Billiards.
Belgian's Great Work.
New York, Oct. 20.—Edouard Horreman, Belgian champion billiardist, scored a grand average of 96 at the conclusion of his 2400 point 15.2 ball line match with Koji Yamada, Japanese cue expert, who finished with a total of 425, and an average of 171.7-24. The Belgian's high average was said to have surpassed any previous one in an exhibition match. In the fifth block in the afternoon, Horreman made high runs of 169, unfinished, and 142. In the final block last night he beat Yamada 400 to 59. He ran out one block of 400 from spot.

Champions to Meet.
New York, Oct. 20.—Seven of the chief billiardists of Europe and America are among the entries for the world's championship 15.2 ball line contest in Chicago from November 14 to November 19. The list includes Willie Hoppe, present world's champion; Jake Schaefer of Chicago; Walker Cochran of San Francisco; Edouard Horreman of Belgium, champion of Europe; Roger Conti, twenty years old, of Paris; Ora Morrison of San Diego and George Sutton of Chicago.

RELIGIOUS EDUCATION.
The afternoon session of the Maritime Religious Education Council was opened with devotion by Professor H. A. Smith. He spoke of worship as communion with God. Marion Lawrence spoke on the art of teaching. It was the finest of the arts. Rev. H. S. B. Stothard spoke of the effort to bring young people to life service. The annual meeting of the Alumni Association was held at St. David's church at 5:30 o'clock. Rev. J. H. A. Anderson presided. Miss Mary Allison, the secretary, presented her report, showing the finances to be in good standing. The following officers were elected: President, Rev. J. H. A. Anderson; vice-president, Clyde Ridout; secretary, Miss Mary Allison; librarian, Miss Abrams. Speeches were delivered by J. A. Clarke, Dr. H. T. DeWolfe and S. J. Parsons. The evening session opened with a sacred concert conducted by Professor A. U. Brander. Rev. W. B. Ross, S. J. Parsons, Rev. W. B. Wiggins and E. D. King addressed the assembly. Marion Lawrence reviewed the great events in Sunday school work. He spoke of the great conventions which have been held. Dr. DeWolfe gave the address on the Forward Look. He pointed out the importance of education and said that the Sunday school was the strategic point to obtain religious education.

The Orphan's Fair.
The fair in aid of the Protestant Orphanage of the city drew about 1,100 people last evening. Most of the activity was around the country store and the novelty booth. The City Cornet Band rendered a fine programme of music and at the conclusion of the concert dancing took place. An invitation will be given to all the orphans of the city to visit the fair on Saturday afternoon. The prize winners last evening were as follows: Ladies' bean bag, Miss Susie Murphy; gentlemen's bean bag, J. S. Murray; flood gates, L. C. Goodger; deal among the tailors, B. Barton; gentlemen's air gun, M. McLean. The door prize, a load of wood, was won by ticket number 2101 but it was not claimed last evening. It was announced last night that the door prize on Tuesday night, whether this were true and when he answered "Yes," the light fine was given.
