UNDER FIRE.

Mr. Milligan Strongly Cross-Examined This Morning.

Still Strenuously Denies all knowledge of Rothesay Forgery.
—Case Continued.

The notorious Milligan-Crockett libel case is on at last, and the indications are that it will, this time, be carried to a conclusion. The case was taken up at the conclusion of White vs. Hamm, about half-past four yesterday afternoon.

O. S. Crockett, on behalf of the defendant, asked for the right to challenge jurors on the ground that the case had been passed on out of its turn in the docket and in the absence of the defendant and his counsel. Judge McLeod was willing to have this done if Mr. McKeown would consent, but Mr. McKeown refused again such a measure, and the case proceeded.

C. J. Milligan, the plaintiff, was on the stand all afternoon. At the beginning of his examination a discussion between counsel arose as to the admission in evidence of a copy of the Daily Gleaner, and a clipping entitled "Deaf and Dumb" from the Gleaner. Mr. Wallace, who appears for the defendant, objected to the admission of any except the identical copy of the Gleaner received by the plaintiff. The judge, however, allowed both the clipping and the copy of the Gleaner in evidence. The clipping referred to was read by the clerk of the court. It contained a letter from Mr. Milligan's attorney to Crockett, threatening libel suit unless the "Deaf and Dumb" letter previously published in the Gleaner was retracted and apologized for, and Mr. Crockett's reply thereto, stating that he would make no such retraction nor apology, and was ready to answer to any suit for libel arising from the publication of that letter.

The examination of the witness then continued. He said that the terms "The Right Hon. Sir Jimmie Milligan" used in the alleged libel undoubtedly referred to himself. The reference to the Deaf and Dumb had reference to certain charges he had made against the officials of the deaf and dumb school at Fredericton. The "Rt. Hon. Sir McIntyre, who was associated with the witness and J. Harvey Brown in making those charges.

Mr. Milligan, continuing his testimony, swore that he was in no way connected with the Rothesay list forgery. The first thing that intimated to him that he was suspected of connection with the matter was the notification that the document had been registered at the post office in his name. The list was mailed on Dec. 10, as he saw by the certificate in the post office.

On Dec. 10, the day the letter was mailed, Mr. Milligan declared he was in Hampton attending the recourt there. He was not at his office that day with the exception of a few minutes in the afternoon, and he had nothing to do with any correspondence while there at that time.

On the resumption of the circuit court this morning the libel suit of Milligan v. Crockett was continued, C. J. Milligan, the plaintiff, being on the stand. His examination was commenced yesterday.

Mr. McKeown said that he desired to express his regret at the unfairness of the report of the case in the Sun. It had alluded to the case as the notorious libel suit, and he thought that this unfairly reflected upon the plaintiff.

His honor requested the press to refrain from such comments in the future. C. J. Milligan, continuing his testimony, outlined the procedure in his office at election time with reference to the mailing of letters. He did not really have charge of his own office. He was away quite frequently, the office in his absence being in charge of A. E. McIntyre. About January, 1901, he began to make inquiries about the mailing of the letters, and took all the steps he could to find out who mailed it, but never learned who did it.

Drawing his attention to the article complained of, Mr. McKeown asked the witness if he had any reason to be a friend of the deaf and dumb school, the witness replied that he had made charges against the deaf and dumb institution at Fredericton.

Prior to the beginning of the suit the witness said that his relations with the defendant were friendly. Mr. Crockett's paper had shown strong opposition to his charges against the deaf and dumb institution. Continuing, the witness said that he had published on Feb. 4, 1901, in the Telegraph, an open letter denying complicity in the forgery of the Rothesay list. He read the letter to the jury. He had nothing to do at all with the preparation of any list of the electors of Rothesay, resident non-resident for the year 1900. He said that he could positively deny that he consulted with anyone in reference to this list, nor had he any knowledge that any wrong doing was going on. He had not even seen the forged list.

that he had ascertained that fact through the papers. Witness was asked if he remembered the by-election in the month of September, 1900, when Dr. Pugsley and Mr. Sprout ran. Mr. McKeown objected to the question. The judge allowed it. Mr. Milligan remembered the election.

Mr. Crockett: "Have you seen a statement published in the Globe that you, in that election, attempted to impersonate the Rev. Allen Daniel?" Mr. McKeown objected to the question.

Mr. Crockett said that he was merely putting the question to test the credibility of the witness, as the witness had just previously said that he thought that the men whose names were on the bogus list could not have voted if they had wanted to. "If we can show," said Mr. Crockett, "that Mr. Milligan has been a party to other political crimes—"

Mr. Crockett interrupted, remarking that he would allow a broad cross-examination, but if the witness did not answer questions intended merely to test his credibility, he would not compel him to do so.

Mr. Milligan said emphatically: "That publication was a lie."

Mr. Crockett, calling the witness' attention to an article in the Daily Telegraph of Jan. 25, 1901, relative to the preparation of electoral lists, he recognized that it was a matter of importance to have the names of party friends on the list. He had not taken an active interest in the politics of Kings county since 1894. As a private person he was not in a position to know the politics of that county than to other counties.

Court adjourned at noon till 2.30.

PETER SWEARS

To be a Real Nice King and do Nothing Wrong.

BELGRADE, June 25.—Amidst great enthusiasm, King Peter this morning took the oath before the Skupstina. Subsequently he held a review of the troops.

The oath taken by the king was in the following terms: "I, Peter Karageorgevich, an ascending throne of the Kingdom of Serbia and assuming the royal prerogative, swear to Almighty God and to me upon this earth, to will preserve the independence of Serbia and the unity of its government, that I will maintain inviolate the constitution of the country, that I will govern in conformity with the principle of the law, and that in all undertakings and dealings, I will keep the welfare of the people before my eyes. Taking this my oath solemnly before God and the people, I do as witness the Lord God, to whom I shall give account at the Judgment Seat. So Help Me God, Amen."

PARIS, June 25.—The French minister to Serbia has reported the circumstances attending the departure of the ministers from Belgrade as follows: "All the ministers received similar instructions to act together. According to an understanding was reached that they should depart, this step being regarded as the most dignified method of expressing the powers' protest against the assassination of King Alexander and Queen Draga. The Russian and Austrian representatives apparently shared in the principle of the protest, but they did not withdraw because Russia and Austria were apprehensive that a united withdrawal of the entire diplomatic representation at Belgrade would precipitate another revolution."

The officials here say the entente of the ministers to Serbia now becomes an entente of the powers in expressing a protest. The duration of the absence of the ministers from Belgrade is indefinite and depends mainly on King Peter's course in the selection of his ministers and the terms of the inauguration of the new regime.

THE CONSISTORY

Probably the Last in the Reign of Pope Leo.

The New Cardinals who have recently been Appointed Receive Their Hats.

ROME, June 25.—The public consistory which was postponed from June 18, was held today with much pomp and circumstance and additional interest and reverence, for in spite of the reassembling news concerning the pope's health many persons believed that this would be the last consistory under Leo XIII. The assemblage framed at the venerable pontiff with intense curiosity and there was redoubled enthusiasm in the cries of "Long live Leo." He looked a little more wax-like, a little more moved by the news that he was somewhat thinner and it was evident that his attendants were anxious. There were many strangers among the crowds of people who gathered in the corridors of the papal palace for the witness the passage of the consistory. The pontiff was borne in the sedia curia by eight chair bearers, clad in bright red brocade. They were flanked by the bearers of the famous feathered fan.

The pope smiled while he blessed the crowds as he passed. In fact at times he tried to rise so as to better impart his benediction and it was only when he descended from his sedia that his extreme weakness was apparent.

Following the pontiff was a gorgeous line of scarlet clad cardinals and friars in various habits, priests and members of the papal court wearing velvet knee breeches and white ruffs. The church dignitaries were escorted by the noble Swiss and palatine guards, while the Sistine choir chanted solemnly.

Special tribunes were erected on both sides of the papal throne for the accommodation of the members of the diplomatic corps, the knights of Malta, the Roman aristocracy, the family of the pope and relatives of the newly seated cardinal.

ROTHESAY COLLEGE.
Closing Exercises Begin Today—A Partial List of Prize Winners.

The first day's sports in the closing exercises of the Rothesay college are being held this afternoon. Owing to the unfavorable weather and the dampness of the ground the contests are not so exciting as would otherwise be the case. The events booked for today are: Senior school half mile race, track; cricket ball, high jump and hammer throwing; middle school, 440 yards race and throwing cricket ball; junior school, throwing cricket ball and 220 yards race. It will be impossible to determine the prize winners in the athletic events until after the conclusion of tomorrow's sports, and the winners in the schoolship branches have not yet all been settled. Those already known are as follows: Scholarships, 4th form, A—H. O. Barnaby, St. John; Calvin McLean, Chipman; Harold Peters, St. John.

4th form B—R. Crombie, Chatham; Charles Barnhill, Westfield; John Learmont, Truro.

3rd form A—Kingdon Jones, St. John; James Adams, St. John; Edward Donville, Rothesay; Bruce Buckfield, Hartford.

The gold medal for general proficiency is awarded to H. O. Barnaby and the silver medal to Kingdon Jones. Between Barnaby and Calvin McLean there has been close competition. In last year's examinations there was a difference of less than one per cent, and this year Barnaby leads by a very narrow margin.

The fairweather memorial prize for exemplary conduct is won by William Crombie.

Scripture prizes are awarded to H. O. Barnaby, Edward Donville, and Heber Daniel of Rothesay. It was found in music the winners are John McSweeney of Moncton and Rudolph DesBrisay, of Bathurst.

POOR CHICAGO.

The Troubles Come Thicker and Fast—Now it is the Garment Workers.

CHICAGO, June 25.—Fifteen thousand garment workers of Chicago were served by the National Association of Wholesale Clothing Merchants yesterday with an ultimatum which almost amounts to notice of a lock-out. The effect of the ultimatum remains to be determined within the next two weeks. Lack of concerted action among the garment workers is responsible for the positive stand taken by the employers. The garment workers have demanded increases in wages amounting to 15 per cent. Repeated conferences have brought about a reduction of these demands until they amount to but little more than 10 per cent, but still the situation remains unsettled. Now the manufacturers have determined to force the issue. The ultimatum of yesterday leaves it to the garment workers to decide whether they will appoint a committee empowered to settle the whole question, whether they will be satisfied with five per cent. of wages, or whether they will leave the whole matter to a board of arbitration.

HE SLEPT TOO LONG.

A Carleton Clergyman nearly missed the chance of making Two Hearts Happy.

There was a wedding in Carleton yesterday which narrowly escaped being postponed, but which by the record breaking speed shown by the should-be officiating clergyman was luckily carried through.

The ceremony was to take place in church and the minister had been given due notice, but the best laid plans of mice and men, etc., and ministers are just as fond of sleeping as are other men. This one was at any rate and his extra forty winks created dismay in the hearts of the wedding party.

The bride and groom, with attendant friends and relatives went to the church. At the appointed instant they appeared in front of the altar and in the happy silence that for an instant followed, they waited expectantly for the entrance of the minister from its vestry door. But he didn't come and the interval lengthened out until on more than one face was seen signs of anxiety. Some one said that the clergyman was in the vestry but this was a false alarm. He was nowhere in the church and the search only resulted in a waste of precious minutes. A messenger was then hurriedly despatched to the home of him who was wanted, and here, sleeping the sleep of the just, was the absent-minded minister.

In exactly seven minutes from the time the first word awoke him, he commenced the marriage service. Taking everything into consideration this is a wonderful record and has called forth the admiration of many.

The bride and groom caught their train and went away happy.

JOHN H. STONE.
The Brave Young Brakeman's Leg Was Amputated Today.

At the General Public Hospital this morning Dr. Skinner and James Christie operated upon John H. Stone, the young man who was so terribly injured in the I. C. R. yard last evening. The crushed limb was amputated, but the injuries were so few up that it was found necessary to remove about two thirds of the thigh. The doctors who performed the operation are loud in their praises of the bravery shown by young Stone. The operation was the only possible chance of saving his life and they say he came through it admirably. It was feared that owing to the shock and weakness, he might die on the operating table, but what the prospects for his recovery are by no means good there is now a slight hope.

The hospital staff who assisted in the operation say that Stone is the bravest patient they have ever seen in the institution and if well-observed and careful attention and nursing can assist him in recovery he is going to have everything possible done for him.

GOING TO EUROPE.
W. S. Fisher leaves this evening on a two month trip to Europe. He will first visit a number of the principal manufacturing cities in England and then join Mrs. and Miss Fisher, who are at present in Switzerland. Some time will be spent in visiting different countries before returning to St. John. Miss Fisher has been studying in Switzerland for the past year and Mrs. Fisher went on to meet her about a month ago.

THE FISH MARKET.
The supply of fish on the local market is better now than it has been for some time. While the demand for salmon is good the supply is also fair, and the same is true of mackerel and haddock. The dogfish which is working havoc on the Nova Scotian coast, has not yet appeared here. Local market quotations remain unchanged.

The City Laborers' Union will hold a meeting this evening in Berryman's hall, for business of importance which will come up. The Street Railway Company will begin work next week on the extension work and will pay their men $1.50 per day. The city laborers receive only $1.25, and this subject will probably be discussed.

Father and Son BOTH CURED OF KIDNEY TROUBLE BY

Doan's Kidney Pills.

Mr. Benjamin Brooks, a well-known farmer of West Cape, P.E.I., tells of how his son was cured of Kidney Disease, and how he was cured of Backache.

The First Sign of Kidney Trouble. He says: "Our little boy was troubled with kidney disease. We had tried many kinds of kidney pills but they only helped for a time. We got Doan's Kidney Pills and one box effected a perfect cure. About six weeks after this I caught a very bad cold that settled in my kidneys. My back was so sore I could hardly walk. I went to the drug store and got a box, took them according to directions and the result was that my back was completely cured. I believe they are the best kidney pill on the market to-day."

There is not a kidney trouble from Backache to Bright's Disease that Doan's Kidney Pills will not relieve or cure. The price is 50 cts. per box, or 3 boxes for $1.25 and may be procured at all dealers or from THE DOAN KIDNEY PILL CO., TORONTO, ONT.
