The soldiers who remained on duty in the city over the holiday were most generously treated by the citizens in ferent patriotic bodies including the Women's Canadian Club and the Daughters of the Empire, they were able to enjoy a bounteous turkey dinner with all the little dainties accompanying it. About four hundred soldiers remained on duty in the city over the holiday were most generously treated by the citizens in general and, owing to the efforts of different patriotic bodies including the Women's Canadian Club and the Daughters accompanying it. About four hundred soldiers remained on duty with the different units, the 26th Battalion, the 28th Dragoons, the Artillery, Army Service Corps, and 62nd detaining company. All were happily remembered, and they did justice to an abundant supply of the good things provided. The men are particularly thankful to the Women's Canadian Club and the Daughters of the Empire for their kindness.

The spirit of Christmas was well exemplified in the city churches and public institutions yesterday when there were remembrances to all the needy. In the public homes and other institutions a special Christmas dinner was served. Joint services were held in several of the churches and large congregations attended. Offerings were taken in aid of the orphans, the Belgian relief, and other worthy objects.

The St. Vincent de Paul Society gave out big hampers filled with good things to the poor. In the Cathedral midnight mass was celebrated by Rev. Dr. F. Bourgeois.

FOR THE SOLDIERS
For the soldiers who are still in the city over Sunday the churches are continuing their efforts to provide for their material as well as their spiritual welfare. Among the churches whose doors will be open on Sunday evening for the men are St. John's (Stone), St. Dawid's St. James, Germain street Baptist and Tranity.

Christmas Day Fires.

Damage amounting to about $2,000 was done yesterday in two fires in the city, one in the building at 407 Main street owned by P. Mahoriey, and another in Charles street in the home of Thomas Kickham. In the Mahony fire the tenants, H. Lockhart, P. Paterson, and M. Ritchie, wit their families were forced out to seek shelter elsewhere from the bitter cold. Much damage was done in the liquor saloon kept by Mr. Mahony in the building.
