Talk of Expansion for Dalhousie University

Halifax, Dec. 21.—According to reports current here, a project is afoot to have Dalhousie University, of this city, absorb certain departments of King's College, the Anglican institution at Windsor (N. S.); Acadia University, Baptist, at Wolfville (N. S.); St. Francis Xavier, Roman Catholic, at Antigonish (N. S.) and Mount Allison, Methodist, at Sackville (N. Farris, attorney-general and minister of labor for the province of British Columbia, has resigned his dual portfolio in the Oliver cabinet. SAD NEWS BORNE BY KINDLY NEIGHBORS

Bearers of sad tidings, two kindly neighbors were on hand to meet Mrs. LeRoy Chapelle and her two children when the steamer Pretorian docked at Sand Point last evening. The two women were allowed on board by special permission of the immigration authorities and, as gently as it was possible, they told of the tragedy which had left Mrs. Chapelle a widow and her children fatherless.

There had been no previous hint of warning and the blow fell heavily. Mrs. Chapelle was completely unprepared and the eldest child, a boy of five years of age, cried bitterly, but half understanding the cause of grief, and calling at the same time for his father. The younger child is two years old and, having still less understanding of what the sad news meant, asked continually where father was.
