SIR WILFRID INVITED.

Prince Rupert, Jan. 19 .- At the reguar meeting of the board of trade, the Publicity club made presentations reuesting that all inquiries for information be referred to that body, which was now in a most flourishing state, and doing that sort of work. There was delegation to present these claims and also to request the board to establish a bureau of public information, omewhere in the central part of the own, which would accommodate the travelling public next summer. The poard in dealing with this matter apthe Publicity club in the establishment f an information bureau. Mr. Kirkpatrick thought that it might be as vell to amalgamate the two bodies and have one paid secretary. This point raised some discussion and will receive ome attention from the committee in their deliberations.

The board will extend its heartiest nvitation to Sir Wilfrid Laurier to pag his town a visit in the near future. The board of trade in Vancouver has already extended an invitation to the Prenner to visit the coast, and it was thought by all present that it would be a good thing to have Sir Wilfrid Laurier come out and see this young
