PROVINCIAL NEWS

ST. ANDREWS, N. B., Sept. 27.— Michael Cumming, by a fall in the cellar of his house recently, sustained a fracture of his hip bone. One of Sir William Van Horne's rhefted cows dropped a calf at the farm on Munster Island last Sunday. It bears the mark of the breed. A. R. McDonald, Mrs. McDonald and family, also Master Thompson, proceed to Montreal this evening. Mrs. Mc-Donald enjoyed her stay in this de-

Miss Edna Clinch, who has for some time past been organist in the Methodist church, was at the evening service on Sunday presented with a minacure set, as a recognition by the choir and members of the congregation of her guatuitous services.

Miss Clinch, who during the months the has been assistant to the post master here won the good will of all patrons, leaves today for Boston where she will take a course in a com-mercial college. Her place in the post office will be taken by her sister, Miss dist church last Sunday, Burt Clinch of Calais sang with great taste a solo, One Sweetly Solemn Thought, to an air composed by his sieter, Miss Edna Clinch. He, with Miss May H. Berrie and Miss Claudine Maloney, sang a

W. Young's yacht Nautilus is hauled ap for the winter.

An unknown man made himself very unpleasant to some ladies and girls in upper end of the town on Saturday evening. He followed one lady to her door and, when she attempted on the neck and ran away.

Two Militown sports were out to the main river back of Little Ridge on Friday after deer. They saw one swimming in the river and started after it in a boat. They fired several der the guns. So did the boat from under the men. They had to swim ashore and presented a rather sorry sight when they appeared at the camp

Marion Curran and Louise Murchle of Calais have sailed will attend an art school this winter. Mr. and Mrs. C. C. Grant, C. H. Clerke, W. B. Ganong, H. M. Bates, Mr. and Mrs. W. W. Brown and F. N. Davis will attend the yacht races in

New York. The Methodist, Baptist and Presbyday on Sunday last. In the Methodist school 306 attended, in the Baptist 215, and in the Presbyterian 110.

Kirby will exchange pulpits on Sunday

The thirty-fifth anniversary of the number of nets set on the spawning consecration of Christ church will be grounds of South Head, for violation observed with appropriate services on of the law prohibiting this work. It ited Calais yesterday.

The report that a vein of gold had been urearthed at the Hall nickel mine is not correct. It is copper, but little brighter than usual.

'The annual matches of the Char-

The post office department has shought fit to discontinue the post office at Upper Mill and hereafter the pendent upon the generosity of Uncle Sam for mail matter facilities through the office at Baring, across the river. Rev. Geo. M. Campbell was in town the vacant pastorate at Marysville. He returned tast evening and ad-dressed a meeting in the Methodist church held to advance the interests of the twentieth century thanksgiving

Jets to the lighting of their station relatform. They were needed. HOPEWELL HILL, Sept. 27.—The following officers of Golden Rule Division have been elected for the ensuing quarter: Herbert L. Brewster, W. P.; R. S.; Mary Archibald, A. R. S.; Fred G. Moore, F. S.; G. M. Peck, treas.; Mrs. Luther Archibald, chanlain: Alison Bishop, conductor; G. Warren Allen Mahar, O. S.; John M. Tingley, P. W. P.; Lois Peck, organist.

The marriage took place at Butte,

Montana, on Sepember 19th, of Tom B. Moore, M. D., son of Dr. P. R. Morre, formerly of this place, and Miss Ardean Bullard of Butte. bark W. W. McLaughlin, now at Annapolis, is visiting his home here.

Mrs. C. P. Keith, who has been spend-

SAVER

S.H.&M.

Bias Brush Edge Skirt Binding

the surt—makes it wear longer—the lible brush edge is woven with lons sides, the velveteen cut on bias is etween sides of head, making the tural Skirt-Fitting Curve—no other is smoothly fit the skirt, no other is loome, so dressy, so durable—Next ing a few weeks with relatives in this vicinity, left on Saturday for her ALBERT, N. B., Sept. 29.—The minister of railways and the premier of say the dominion contest will come a little later and that all will be arranged at the political picnic tomor-WOODSTOCK, N. B., Sept. 29.-The exhibition closed this evening after a very successful three days. The attendance yesterday was 3,000, and all together probably between five and six thousand persons took in the show. This evening there was a splendid dis Dennison, the American consul, who has in every possible way helped to make the entertainment a success.

New Brunswick, in a palace car, ac-companied Governor and Mrs. McClelan to Riverside today.

by another fire at the Globe Janndry, the third which has occurred there within a few weeks. As on other acslight, the flames being confined to a small portion of the roof of the building. A spark from the chimney is sup-

Wright for stealing a value from F. S. Williams' wagon the other night, and faloney, sang a of Mrs. O'Rhea for receiving some of beautiful hymn, the stolen goods contained in it, with h, the stolen goods contained in it, with knowledge of their having been sto-Mrs. William Burton goes by steam- len, was to have been commenced in today to Boston to visit friends the police court this morning. The who was arrested in connection with port the verandah of Kennedy's hotel. the theft and afterwards discharged, A cargo of hard coal is being discharged, but immediately after being sworn she ed from a schooner into W. D. Forgave such marked evidence of being ST. STEPHEN, N. B., Sept. 28 .- C. police magistrate refused to proceed with her examination.

> and Wright went it without counsel. HOPEWELL HILL, Sept. 29,-

> Dr. Chapman is in attendance. Hugh Nelson, who has been living in Springhill, is visiting his father, Geo. Blair, minister of railways, was the guest of Lieut. Governor McClelan at Riverside, today.

> GRAND MANAN, N. B., Sept. 26. Rev. Mr. Hunter, D. D., of Toronto rarish on the 24th inst., preaching in the Church of the Ascension, North Head, in the morning and St. Paul's Rev. Mr. Golmer of Gagetown preached at Grand Harbor in morning and at North Head in the

In the Free Baptist churches, Rev Mr. Noble and Licentiate Perry held services. The old and popular pastor, spiritual welfare of the Reformed Bap-

J. Sutton Clarke of St. George visited this island on the 23rd inst., and returned home on the 25th. He visited White Head Island while here and was the guest of Turner Ingalis.

has caused quite a little tempest in a teapot among the net fishermen. Herring are still reported scarce and the weirs and nets are taking but small catches. Line fishing is reported dull. The pollock are still pursuing the herrings and driving them from place to place. A weir will be found full of fine herrings, when the policik will raid it and in a few minutes not a herring is in sight. These fish are frequenting the in-shore waters in when chasing shrimps or herring can-not be taken by the line at all. The Adventists at Woodward's Cove a church edifice at that village. Grand Manan will soon be an island of churches and school houses, a commend-

The first ice of the season formed on the evening of the 23rd inst. On the evening of the 24th ice as thick as Nominations for county councillors from this parish are as follows: Capt. John A. Ingersoll, Turner Ingalls, sr.,

RICHIBUCTO, N. B., Sept. 28.- St Mary's church contained a large coa-gregation last evening to hear the ing on a trip to Chicago.—Dr. Fred W. Tozer, who had to give up his practice in May to go to the Montreal Gen-eral Hospital to have the bone of his leg treated, has resumed his work

The steamer Calluna went south today to look after illegal lobster fishing. SUSSEX, Sept. 29.—Ralph Freeze left Sussex today to do the freshman year at the New Brunswick Univer-sity. He is one of the three students marriage on Wednesday last, Hugh Doherty of Waterford and Miss Alice McManus of Chambers Settlement. The happy couple were made the recipients of many useful and costly tokens bip of the Centreville superion school; Miss Mary J. Heth-rington has the school at McDonald's Corner; Miss Maggie M. Briggs will take ber old school at Lakeview at the beginning of Occober; Miles F. McCutchcon, late from the normal school, has the school at Springfield, Kings Co.; Miss Gamblin is at Paradise, and Miss Robinson of the Narawak has the school at White's Point. cessfully removed a tumor from the person of Mrs. Edwin Hazen this af-

WELSFORD, Queens Co., Sept 22.— On Friday evening, Sept. 22nd, Welsford Loyal Orange lodge, No. 111, was organized by County Master John Corbit of Queens, west, assisted by other county lodge officers and a large contingent from various lodges. There was present a large number of brethren from Fairville, including P. C. M. McFarland of St. John Co., west, H. others, who rendered good assistance in conferring the different degrees. Orange, Purple and Blue. Hot coffee, cake, etc., were served. Five members were advanced to the Royal Arch dewhen the lodge was again opened and elected and installed the C. J. Soule, W. M.; J. A. Fow-G. H. Scribner, Chap.; R. Pier, F. Sec.; C. W. Woods, Treas.; Steen Scott, D.

in this portion of the country.

The Presbyterian Sabbath school of Strathadam held their annual pionic on the premises of John Morrison, near the river's bank. In the long ago the Queen's highway ran along this bank, and there are beautiful groves of trees growing there, making a lovely playground for the children, who enjoyed themselves playing games, swinging and running races, Mr. Mc-

NORTHESK, Northumberland Co.

Colom giving prizes to the swiftest runners. Mr. Mann's house being near at hand, the people flocked into it. Many thanks are due Mr. Mann for his kind assistance and the use of vas given Mr. Menzies, the superintendent. Mr. Mann and Mr. McColm.

The Sons of Temperance held a social in the Union hall, Whitneyville, on Saturday evening, the 17th, to which a number of friends were in-Edie McLean of Newcastle. Miss Bessie Whitney of Whitney-ville is visiting her sister, Mrs. James Sept. 27.-Isaac Sheasgreen of South Esk is very ill with pneumonia. Dr. Desmond is in attendance. Dr. Tozier has gone to Kingston egin work again. George Rae, clerk with Messrs. Snowball at Chatham, is home on a short visit to his parents in Strath-

Mrs. Jane Whitney, relict of the late Edward Whitney, died suddenly at her home in Whitneyville on the 22nd, of hemorrhage. She had been ill for some time, but the doctor had good hopes of her recovery. Mrs. Whitney leaves two brothers and three sisters, ber of step-children, she being Mr. Whitney's third wife. Much sympathy is felt for the family in their afflic-On the evening of the 22nd instant, tion. Her remains were laid beside Fishery Officer W. A. Fraser seized a her late husband's in the Presbyterian J. D. Murray, officiated. Mrs. Whitand will be much missed by her friends.

spending the summer with Mrs. Jessie McKay, became the happy mother of a fine young son last week.

John Hamilton of Northesk were married recently at the residence of Mrs. Dunnett, mother of the bride, only the immediate friends being pre-sent. The bride looked very pretty in a becoming toilet. Rev. Mr. Mur-ray performed the ceremony, after young couple a happy and prosperous some very happy events lately. On the 14th, Miss Alice Kane and Lester E. Johnson of Northesk were united Abiguil Matchett and George H. Howe were married. At the same place, on the 18th, Rev. Mr. Murray made happy Mullin, both of Northesk. On the same day, at the same place. Miss Bessie Mullin and Welford Astle of Derby were made one. We wish them all every success in life.

gregation last evening to hear the Rev. J. de Soyres of St. John deliver a thanksgiving sermon. The church was beautifully decorated and the special music by the choir was excellent. The offering in aid of the church amounted to $53.

The steamer Bentala sailed last night for Liverpool. She carried away eleven hundred and sixty standards of deals. Her freight amounted to $15,000.

Ri O'Leary and wife left this morning on a trip to Chicago.—Dr. Fred W.

substance to day to do the freeshman year at the New Brunswick University. He is one of the three students who ted the province and made first division in the July examinations.

A good deal of hard work has been done to bring the Sussex schools to their present good condition. A new building, with modern improvements, will be required in the near future.

Rev. Mr. Camp, pastor of the Church avenue Baptist church, will leave on a well earned vacation to Boston after Sunday next. On Sunday last Mr. Camp preached a special sermon in the church on Ward's Creek road, when $64 was collected to be applied to repairs on the church.

Rev. A. M. Hubley, rector of the Reformed Episcopal church here, has been invited, through the committee on ministers, to assist President McKinley in the ceremonies of laying the corner stone of the government building of the city of Chicago. Mr. Habley will be unable to attend.

Seth Jones, the proprietor of the Sussex poultry yard, returned from Hakfax today, where he had been attending the exhibition as one of the judges of poultry.

Rev. Fr. Savage, P. P., united in

A. Campbell, the former tives of the parish, have been re-elec-ted by acclamation. In Stanley a very vid Merrill and Robert Fairley are opng Bernard McMinneman and Charles Pond. W. T. Howe, ex-M. P. P., all the candidates, Coun. John

Sept. 29.-John S. Pond and William

chey and Coun. Campbell of Ludlow addressed a large and representative gathering of electors at Bloomand a large quantity of grain is already on hand, awaiting the comment of operations.

Jas. D. MacMillan, manager for T. Lynch, lumber merchant, has gone on a business trip to Halifax, Mrs. Robb and son, Bruce, have been visiting Ina F. Mersereau of Doaktown has been visiting friends in this place. The Misses Murphy, who have been

RICHIBUCTO, N. B., Sept. 30 .- The case of Babineau v. Babain, a dispute over boundary lines, was concluded in a verdict for defendant. J. D. Phinney and W. D. Carter for plaintiff; Geo. V. McInerney for de-

The case of John Stevenson v. J. W. Black, for trespass, was opened yes-terday morning. This arose in conago by defendant. There was an error in the deed which gave the starting point as the northwestern corner of the property, instead of the northeastern. The jury gave a verdict for plaintiff, assessing the damages at thirty-seven dollars and fifty cents. J. D. Phinney and W. D. Carter for plaintiff; D. Grant of Mcncton for defendant. The court adjourned to-

MARYSVILLE, York Co., Sept. 29.-Mrs. Waycotte, widow of the late E. S. Waycotte, who died one year ago Sons, and who has since made her home in Marysville, has moved with her family of four children to Freder icton, where she intends to reside in the future. Mrs. Waycotte will be much missed in religious work here. Her aunt, Mrs. Yandall, an aged lady, accompanied her to Fredericton. Mrs. David Burpee of Sheffield and Mrs. Charles Turney of Swan Creek, spent Tuesday in town, calling upon The Seventh-day Adventists have moved out of their tent and taken up quarters in the Marysville hall.

lting her brother at the residence of Joseph Robinson. Mr. and Mrs. William Alexander are

MASONIC.

Order of Red Cross of Rome and Constantine.

Twenty-third Annual Convention of Supreme Grand Chapter of the

The Order of the Red Cross of Rome and Constantine is now making rapid progress in the adjoining republic. The Macleod-Moore Conclave of this order of this city is not so active as in former years. It is, however the premier Conclave of America. The following will be read with interest by members of the higher grades

The twenty-third annual convention of the Supreme Grand Chapter of the Grand Cross of Constantine of the United States of America was held at the Hotel Walton, in this city, on present were: General John Corson Smith, 33 deg., of Illinois, Grand Sovereign; Josiah H. Drummond, 33 deg., of Maine, Grand Viceroy; Gilbert W. Barnard, 33 deg., and Sylvester O. Spring, 33 deg., of Illinois; Hugh Mc-Curdy, 33 deg., D. Burnham Tracy, 33 Curdy, 33 deg., D. Burnham Fracy, as deg., Alfred E. Meigs, 33 deg., and William Haste, 33 deg., of Michigan; Marquis F. King, 33 deg., Millard F. Hicks, 33 deg., and Edward P. Burnham, 33 deg., of Maine; Benjamin W. Rowell, 33 deg., of Massachusetts; George O. Tyler, 33 deg., and Marsh O. Perkins, 33 deg., of Vermont: Thos. A. McKillip, 33 deg., and Charles K. Francis, 33 deg., of Pennsylvania. The Grand Sovereign, in his annual address, referred to his trip to Europe a few months since, and stated that his visits to England and Scotland were exceedingly gratifying, and that he had been entertained most royally by the Earl of Euston, 33 deg., Grand Sovereign of the Grand Imperial Coun-icil of England; Sir Knight James Dalrymple Duncan, Grand Sovereign of the Grand Imperial Council of Scotland; Sir Knight William J. Hughan, and others. He announced that com-missions had been issued to the Earl of Euston, 33 deg., as Grand Repre-sentative near the Grand Imperial Council of England, and to Sir Knight Representative near the Grand Imperial Council of Scotland; and also that Josiah H. Drummond, 33 deg., and Charles K. Francis, 33 deg., had been commissioned Grand Representa-tives near the Supreme Grand Chapter of the Grand Imperial Councils of England and Scotland, respectively. The address paid a fitting tribute to the memory of the late Earl of Lathom, 33 deg., who preceded the Earl of Euston, 33 deg., as Grand Sovereign of the Grand Imperial Council of England. Mention was made of the der, under the jurisdiction of the Grand Imperial Council of Illinois, at Jacksonville, Ill., Kansas City, Mo., and Duluth, Minn. While in London, Grand Imperial Council of Hilnois, at Jacksonville, Ill., Kansas City, Me., and Duluth, Minn. While in London, General Smith attended a meeting of the Great Priory of England (Knights the Great Pr

Scythes. Scythes.

We have just received a large stock of The American Axe Tool Company's Celebrated Scythes; also American Hay Rakes.

> We also have a large stock of Driving and Working Harness, which we are offering at very low prices. Everything supplied for the Horse at low prices.

H. HORTON & SON 11 Market Square, St. John, N. B.

Our Store will close on Saturday at 1 P. M. during June, July and August.

remplar), when the Earl of Euston (Supreme Grand Master) conferred upon him the rank of Grand Com-mander of the lemple, and presented nim with its appropriate jewel.

The Supreme Grand Chapter elected as active members John Jay Gilroy, 33 deg., of Pennsylvania; Trevanion W. Hugo, 33 deg., of Minnesota, and William F. Kuhn of Missouri, and as honorary members the Earl of Euston, 33 deg., of England; Sir Knight James Dalrymple Duncan of Scotland, and Daniel Fraser Macwatt, 33 deg., of the fellowing Sir Knights of the order expressing regrat at their inability to be present: Francis A. Blades, 33 deg., of Michigan; George W. Warvelle, 33 deg., of Illinois; Frederick S. Fisher, 33 deg., of New York; Frederick Webber, 33 deg., of Washington, D. C.; Charles H. Heaton, 38 deg., and Silas W. Cummings, 33 deg., of Vermont. The next annual convention will be held in September, 1900, at Boston, Mess.

ACCIDENT AT NAPPAN.

Edwin Ripley Jumped from a Fast Moving Train and Was Killed.

AMHERST, N. S., Oct. 1.-A young man by the name of Edwin Ripley, employed with David Bacon at Nappan, while returning from Amherst on the Moncton and Springhill accommowhile passing Nappan about 12 o'clock last night. His companions went on to Athol, returning to Nappan in the found under the platform, with a terrible gash back of his ear. Dr. Cameron was summoned from Maccan, but the unfortunate young man only lived half an hour after the doctor arrived. His remains were removed to the house of his employer and Coroner cating with the I. C. R. authorities, decided to hold an inquest tomorrow af-

Deceased is the only son of Mrs.Lucy Gaetz of Minudie. It is understood he held a policy for $2,000 in the New

KINGSTON, Ja., Sept. 29.—The offi-cial inquiry of the marine board into the foundering, Sept. 25, off Port Morant, on the south coast of Jamaica, of the Atlas Steamship Company's the Atlas Steamship Company's steamer Adula, Captain McAuley, from Kingston for Baltimore, levelops

According to the uniform testimony of the captain and other survivors, the Adula went right until the steam gear gineer could discover no obstacle, but the machinery would not work. Hand gear was rigged, but in the meantime and holds. No one can explain whence it came, but the crisis arose from the bursting of a water ballast tank. This occurred just as the captain had signalled to go ahead, after fixing the gear. The ship listed to starboard, whither she had inclined previously, and rapidly turned, sinking within

The marine boards calls upon the governor to appoint a judge and :wo nautical assessors to hold a special in-

REMINISCENCES OF DEAN*

(Washington Post.)
When the late Dean Vaughan of Liandaff was head master of Harrow he invited several colored university men and clergymen to dine with him. of the expected guests had turned up, and after a bit Mrs. Vaughan, who was waiting in the drawing-room, mentioned to the butler that it seemed

"Yes, ma'am," said that worthy, "and what's odder still, I've done noth-ing all the evening but turn Christy els away from the door." While at Harrow the dean was returning late one evening when he caught sight of a boy who ought to have been fast asleep in bed. As soon as the boy saw the dreaded figure he ran for dear life, with Dr. Vaughan in hot pursuit. He succeeded in catching the boy by one of his coat tails, when there was a sudden wrench and the youngster was off again, leaving a coat tail in the head's hands. The master made sure that he would find out the culprit next morning, and did not pursue further. But next day, to his blank astonishment, every boy of the sixth form had only one tail to his coat.

CANOTHER ON IRELAND. (New York Commercial Advertiser.)
Sir Thomas Lipton is himself authority for a story that relates to his experience on the Shamrock when lying in Southampton water. Observing 2 quarotte of bargemen rowing their climsy craft in perilous proximity to the yacht's delicate sides, he called out pleasantly: "Hi, my men! Keep away a bit, will you?" One of the bargemen ceased rowing and eyed the cup challenger critically: "Wot do ye call that 'ere thing you're on?" he demanded. "This," replied Sir Thomas, courteously, 'Is the yacht Shamrock." "Bill." snifted the Largee, turning to his neighbor on the next thwart, "'e calls 'er the Shamrock. Another bloomia' hinjustica to Ireland."

P. E. ISLAND.

New Winter Steamer Minto Has Gone to Sable Island.

A Charlottetown Athlete Wins High Honors at Victoria and Vancouver General News.

CHARLOTTETOWN. P. E. I., Sept. 29.—
James Chandler, Hazelbrook, was seriously hurt Tuesday by falling from a load of lumber. He was un onscious for some time.

At the annual prize meeting of the Queen's County Rifie Association on Kensington range, Wednesday, Major Davidson, Captain Hooper, Lt. Moore, Lt. A. Shaw and Sergt. Moore made a possible each.

The kiln in connection with Geo. Easter's grist mill at Clark's mills was burned about 1.30 yesterday norning. Nearly 100 bushels of oats as well as other contents of lesser value were destroyed. Mr. Easter's loss is about $400; no insurance.

Thomas Tweedy, one of Vernon River's elderly residents, fell on the corner of a cleaner a few days ago while engaged athreshing. A number of his ribs were broken and the lining of one lung was injured. It is feared that the accident may result fatally.

Frank Hayden, who was called from Vancouver to his old home in Charlottetown by the death of his wife, has presented to the provincial library a piece of quartz in which gleams a large nugget of gold, taken from a mine in Mt. Baker, Washington.

Peter and Mrs. Warren, North River, have gone to Portland, Me., to spend the winter with their daughter, Mrs. Charles Howatt. Mrs. Howatt was formerly on the bisiness staff of the Summerside Journal.

Mrs. Martin, wife of Edward Martin, baggage master, P. E. Island railway, died very suddenly Tuesday evening.

The Foresters of Crapaud and Tryon have crganized a literary society for the benefit of the community. Rev. Geo. C. Robertson will deliver a lecture Monday evening before this society.

Miss de Prazer, M. D., of India, is addressing meetings in several of the Baptist churches in this province.

J. P. Hood, of the Guardian, and Mrs. Thomas McEwen, an employe in the Tryon woollen mills, had one of his arms horribly lazerated a few days ago. The sleeve of his coat caught between two cog wheels, with 'he above result.

William Flood, an antive of Charlottetown, and well known among St. John hockyists, is distinguishing himself in a

William Flood, a native of Charlottetown, and well known among St. John hockyists, is distinguishing himself in athletic circles in British Columbia. He won first prize in Victoria for putting the shot 35 feet 10 inches, and tied for second position in the high jump. He also took first place in Vancouver in the hop, step and jump; first in the high jump, and second in the 190 yards dash. While in Charlottetown, Flood was captain of the Abegweit hockey team.

The four-year-old son of W. H. Deighan, Emerald, had one of his legs broken above the knee this week. The little fellow fell in front of a truck wagon laden with grain and one of the wheels passed over his leg. George H. Ridden has disposed of his famous trotter, Montrose, 2.20%, to A. N. Large, Charlottetown. While attending tue St. John exhibition, P. S. Brown, proprietor of the Revere hotel, disposed of his fancy chestnut mare to R. P. Hoyt, Moncton, getting in part payment a three-year-old driver from the well known Sanborn line of horses. R. M. Johnson is a sister of J. L. Lewis of the Bank of Nova Scotia at St. John.

The number of Island students at McGill this year is larger than was a first supposed, there being 45 in attendance from this province.

Rev. J. M. McLeod, New Mills, N. B., preached two thoughtful sermons to large and appreciative audiences in Zion church, Sunday.

Oliver Murray, Kingston, aged 20 years, and David Gillis, Indian River, aged 18 preached two thoughtful sermons to large and appreciative audiences in Zion church, Sunday.

Oliver Murray, Kingston, aged 20 years, and David Gillis, Indian River, aged 18 years, both died very suddenly a few days ago. The former died from lung trouble, the latter from meningitis.

There are no hake on the rorth side at present and the fishermen are preparing for full codfish, which will soon put in an appearance. They come in pursuit of the capelin, which are now arriving on our shores in immense numbers and force their way into our rivers and ponds, where they spend the winter. Hake commands a better price here this fall than for several years.

Charles H. Jenkins and Robert Lloyd have returned from Boston on a two weeks' vacation. Mr. Jenkins has gained 75 lbs. in weight during his six years' residence in the "hub." and now tips the scales at 228 lbs.

J. J. Hughes of Souris was chosen at the liberal convention at Dundas, Tuesday, to contest Kings county in the liberal interests in the next dominion election.

R. J. Stewart has organized a new lodge of the Canadian order of Foresters at Hunter River. The following are the officers: J. P. C. R., J. M. Nicholson; C. R., G. S. McLeod; F. C. R., G. W. Bagnall; R. S., H. S. Bagnall; F. S., R. D. Bell; Treas, James McPherson; Cond., J. N. Craswell; S. W., J. H. A. Sillinhant; J. W., J., Fred Waye; J. B., J. Wonnacott; Ex Physician, Dr. Douglas.

Since coming to the island, Mr. Stewart has organized three courts, with a total membership of 66 He is now in Souris, endeavoring to organize a court in that village.

The Abegweit football team have completed membership of the He is now in Sourise medeavoring to organize a court in that village.

The Abegweit football team have completed arrangements to go to Halifax, where they will play the Wanderers and Dalhousie teams. The games will be played on October list and November 1st.

Sheriff Gafiney of Summerside is still in a feeble state of health. His son Wilfield, who 's practising law in Boston, has returned to the 'hub,' after a visit to the island. Rev. Leo Williams of St. Paul's church, Halifax, has signified his intention of accepting the invitation to the rectorship of St. Paul's church, Charlottetown, made vacant by the resignation of Rev. J. T. Bryan. At a meeting of the ladies' aid of the P. E. Islund hospital, held recently, the following officers were elected for the ensuing year: President, Mrs. James McLeed; vice presidents, Mrs. T. W. Dodd, Mrs. B. Rogers, Mrs. George Full, Mrs. Geo. Bremner, Mrs. Dawn, Mrs. A. Lord, Mrs. Geo. Hudson, Mrs. McCready; sec. treasurer, Miss. Lowden.

About fifty men and twenty-five Sydney.

J. M. Clarke has secured the contract for building an addition of forty feet to the Summerside skating ink.

St. Dunstan's College Athletic Association has been reorganized, with the following of-incers: President, Rev. P. C. Gauthier; vice, president, J. J. McGowan; sec. treasurer, Thos. H. Trainor; committee, George Roy, Kenneth McPherson, Joseph Kavenay and Alfred Laliberte.

Children Cry for

From the Three Mil

NEW

conquero barbaric or prince ful war ficent over Dewey to of the Ol nificent f with peo broad pa whose ba wind. At the on River tribute warrior guns. T of craft dened w if they got back Toward disorgan heteoge for six h ments c New 1 fore any derful, r Columbia tion of tion of last fall, morning

without

is not 1

three quarter New Yo burned bathed gusty e breeze. The b ative The ve harbor framew roam. returne wig-wa the fleet master bunting the call were m signal to spread o Farragu New O broke. marines it with ly all the is the m ragut's Monday > with a move. after-br the par against afloat a bridge Bartlett, when he salvos e tention everythi repeated but he The Grant's many p the Olyr boats, lo til all t view be low bear

it is alt

Dewey

fleet. It was with al Manila sailor. the Chic signal fi fleet to the mer signal fi their to tifully flagship in the b a vexat