BOY OF FOURTEEN TAKES HIS LIFE

Fred Watters, English Lad Employed on McCrae Farm at Shannon's, Committed Suicide By Hanging

Frederick Watters, a fourteen year old boy, committed suicide on Saturday afternoon by hanging himself in a barn on the farm of his employer, John F. McCrae of Shannon Settlement, Queen's county, N. B.

On Saturday afternoon he left the house about three o'clock, and when he failed to appear for supper, members of the family began to fear that something had happened to him.

Mr. McCrae went out to the barn and, as he stepped inside, a gruesome sight met his gaze. The boy was hanging on the end of a rope suspended from one of the beams.

Mr. McCrae's brother, speaking to the Times today, said that it was impossible to understand why the boy had committed suicide. He was treated kindly, and was a bright young fellow, not inclined to melancholy, and had no apparent reason for ending his life.

Young Watters was employed on the McCrae farm for the last three years. He was a native of England and was twenty-two years of age when he came to this country.

HAS HAD VARIED CAREER IN WAR

Mrs. John Lammon, 189 Metcalfe street, was advised this morning from Ottawa that her son, Private William Lammon, a member of the Black Watch, fighting in Mesopotamia, has been admitted to the Red British General Hospital, in Basra, suffering from inflammation of the stomach.

Private Lammon has served in practically all branches of England's fighting forces, both on land and sea. He left St. John and went to Scotland where he joined the British navy. He was sent to the Dardanelles shortly after joining the navy and there saw considerable fighting. When that undertaking was cancelled, the ship on which he was a member of the crew was attached to the Admiral Beatty's fleet, and while with that fleet took part in the big naval engagement of Jutland.

His ship was sunk and he was wounded, but was rescued from drowning. He was sent to England, where he spent several weeks in hospital. After recuperating he and several other members of the crew were attached to the Black Watch and sent to Egypt, where he has been up to the present time. Private Lammon is twenty-six years old, and, prior to joining the colors, was employed in the grocery business in Toronto.

GOVERNMENT UPHOLD IN SOUTH AFRICA

Capetown, Feb. 10.—(via Reuter's Ottawa Agency)—The Union of South Africa assembly by a vote of 27 negative General Hertzog's motion of no confidence, the minority consisted solely of Nationalists.

Premier Botha said he regarded the motion as an attempt to make political capital out of an admittedly difficult position.

General Hertzog's motion expressed disapproval of the conduct of the government in connection with the purchase of wool by the imperial government.
