Gregory Scott a New Mainee Hero for You Girls!

THE CHANGED ATTITUDE OF THE PUBLIC TOWARDS THE SCREEN IS BEING MADE MORE APPARENT AS EACH DAY PASSES. NOT ONLY DO THE BEST EDUCATED PEOPLE GO REGULARLY TO MOTION PICTURE THEATRES, BUT THEY ARE TAKING AN ACTIVE INTEREST IN PRODUCTION. THE LATEST CONVERT TO THE MOVIES IS THE HON. POPPY WYNDHAM, THE ACCOMPLISHED DAUGHTER OF LORD INCHCAPE, WHO IS STARRING IN THIS LATEST ENGLISH FILM.

Very fine racecourse scenes are a feature of "A Dead Certainty." One catches glimpses of the book-makers at work, the horses being led around for inspection before the race, the "tick-tack" men, in fact everything that means anything to the racegoer. All the excitement of a big race is there and the race in which the villain's horse is finally beaten, is one of the biggest moments in the film. Nat Gould is the author of the novel from which this film was produced and all the sporting instinct for which this great writer was known has been incorporated into the story.

TENNIS.

Pittsburg, Pa., Aug. 3.—The first match in the Davis Cup elimination contests at Sewickley between the British side and Australian tennis teams will be the singles tomorrow afternoon at three o'clock. The choice lies between Max Woosman, captain, and Lowe, for the British team, and Anderson or Hawkes, junior member for the Australians.

Mrs. L. W. Hawkes, mother of Jack Hawkes, the youngest member of the Australian team, arrived at Sewickley yesterday from Sydney, to witness her son's first appearance as a Davis Cup player.

J. D. Anderson, who may play in the singles tomorrow for the Australians said several of his friends have traveled
