month was settled yesterday when Hugh McLoath, the Australian promoter, arrived in the city and visited McFarland's home. He did not see Packy, but had a long talk with the fighter's mother, and she decided the matter for her son. Mrs. McFarland told the Australian promoter that she did not want Packy to take the trip and under no conditions would she consent, as her health had been broken under the strain caused by worry over his fight. Mrs. McFarland always has been opposed to Packy fighting and is anxious for him to quit the ring. When told of the "golden harvest," Packy would reap on the other side and how his battles would be, Mrs. McFarland's mind was not changed, so the promoter gave up his quest.

RECALLS ROWING DAYS HERE

Archdeacon Madden said: "The panorama of the main river is very fine, the low lying hills and woods coming down to the water are striking features of the scenery. We were rather surprised at the lack of cultivated land on the banks of the river, but were told that there were more farms farther up."

WANTS HIM TO QUIT RING AND "GOLDEN HARVEST DOES NOT CHANGE HER VIEWS—PRIZE FIGHTING IN FRISCO—A BIG RACE MEET—FUTURITY TODAY

Chicago, Aug. 31.—Packy McFarland, lightweight, will not be a member of the party of pugilists who are soon to go to Australia. This month was settled yesterday when Hugh McLoath, the Australian promoter, arrived in the city and visited McFarland's home. He did not see Packy, but had a long talk with the fighter's mother, and she decided the matter for her son. Mrs. McFarland told the Australian promoter that she did not want Packy to take the trip and under no conditions would she consent, as her health had been broken under the strain caused by worry over his fight. Mrs. McFarland always has been opposed to Packy fighting and is anxious for him to quit the ring. When told of the "golden harvest," Packy would reap on the other side and how his battles would be, Mrs. McFarland's mind was not changed, so the promoter gave up his quest.

RECALLS ROWING DAYS HERE

Archdeacon Madden said: "The panorama of the main river is very fine, the low lying hills and woods coming down to the water are striking features of the scenery. We were rather surprised at the lack of cultivated land on the banks of the river, but were told that there were more farms farther up."

WANTS HIM TO QUIT RING AND "GOLDEN HARVEST DOES NOT CHANGE HER VIEWS—PRIZE FIGHTING IN FRISCO—A BIG RACE MEET—FUTURITY TODAY

Chicago, Aug. 31.—Packy McFarland, lightweight, will not be a member of the party of pugilists who are soon to go to Australia. This month was settled yesterday when Hugh McLoath, the Australian promoter, arrived in the city and visited McFarland's home. He did not see Packy, but had a long talk with the fighter's mother, and she decided the matter for her son. Mrs. McFarland told the Australian promoter that she did not want Packy to take the trip and under no conditions would she consent, as her health had been broken under the strain caused by worry over his fight. Mrs. McFarland always has been opposed to Packy fighting and is anxious for him to quit the ring. When told of the "golden harvest," Packy would reap on the other side and how his battles would be, Mrs. McFarland's mind was not changed, so the promoter gave up his quest.

RECALLS ROWING DAYS HERE

Archdeacon Madden said: "The panorama of the main river is very fine, the low lying hills and woods coming down to the water are striking features of the scenery. We were rather surprised at the lack of cultivated land on the banks of the river, but were told that there were more farms farther up."

WANTS HIM TO QUIT RING AND "GOLDEN HARVEST DOES NOT CHANGE HER VIEWS—PRIZE FIGHTING IN FRISCO—A BIG RACE MEET—FUTURITY TODAY

Chicago, Aug. 31.—Packy McFarland, lightweight, will not be a member of the party of pugilists who are soon to go to Australia. This month was settled yesterday when Hugh McLoath, the Australian promoter, arrived in the city and visited McFarland's home. He did not see Packy, but had a long talk with the fighter's mother, and she decided the matter for her son. Mrs. McFarland told the Australian promoter that she did not want Packy to take the trip and under no conditions would she consent, as her health had been broken under the strain caused by worry over his fight. Mrs. McFarland always has been opposed to Packy fighting and is anxious for him to quit the ring. When told of the "golden harvest," Packy would reap on the other side and how his battles would be, Mrs. McFarland's mind was not changed, so the promoter gave up his quest.

MOTHER SAYS HE CAN'T GO TO AUSTRALIA

Chicago, Aug. 31.—Packy McFarland, lightweight, will not be a member of the party of pugilists who are soon to go to Australia.

RECALLS ROWING DAYS HERE

Archdeacon Madden Gives Impressions After Trip On River

WANTS HIM TO QUIT RING AND "GOLDEN HARVEST DOES NOT CHANGE HER VIEWS—PRIZE FIGHTING IN FRISCO—A BIG RACE MEET—FUTURITY TODAY

Chicago, Aug. 31.—Packy McFarland, lightweight, will not be a member of the party of pugilists who are soon to go to Australia. This month was settled yesterday when Hugh McLoath, the Australian promoter, arrived in the city and visited McFarland's home. He did not see Packy, but had a long talk with the fighter's mother, and she decided the matter for her son. Mrs. McFarland told the Australian promoter that she did not want Packy to take the trip and under no conditions would she consent, as her health had been broken under the strain caused by worry over his fight. Mrs. McFarland always has been opposed to Packy fighting and is anxious for him to quit the ring. When told of the "golden harvest," Packy would reap on the other side and how his battles would be, Mrs. McFarland's mind was not changed, so the promoter gave up his quest.

RECALLS ROWING DAYS HERE

Archdeacon Madden said: "The panorama of the main river is very fine, the low lying hills and woods coming down to the water are striking features of the scenery. We were rather surprised at the lack of cultivated land on the banks of the river, but were told that there were more farms farther up."

WANTS HIM TO QUIT RING AND "GOLDEN HARVEST DOES NOT CHANGE HER VIEWS—PRIZE FIGHTING IN FRISCO—A BIG RACE MEET—FUTURITY TODAY

Chicago, Aug. 31.—Packy McFarland, lightweight, will not be a member of the party of pugilists who are soon to go to Australia. This month was settled yesterday when Hugh McLoath, the Australian promoter, arrived in the city and visited McFarland's home. He did not see Packy, but had a long talk with the fighter's mother, and she decided the matter for her son. Mrs. McFarland told the Australian promoter that she did not want Packy to take the trip and under no conditions would she consent, as her health had been broken under the strain caused by worry over his fight. Mrs. McFarland always has been opposed to Packy fighting and is anxious for him to quit the ring. When told of the "golden harvest," Packy would reap on the other side and how his battles would be, Mrs. McFarland's mind was not changed, so the promoter gave up his quest.

RECALLS ROWING DAYS HERE

Archdeacon Madden said: "The panorama of the main river is very fine, the low lying hills and woods coming down to the water are striking features of the scenery. We were rather surprised at the lack of cultivated land on the banks of the river, but were told that there were more farms farther up."

WANTS HIM TO QUIT RING AND "GOLDEN HARVEST DOES NOT CHANGE HER VIEWS—PRIZE FIGHTING IN FRISCO—A BIG RACE MEET—FUTURITY TODAY

Chicago, Aug. 31.—Packy McFarland, lightweight, will not be a member of the party of pugilists who are soon to go to Australia. This month was settled yesterday when Hugh McLoath, the Australian promoter, arrived in the city and visited McFarland's home. He did not see Packy, but had a long talk with the fighter's mother, and she decided the matter for her son. Mrs. McFarland told the Australian promoter that she did not want Packy to take the trip and under no conditions would she consent, as her health had been broken under the strain caused by worry over his fight. Mrs. McFarland always has been opposed to Packy fighting and is anxious for him to quit the ring. When told of the "golden harvest," Packy would reap on the other side and how his battles would be, Mrs. McFarland's mind was not changed, so the promoter gave up his quest.

RECALLS ROWING DAYS HERE

Archdeacon Madden said: "The panorama of the main river is very fine, the low lying hills and woods coming down to the water are striking features of the scenery. We were rather surprised at the lack of cultivated land on the banks of the river, but were told that there were more farms farther up."

WANTS HIM TO QUIT RING AND "GOLDEN HARVEST DOES NOT CHANGE HER VIEWS—PRIZE FIGHTING IN FRISCO—A BIG RACE MEET—FUTURITY TODAY

Chicago, Aug. 31.—Packy McFarland, lightweight, will not be a member of the party of pugilists who are soon to go to Australia. This month was settled yesterday when Hugh McLoath, the Australian promoter, arrived in the city and visited McFarland's home. He did not see Packy, but had a long talk with the fighter's mother, and she decided the matter for her son. Mrs. McFarland told the Australian promoter that she did not want Packy to take the trip and under no conditions would she consent, as her health had been broken under the strain caused by worry over his fight. Mrs. McFarland always has been opposed to Packy fighting and is anxious for him to quit the ring. When told of the "golden harvest," Packy would reap on the other side and how his battles would be, Mrs. McFarland's mind was not changed, so the promoter gave up his quest.

RECALLS ROWING DAYS HERE

Archdeacon Madden said: "The panorama of the main river is very fine, the low lying hills and woods coming down to the water are striking features of the scenery. We were rather surprised at the lack of cultivated land on the banks of the river, but were told that there were more farms farther up."

WANTS HIM TO QUIT RING AND "GOLDEN HARVEST DOES NOT CHANGE HER VIEWS—PRIZE FIGHTING IN FRISCO—A BIG RACE MEET—FUTURITY TODAY

Chicago, Aug. 31.—Packy McFarland, lightweight, will not be a member of the party of pugilists who are soon to go to Australia. This month was settled yesterday when Hugh McLoath, the Australian promoter, arrived in the city and visited McFarland's home. He did not see Packy, but had a long talk with the fighter's mother, and she decided the matter for her son. Mrs. McFarland told the Australian promoter that she did not want Packy to take the trip and under no conditions would she consent, as her health had been broken under the strain caused by worry over his fight. Mrs. McFarland always has been opposed to Packy fighting and is anxious for him to quit the ring. When told of the "golden harvest," Packy would reap on the other side and how his battles would be, Mrs. McFarland's mind was not changed, so the promoter gave up his quest.

MOTHER SAYS HE CAN'T GO TO AUSTRALIA

Chicago, Aug. 31.—Packy McFarland, lightweight, will not be a member of the party of pugilists who are soon to go to Australia.

RECALLS ROWING DAYS HERE

Archdeacon Madden Gives Impressions After Trip On River

WANTS HIM TO QUIT RING AND "GOLDEN HARVEST DOES NOT CHANGE HER VIEWS—PRIZE FIGHTING IN FRISCO—A BIG RACE MEET—FUTURITY TODAY

Chicago, Aug. 31.—Packy McFarland, lightweight, will not be a member of the party of pugilists who are soon to go to Australia. This month was settled yesterday when Hugh McLoath, the Australian promoter, arrived in the city and visited McFarland's home. He did not see Packy, but had a long talk with the fighter's mother, and she decided the matter for her son. Mrs. McFarland told the Australian promoter that she did not want Packy to take the trip and under no conditions would she consent, as her health had been broken under the strain caused by worry over his fight. Mrs. McFarland always has been opposed to Packy fighting and is anxious for him to quit the ring. When told of the "golden harvest," Packy would reap on the other side and how his battles would be, Mrs. McFarland's mind was not changed, so the promoter gave up his quest.

RECALLS ROWING DAYS HERE

Archdeacon Madden said: "The panorama of the main river is very fine, the low lying hills and woods coming down to the water are striking features of the scenery. We were rather surprised at the lack of cultivated land on the banks of the river, but were told that there were more farms farther up."

WANTS HIM TO QUIT RING AND "GOLDEN HARVEST DOES NOT CHANGE HER VIEWS—PRIZE FIGHTING IN FRISCO—A BIG RACE MEET—FUTURITY TODAY

Chicago, Aug. 31.—Packy McFarland, lightweight, will not be a member of the party of pugilists who are soon to go to Australia. This month was settled yesterday when Hugh McLoath, the Australian promoter, arrived in the city and visited McFarland's home. He did not see Packy, but had a long talk with the fighter's mother, and she decided the matter for her son. Mrs. McFarland told the Australian promoter that she did not want Packy to take the trip and under no conditions would she consent, as her health had been broken under the strain caused by worry over his fight. Mrs. McFarland always has been opposed to Packy fighting and is anxious for him to quit the ring. When told of the "golden harvest," Packy would reap on the other side and how his battles would be, Mrs. McFarland's mind was not changed, so the promoter gave up his quest.

RECALLS ROWING DAYS HERE

Archdeacon Madden said: "The panorama of the main river is very fine, the low lying hills and woods coming down to the water are striking features of the scenery. We were rather surprised at the lack of cultivated land on the banks of the river, but were