SPORTING MATTERS.

HOCKEY.

A CHALLENGE FROM SUSSEX.

SUSSEX, N. B., March 5.—The Sussex Beavers challenge the St. John High School hockey team or any team in the city whose members are not over seventeen years of age, to a game of hockey to be played in the Sussex rink on any date that may be agreed on. All communications to be addressed to F. L. White, Sussex.

THE FIRST GAME.

The Marlboroughs will play the first game of the series which will decide who is to have possession of the N. B. Hockey League trophy, at Margville on Friday night. The arrangements were made yesterday by Manager Donald and a representative of the Margville team.

DOUBLE HEADER TONIGHT.

In the try league there will be a double header tonight. The Bankers will play the Beavers and the St. Josephs will meet the Marlboroughs.

AT SACKVILLE.

SACKVILLE, N. B., March 5.—In what was probably the best game of hockey seen here this winter, Amherst tied with Sackville tonight, the score being 3 to 3. The game was swift from start to finish and for the most part clean, though there were some objectionable features. In the first half, Amherst scored 2, Sackville 0, Twaddle and Currie doing the trick for the visitors. Knapp of Sackville went to the boards for three minutes for slashing, while Currie of Amherst got five minutes for a similar offense.

Shipping Notes.

LONDON, March 5.—Str. Dakota, Franch, from Seattle, went ashore in Bay of Tokyo last night. All passengers are safe and agents of vessel are hopeful of saving the steamer.

Str. Vanderland, Ehoff, from Antwerp for New York, is ashore on Goodwin Sands.

Str. Devona, Murray, from Portland for London, went ashore on Goodwin Sands during a fog, but afterward floated and proceeded.

During a fog off Beachy Head today str. Rapallo, from Baltimore for Hamburg, ran down Danish bark, Thetis, the crew of which was rescued.

CHATHAM, Mass., March 2.—Wrecking tugs moved stranded str. Onondaga 150 feet from beach.

VINEYARD HAVEN, Mass., March 3.—Str. M. D. S., from Halifax for New York, being reported here with loss of anchors and looking as if she had struck.

During a fog off Beachy Head today vessel will proceed first favorable wind.

Sch. J. W. Walling, before reported here leaking, left this morning for Salem in tow of tug Neponset.

The heavy westerly wind yesterday took all the ice out of Vineyard Haven harbor and none could be seen today from here on Nantucket Island. All tags and barge having been detained here on account of ice, sailed this morning.

Str. Nantucket left this morning for land mails and provisions at Nantucket, this being her first trip to that island for ten days.

DOCKING HORSES' TAILS IS FORBIDDEN BY BILL.

Pennsylvania Humane Societies Prepare for Legislature, Law Preventing Practice.

HARRISBURG, Pa., March 5.—To prohibit all future docking of horses' tails and to enforce the registering of docked tails, a bill which is the object of a bill which will be presented to the legislature next week at the instance of the Federated Humane Societies of Pennsylvania.

For the last three days the Federation has been in session here. The title of the bill is drawn up as follows: "An act prohibiting the cutting of the bone or docking of horses' tails, or aiding, assisting or procuring the same to be done, requiring the registry of all cut or docked horses now in this Commonwealth; preventing the using of any unregistered cut or docked horse and providing a penalty for the violations of the provisions of this act; and authorizing policemen, constables or agents of any society for the prevention of cruelty to animals to take possession of any such horse upon view or by warrant of officers of any society for the prevention of cruelty to animals, and to impound the same, and to cause the same to be sold, and to cause the proceeds of the sale to be paid to the humane society for the prevention of cruelty to animals, and to cause the same to be sold, and to cause the proceeds of the sale to be paid to the humane society for the prevention of cruelty to animals."

It is contemplated that the provisions shall go into effect ninety days after passage. Thirty days after the date of passage, if a horse is found with a cut tail unhealed, it will be prima facie evidence that its owner has violated the law, and he will be liable to its penalties.

Registration must be before a probatory and a fee of fifty cents charged. A full description of the horse must be given and a certificate will be issued.

Driving an unregistered horse after ninety days will be a misdemeanor punishable by imprisonment not more than one year, and a fine not more than $200, or less than $100, payable to the borough city or county treasurer.

RESOLUTION OF CONDOLENCE.

To the Officers and Members of all Courts and Companion Courts of The Independent Order of Foresters in New Brunswick:

Moved by a deep sense of the great loss for our late distinguished chief, Dr. Cronhyatka, which has become essentially a part of the traditions and history of our Order, and profoundly animated by the grief which has followed the announcement of his death, and anticipating the desire to mark in some way, however inadequate it may be, appreciation of his self-denying and successful work now ended, it is recommended and requested that the Charter and Officers' Members of each Court in the jurisdiction of the High Court of New Brunswick be draped in suitable mourning for the term of three months—in addition to any further action which may be deemed desirable and fitting by the Courts respectively.

Faithfully and fraternally yours,
HARRY W. WOODS, H. C. R.
FRED W. EMMERSON, H. S.

GULLEN PROPERTY HAS BEEN SOLD.

The Gullen property adjoining the Royal Kennebecasis Yacht Club, at Millidgewville, and which at one time appeared likely to become the property of the club, has been sold to Fred Heans, Geo. A. Kimball, Geo. B. Heans and Harry Robinson. These gentlemen are all active members of the R. K. Y. C., and it is rumored the land will eventually become the property of the club, as it will be needed as a room for the rapidly increasing number of yachts in the fleet. The present yard room is hardly sufficient for the yachts already comprising the fleet, so an extension will be needed shortly. The club house would probably be removed, in case the club obtained this property.

In the meantime it is said the land will be used as a site for summer camps.

FINDS LOST HUSBAND AND CHARGES BIGAMY.

Woman Travels From Pennsylvania to New Orleans and Makes Discovery.

NEW ORLEANS, March 5.—Mrs. Joel D. Stover, who arrived here a few days ago, today preferred charges of bigamy against Joel D. Stover, who she alleges, is her husband. They were married, she says, at Lock Haven, Clinton County, Pa., February 7, 1889, by the Rev. M. J. Foster, a Methodist clergyman.

It is shown that on December 10, 1894, Stover was married to Mrs. Louise Keiffers in this city. Mrs. Stover No. 1 says she has several children by her marriage to Stover, all of whom are now residing in Pennsylvania.

After Stover left Pennsylvania, Mrs. Stover charges that he wrote her for years, but finally ceased to correspond, and she feared something and began to search, but discovered nothing. Recently some one informed her that she was married to another woman here.

LOCAL NEWS.

The family wash is never too large to be promptly attended to at Ungar's up-to-date laundry.

The linemen and instrument men of the N. B. Telephone Co. drove out to "Billy" Newcombe's last night and enjoyed a summer served in the best style of Host Newcombe. Afterwards there was some speech-making. A pleasant evening was spent.

George H. Barrett, the young Englishman who was captured by Detective Killen on Monday evening, and who is charged with having stolen a number of articles from Hampton, was sent back there yesterday in charge of a Kings county constable.

Those in need of boys' suits should read the advertisement of J. N. Harvey on page one of this issue. Certain suits in which of boys' 2 and 3 piece suits are being cleared regardless of cost. Read the ad. on page 1.

H. J. C. McIntyre, late accountant of the Bank of Nova Scotia at Sussex, has been appointed accountant of the branch at St. John and arrived in the city yesterday to take up his new duties. Mr. McIntyre was formerly teller of the branch here, having been transferred to Sussex about a year ago. W. S. Wilkinson, who has been acting accountant here, succeeds Mr. McIntyre as accountant at Sussex.

A horse owned and driven by Fred Carpenter ran away on City Road last evening. The sleigh was somewhat damaged, but Mr. Carpenter, who was thrown from it, escaped injury. The horse proceeded along City Road, up Stanley street, out Wright street and then past the horticultural gardens to the lake. Here it came in contact with a snowhooping party. It soon became stuck in the deep snow, and the snowhoopers were able to capture it. They brought it back to the city, and it was returned to Mr. Carpenter.

At St. David's Church last evening a lecture on Korea was delivered by Rev. A. A. Graham. Lantern slides were used to illustrate the discourse. The lecture was originally prepared by Rev. Dr. Griston, at present laboring in the Korean mission field. It dealt with the political, commercial and social conditions and possibilities of the Hermit Kingdom. Korea as a field for missionary effort was also discussed. The excellent views shown enabled the large number present to better understand the conditions described.

A fire, the origin of which seems a mystery, broke out in the home of James S. Whittaker, 34 Dorchester street, last night, shortly after eight o'clock. Mr. Whittaker's son, who was boxing with a friend upstairs, smelt smoke and rushed down to the next floor to find one of the bedrooms in flames. The alarm was rung in and the firemen were soon on the spot. The fire was confined practically to the room in which it started, although there will be considerable damage done by water. The contents of the bedroom were destroyed. The loss will probably be in the vicinity of $300, which is covered by insurance.

Among recent deaths of former provincials, were the following: In Dorchester, Feb. 27, Mrs. Susan J. Phillips, a widow of Richard J. Phillips, aged 73 years, formerly of St. John; in Cambridge, Mrs. Fred Allen, formerly Miss Obeline Corwin, of New Brunswick, in Newton, William E. Johnson, a native of St. Andrews, N. B.; in Lempster, N. H., Feb. 28, William Walsh, aged 106, native of St. Andrews, in this city, Feb. 28, Clarence Harby, formerly of Windsor, N. S., aged 45 years; in Lake Charles, La., Feb. 25, by accident, George E. Bokelman, native of Truro, N. S.; in Brookline, Feb. 25, Dr. Robert Provau, formerly of Fredericton.

Sale Positively Ends Saturday, March 9th

Hundreds of men are showing a keen appreciation of this Sale and buying liberally—some are buying for immediate use—others for next season's needs.

This Sale began last Thursday, and the volume of business has been growing larger every day.

Remember, it is the Oak Hall grade of Clothing that is being sold at such a substantial reduction—this means that you get reliable fabrics, accurate cutting, thorough tailoring and good style.

Every garment in the Sale was manufactured with the expectation that it would bring the full price—we can't reproduce the stock for anything like what we are willing to take for it now.
