Queens, L. L., a dentist who also ran a farm, said in applying for alimony, pending a suit for separation, that her husband told her if she wanted more money than he was giving her she could hire out to a neighboring farmer as a day laborer.

Mrs. McCombs was married on June 16, 1920, when she was nineteen years old and McCombs forty.

McCombs told her if she wanted more money than he was giving her she could
hire out to a neighboring farmer as a day laborer.

He asserted that he kept her at her duties by threats of bodily harm, locked her in a room, and threatened to kill her. She estimated his income at $15,000 a year.

McCombs said his wife abandoned him three months after their marriage and he left the farm and resumed dental practice. Justice Marsh denied the alimony plea with permission to renew it on more complete papers.

H. L. Goldberg, who reported the dar-his assistant were held up at Ogden and South Winchester avenues by four armed men.

afternoon cents retails at the rate of fifty cents on this side of the border for a similar brand is enticing many restless spirits, formerly engaged in other illegal enterprises, to take a chance in tripling investment, with a margin to spare, and enforcement officials here are keeping a vigilant watch for this contraband class of goods.

Everything was in full swing at the Trades and Labor Fair last night and the games were well patronized. The band of the 62nd regiment furnished an excellent programme and the attendance reached the 700 mark. The door price, a smoking stand, was won by ticket No. 4717, held by W. A. Scarle.

The other prizes were won as follows:
