You and Your Wife Are Both Invited Here
To See Our $3.00 Shoes

Perhaps you'll be surprised to see the Shoes we are selling at $3.00. We believe you will. Our great $3.00 Shoe is our Regent Shoe—it's our leader. It's made in a Ladies' Shoe and Gentlemen's Shoe, and if there is a better shoe on earth sold for $3.00 tell us about it and we will throw this shoe out and sell the better one, but until we do find it we'll stick to the Regent Shoe.

The winter styles are here, made from the best stocks and on the new lasts. All sizes and widths, and on the foot you can't tell our $3.00 Shoes from a $5.00 pair.

LOCAL NEWS

DREDGE BEACON BAR.

The dredge Beacon Bar, which has been doing some dredging work at St. Stephen, was brought back to port last night by the tug Lord Roberts and Lord Richman.

SPRAINED ANKLE.

Friends of A. J. Goss, superintendent of the railway mail service, will regret to hear that he will be confined to his home for a few days owing to his having sprained his ankle yesterday morning in a fall on Chipman Hill.

TEMPERANCE FEDERATION.

The St. John County Branch of the New Brunswick Temperance Federation will meet this evening in the Christadelphian

Hall, Union street at eight o'clock. All the members are urgently requested to attend as important matters are to be discussed.

ALLOWED TO GO.

The three boys, Richard Sullivan, Cecil

Livingstone and John Mitchell, who were reported for trespass on the I. C. R. were again brought before Magistrate Ritchie in the police court yesterday afternoon, and after being severely lectured, were allowed to go home with their parents.

TOMORROW EVENING.

Rev. Fred J. Paton, the distinguished son of Rev. John T. Paton, who has had twenty years' experience in missions in the Hebrides, will address a united gathering of the Presbyterian church members of the city in St. Andrew's church on Wednesday evening at eight o'clock.

DRIED FRUIT SCARCITY.

An interesting fact in connection with the Christmas trade this year is the scarcity of such necessary articles to the housekeeper as Valencia layer raisins, li-berts, citron peel, and other commodities in that line. For various reasons these have failed to come forward from the foreign markets at the usual time and the wholesale merchants who expected them have been greatly inconvenienced. A dealer said today that the conditions in this respect were unprecedented in St.

John.

CIRCUIT COURT CASE.

The case of William A. Cairns vs. The Acadia Fire Insurance Company was before Justice Landry in the circuit court this morning. The action for $2500 on an insurance policy. The jury trying the case is composed of Alfred G. Staples, Frank S. Rogers, John T. McGee, R. E.

Dominick Hayes, James H. D. Turner,

Fred E. Law and Frank S. Spittal.

The plaintiff was on his stand all morning.

The case will be continued this afternoon.

J. B. M. Baxter, K. C., appears for the plaintiff and F. R. Taylor for the defendants.

FELL FROM DEAL PILE

Herbert McIntyre of Simonds

Street Was Severely Injured

This Morning

While at work early this morning on the wharf at Charles Miller's mill, in Pokiook, Herbert McIntyre, a scowman, slipped and fell on his back from the top of a deal pile thirty feet to the ground, sustaining severe injuries to his back and also being hurt internally. He was picked up by Fredland Devienne and Wm.

O'Hara, and placed in a boat, in which he was conveyed to Indiantown. With the assistance of Wm. Needham, contractor in the street railway, Mr. McIntyre was placed aboard his car, and carried as far as Simonds street. Here another shift was made, and he was taken on David Kiley's sledge to his home in Simonds street. Dr. C. M. Pratt rendered aid to the injured man. He found that he had been injured internally, besides being painfully hurt about the back, and will be confined to his house for some time.

POLICE COURT

Striking Wife is Charge Against

Roy Wilson—A Non-Support

Case

In the police court this morning four prisoners, arrested on drunkenness charges were dealt with in the usual manner. Roy Wilson, charged with assaulting his wife in her home in Wall street was remanded to jail. Mrs. Wilson appeared in court with a badly discolored eye. His Honor told Wilson that he had ought to be ashamed of himself for striking a woman.

Frederick Stuart, arrested on a charge of being drunk in Main street and also for not supporting his wife, pleaded not guilty and the case was set down for this afternoon.

Leonard Cameron, aged eighteen, charged with profanity in Charlotte street last night, was fined $8 on two months in jail.

Arthur Love has been reported to the court for going beyond the stand allotted to co-achmen at the Union depot.

HOW "BILLY"

SMITH WAS SHOT

Street Duel With Man Who Married

Former Wife Of

Pugilist

Smith Fell at First Shot and two more Were Fired at Him—A.

B. Loomis and Wife Under

Arrest—Smith May Recover

Further particulars of the shooting of Amos (Mysterious Billy) Smith, a former

St. John pugilist, in Portland, Ore., as told in the Times last evening, have been received. He was shot on Sunday night by Captain A. B. Loomis of the river steamer,

We Own. The shooting was said to be the outcome of a series of quarrels in which the two men had engaged at various times since last August, when Smith's wife secured a divorce. Later Loomis married

As Mrs. Loomis was walking along the street, Smith approached and addressed her. Suddenly Loomis, whom Smith had not seen, stepped forward and shot Smith in the abdomen. Smith fell to the sidewalk and Loomis fired two more shots into his body. Smith fired several shots at Loomis but his bullets went wild. Mrs.

Loomis was arrested and is held under $1-000 bail.

Smith had been in trouble with the police on several occasions. He is thought to have a fair chance of recovery. Loomis surrendered himself to the police several hours after the shooting and said that he had fired in self defence. Loomis said that Smith had been in a grudge with Mrs. Loomis early in the evening and that Smith for a long time had been looking for him to shoot him.
