LOCAL NEWS

At a meeting of the executive of the Commercial Club in the Union Club last evening routine matters were dealt with. Routine matters were transacted last night at a meeting of the Letter Car-riers' Union in Painters' Hall. J. Mc-Dermott presided.

Rev. H. Wigle, of Sackville, last night addressed the Tuxis boys at their meeting and supper in the Y. M. C. A. His subject was "Choosing our life work." Supper was served by the ladies of Germain street Baptist church.

A case against Colingwood Brenan, charged with obtaining a car and money under false pretences, was withdrawn in the police court yesterday, as the plaintiff said he was satisfied there was no intention to defraud.

Sergt. John Fitzgerald and bride returned to St. John last night from Halifax, where they had landed from overseas aboard the steamer Grampian. He went overseas early in the war with an artillery unit from the west.

At a meeting of the Daughters of Israel last evening, Mrs. J. Goldman presiding, in the new Synagogue, a grant of five dollars was made towards the Christmas treat for the Free Kindergartens, It was decided to hold a dance in January.

Mrs. D Hipwell presided yesterday at a meeting of the W. C. T. U., in Orange hall, when Mr. Henderson of the Shanty Men's Mission of Ontario, gave an address on his work. Mrs. Seymour led in prayer. She also reported on taking flowers to the D. S. C. R. hospital. Plans for the quarterly convention were made.

At City Hall yesterday Mayor Hayes said that the contractors at Courtenay Bay, he understood, were well ahead of their work and that the new documents Bay, he understood, were well ahead of their work and that the new dry-dock would be completed in two and a half years. He said it was planned to show Lord Jellicoe about the harbor works when he came here on December 11. He will arrive at noon and leave that even-ing for Halifax.

At a meeting of the Clerks' Association last evening in the board of trade rooms, A. C. Wilson, president, in the chair, it was decided to widen the scope of the organization so as to include wholesale employes and those of retail houses of clothing, millinery, boots and dry goods. Many new members were admitted.

same time as pulmotors. A discording convinced him that Westphal's work had saved the infant. But the rest of the little family was drifting away from life. His coat off, sleeves up, Dr. Dr. Feldman and the policeman worked for Feldman and the policeman worked for forty-five minutes. Then he said he had lost the fight. Bosholde was removed to the hospital suffering from shock.

Maggie B. Gaspard, about 65 years old, and her daughter, about 27 years old, were asphyxiated by gas in a furnished room at 421 Lexington avenue.

Mrs. Dora Lipinsky, the housekeeper, found the elder woman lying on the floor, while the younger one was in bed.

There were several postal cards in the room, some addressed to Lillian and some to Frances Gaspard, giving the address of 541 West 124th street, the date on the latest card being 1910. These cards were the only effects the women left. According to the housekeeper, they came to the room last Monday from Florida to look after some business here.
