New York Tribune, an Ex-Attache points out that there are few capitals in Europe where the national museums and galleries, as well as the palaces of the rulers are not adorned with works or art and with monuments that are held as trophies of victory. In fact, there are few celebrated art collections belonging either to the crown or the state which would not be lamentably depleted, and robbed, indeed, of their most precious treasures, were they to be forced to surrender all that had been taken in war, or as a fruit of the latter. No victorious commandate the first painting of the latter. No victorious commandate the first painting of the latter. MISCELLANEOUS.

The Oriental Store Restaurant has engaged Balloonist W. A. Meeker to make an ascent and parachute drop at a Harlem River park this evening got more than their money's worth. Meeker not only went up 2,000 feet, but when his parachute attachment failed to work he jabbed holes in the hot air bag and made a descent that startled the spectators. Missing a ducking by good luck the balloonist made a flying jump and landed himself on the Willis Avenue bridge practically unharmed. Relieved of his weight the half empty bag rose to the house tops and skimmed along for a mile in the Bronx, while crowds chased the drag ropes. Once the balloon settled enough to knock down a woman and cut a gash FOR SALE-Two lots in Carleton een Square, one on St. John street. 50 foot frontage, running back 100 feet.
