PROGRESS, SATURDAY, JULY 19.

have no shad.

save souls while shad are scarce. The Old Martin's Wish.

An angel came to Martin once And said : "The world has much To charm the eye, the ear, And taste and touch;

If thou wert asked to make a choice

Genial and Affable Ways of a Ray Specimen of a Handmaiden.

She was a recently caught specimen of the genus servant girl from way-back, and she was so very underdone that she might, without exaggeration, be termed "raw,"

but she was a cheerful soul, and withal, so thoroughly convinced of her own perfect equality, with not to say superiority to her employers, that it was an even question whether she kept the house, and they lived with her, or whether they kept the house, and she was an honored guest. Remon strance was useless, and reproofs rolled off the surface of her matchless self-esteem, BILDAD.

Berond cor

Old Martin was a plous man, He knew a thing or two Of forty-fives and poker, Old sledge and loo.

of the St. Lawrence,-to both of which re- ITS GLORY IS THE SHAD. shad which he has purchased and he will BY THE SOUNDING SEA.

SONGS WHICH COME FROM THE BILLOWY REALM OF WAVES.

One Whose Spirit Has Gone Abroad Over the Wayes-Music That is as Bright and Breezy as the Ocean-Some Enchanted Places by the Shore.

This great and wide sea, whe

Since the time of his song,—deep and strong as ocean, and tull of its resonant melody,—who has made us familiar with the voyages of Ulysses, and sent us in thought to wander with the "repulsed" and "sacred sire," and listen to the shore's udible chime; or, since that of his, who lit up to the eye of our fancy the "laughter of innumerable waves,"-"the many-twinkling smile of ocean,"-this moving abode of things beautiful and terrible has been to the poets a love, and a never-failing source of inspiration; while with just as much of gusto as had the earlier bards, will Browning sing,—"Over the seas our gal-leys went;" and Tennyson, in the very spirit of the ancient Greek, put forth his prow of song :

There lies the port; the vessel puffs her sail; There gloom the dark, broad seas The lights begin to twinkle from the rocks; The long day wanes; the slow moon climbs; the deep Moans round with many voices. Come, my friends, 'Tis not too late to seek a newer world. Pash oft, and sitting well in order smite The sounding furrows; for the purpose holds To sail beyond the sunset, and the baths of all the western stars, until I die.

I, too, love the sight and the sound of this "green-girdled mother;" and, coming near her, from my inland home, like th ancients on their approach. I, too, feel my heart leaping up within me, and am "Thalassa ! Thalassa ! All fain to cry,-"Thalassa! Thalassa! All hail to thee, thou eternal! all hail to thee, learn a thousand times from my jubilant heart greet thee !"* I have exulted again and again in the spirit of Byron's apostrophe, and the passion of the young Renfree hard : + for though I was born upon the shore, and have been confined there, yet has my spirit gone abroad over the waves. and my youth was reared to their musical speech. "Like the language of home, their accents whisper to me. Like the dreams of my childhood, I see the sun's sings : glimmer over the billowy realm of waves, and they repeat to me anew olden mem-ories."* As I read Swinburne, I fancy him about to take a leap from some English headland into the yielding lap of the great mother of his invocation, crying, as er spray flies over him : "I will go down to thee, close with thee, kiss thee and mix thee with me." But this is the very wantonness of that passion which all her lovers have felt. My gentle John Reade, who has all the soul, and much of the art, of the poet, shares that rapture with the fraternity In my car is the moan of the pines—in my heart is the song of the sea, And I feel his salt breath on my face as he showers

And I feel his sait breath on my face as he showers his kisses on me; And I hear the wild scream of the gulls, as they answer the call of the tide, And I watch the fair sails as they glisten like gems on the breast of a bride.

That passion is in Dibdin's sailor songs nghame's-"A Wet Sheet and a in Cunn Flowing Sea;" in Barry Cornwall's celebrated lyric of longing for the joyous freshness and freedom of the wavy world; but here is a ballad, as full of life and movement, and to the full as bright and breezy, as if the name of the gifted author ‡ had flown on all the wind that blow. I know her, and know that every nerve is a lute string, and that the inmost soul of her sings :

WEIGHING ANCHOR. Ho! boys, for the sea, Down, boys, to the star Down, boys, to the star The wind is fair, the storm is o'er, And joy awakes our hearts once more, For naught can harm us, off the shore— Ha-ho! ha-ho! ho!

Ho! boys, for the sea, Down, boys, to the sea; Our penants flash from shade to shine, As brave as gulls, as bright as wine Outpour'd by Circean hand divine— Ha.ho! ha.ho! ho!

Listen alone beside the sea, Listen alone among the woods. Those voices of twin solitudes Shall have one sound alike to thee Hark where the murmurs of thronged men Surge and sink back and surge again,— Still the one voice of wave and tree. Ho! boys, for the sea, sorts of river and ocean I have pleasant bidding. Is not Gananoque all the better HOPEWELL CAPE APPEARS that it can have a poetess§ to sing of it, and not Casco the fairer, to the generous eye,

BARCAROLLE.

Away! away! The snowy spray

Beside our boat is glancing; She knows her home is on the toam, Where wave with wave is dancing, Bird-like and free, she skims the sea,

As if in native ether, While bright and blue, as sapphire hue,

Away! sway! our hearts are gay As if earth knew no sorrow, And we will laugh, though we may quaff The cup of grief tomorrow. And our light song shall yeal along Above the willing surfer

She loves the streets that were trodder

Above the rolling azure, And every gaile that swells our sail Shall echo back its measure.

The beauty and mystery of the ships And the magic of the sea.

You go to seek the summer sea, And I to seek the mountains; For you the wash of waves; for mo The play and plash of fountains.

For you the long and sandy beach, The sail at distance slanted :

The sail at distance slanted; For mo the hills that calmly reach, And valleys shadow,hauster

A pain is in its samenese, When underneath an azure wide Its vastness has a tameness.

There may be here and there a bluff

Give me the strong and rugged lines Of summits rising starkly, And maples in green belts, and pines About them growing darkly!

To break the shining levels; But one or two are not enough; The eye on nothing revels.

I know the rise and set of sun

The hint of new emotion

Will change the face of occan, And now and then will o'er it run

But oh! it seems a mask to me To that which ever changes, Which twice alike we may not see-The face of mountain ranges.

For you the dull, monotonous sound

Of waves forever swinging; For me, from many a wood around, The thrush's sweetest singing.

The tinkle of some winding bell

That comes within the hearing, It may be from some bosky dell,

Or from some grassy clearing and the sea are in sympathy and akin.

I find no charm the sea beside;

The wild waves heave beneath he over the breezy harbor:

to say .- "I wish I could give you any idea of The Many Things for which It is Noted-What Evolution Has Done for the Place -A Frenzy of Hope, Joy and Fear When the Shad Strikes In, the exceeding beauty of my surroundings here, this lovely last day of June? Blue ings river sparkling with sun, through feathery foliage, brightly-gleaming flowers, vistas

Have you ever been to Hopewell Cape, gentle reader? of green isles, waving tree-shadows on the Albert County has many charming spots grass, birds singing about in joyous tunes, and the breezes fragrant with wild brier and but few with the spotless charms of the garden heliotrope—with a waft of roses— make up an almost ideal beauty !" So, is

Cape. It was called Hopewell Cape because of the singular fact that there is no Cape

If there had been a cape it would have been called Cow Bay or Turtle Creek.

because that poets have its-"Long, blue reaches, Silver coves and pebbled beaches, And green isles?" One there is, || whose lyric spirit, hom-The Cape is noted among others for several things. This is creditable, for the ing in the leafy city that overlooks its Cape has certainly not made any organ waves and islands,-goes out to the sea, ized effort within recent years to such ever since. It has a bald-headed young atheist, who knows all about the plan of creation and charges you nothing for the information He has a turn for inventing locks which he cannot unlock himself, and for being nomi nated for elections which he does not in tend to run. He runs a law office too, and

And the Cape is noted for its tides which twice every day sweep up the bay and paint hay, wood, and lime. It imports its rum by Neal and Willis and McLellan, and the from the West Indies, its law from West-

"black wharves" from which Longfellow ment from Dorchester and Halifax.

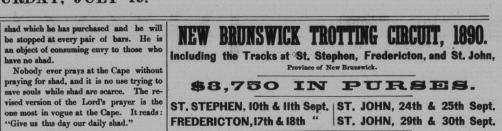

But, now and then, a poet-heart there is world may be found there. The building at the upper end where the sheep find shade

It is also a great watering place. Among the great men who have been there are Joseph Jefferson, Benjamin F. Butler, General Burnsides, Collingwood Schrieber, Simpson was spent here. The gospel and the horse business were blended by him in a happy manner. But in justice to Simpshould be said that he never em watering place.

Evolution has done some queer work at hill, and the result is that a breed of cow known as the side-hill cow has been developed. Those who know say that a cow hanging pants out to dry upon a rail tence has produced a breed of men at the Cape

But, my friend, both have a charm for me, nor would I exalt one at the expense of the other: and yet it seems that sea and shore have to me a dearer charm-and men by the people at the Cape. A shad is considered a thing of priceless Honorrad the years tollers, take their i the remoteness and strangeness is with the hills. It seems to me that the mountains

A shad is considered a thing of priceless value at the Cape—a dish fit for the gods and the judge of the county court. I asked a Cape citizen why he had such a yearning for shad. "Well," he said, "we have to live, you know. You'll excuse us for living." Long before the shad strike in, the Cape is awaiting their arrival with leverish im-patience. The faintest rumor of a shad being caught throws the cape into a state of delirious excitement. "Who caught it ?" is roared from a hundred weather

FREDERICTON ST. STEPHEN PARK. MOOSEPATH PARK PARK ASSOCIATION. ST. STEPHEN, N.B. PURSES. $1.750. PURSES, $1,000. PURSES, $1,000. WEDNESDAY, 24th SEPT.

 It had 18th September.
 It had 18th September.
 3 Minute Class, ... Purse, $100

 First Day.
 First Day.
 Stake Race for foals { Addres all communications to Jacobie Addres all communicati Of all things rich and rare, What would'st thou name as unto the Said Martin: "I would think a wife Would be a useful thing, But for the tendency to boss That she would bring.

Entries close on the 15th Sept. for the first two days, and on the 22nd Sept. for the last two days. Address all communications to A. M. Magre, Secy., St. John, N. B. JAMES E. OSBURN, Secretary, St. Stephen, N. B. W. P. FLEWELLING, Secretary. Fredericton, N. B. GENERAL REMARKS. GENERAL CONDITIONS. THE Three Tracks herein mentioned, are con-veniently situated for horsemen who may desire to attend these races A LL Races will be governed by the Rules of the National Trotting Association, of which Association each Track here represented is a mem-BY THE NEW BRUNSWICK R'Y. Five horses required to enter and three to start. A horse distancing the field will only be entitled to St. Stephen to Fredericton is 94 miles Fredericton to St. John is 97 miles. St. John to St. Stephen is 117 miles.

A horse distancing the new way out to be eligible in inst money. Horses starting in the circuit will be eligible in the same class throughout the circuit. Entrance fee will be Ten per cent. with nomination purses, payable, Five per cent. with nomination and Five per cent. the evening before the The New Brunswick Railway will give the follow-ng reduced freight rates, to horsemen attending any of these meetings : Purses will be divided: Sixty per cent. to first, Thirty per cent. to second, and 10 per cent. to third. Arrangements will be made to have United

These are good tracks and all members of the N. T. A., and the different managements will use every effort to have these races conducted strictly according to rule. W. F. TODD, President, St. Stephen, N. B. Fredericton, N. B ICE CREAM FREEZERS.

ARE NOW IN ORDER.

Every one knows what they are, but it is well to remember that there are many perfectly useless makes.

We offer LAWN MOWERS

of unrivalled reputation for closeness of cut, easy working, lightness and durability, fitted with three-bladed Wipers, self-sharpening and running at high speed. Prices low. fitted with the T. MCAVITY & SONS, - - - - ST. JOHN, N. B.

THE NEW CROCKERY STOR 94 KING STREET. JUST RECEIVED: A NEW LOT OF Flower Stands and Vases. in very pretty designs and colors. Just the thing for CRYSTAL WEDDING PRESENTS C. MASTERS. Prices low as usual. DURING THE MONTH OF JULY

THE BON "My colleen with t and fair, Oh! give me but heart you we That bonnie silken to you, I'll set it in my b knot blue!

"And when across Your bonnie knot, The winds its fold drench it thr But the wind or w breast knot b

She took it from brow; With broken voic soldier now!

One lingering gla adieu. And then she loc breast knot l

One morn, in far of pealed; And, in the ghast field. And there was on true, Upon whose clamm knot blue!

WEDDING

The old red fa was unusually October mornin sounds of unw a vague air of e over it.

over it. On the oppe Philury Corwin in watching the the breaktast d her invalid siste "Pears to n her work and her work and cloth in her b sothin' unusualcloth in her i sothin' unusual-Carterses. I se a-goin' in there hearn that they King's Holler

King's Holler chamber—a-set candlelight. Thavin' them p certainly means bought two silv to Collinses. I inquire, if you that fierce to k a-gon' to marr With a start the pies, Philu investigation.

"How be ye. as she paused looked at that

Mrs. Carter flour-covered a "Set, Philur dlin'! How's dlin'! How's I "Rhody Ann Her back's a-sort o' fuddle feelin' very nic fetch ye the d a Monday, an'i to help ye. I lot a goin' on. really a-goin' some talk of it Holler. Be sh And Philury insinuating ma insinuating man ful of tea on the be, P

"She be, P laconically. "About when "About Sum pervent an' the "Well, I jet came out, I say off to Carters Rumor is now: Rumor is now a "It be, Philu I 'lowed to g weddin' this a Ann, Rastus, hired help, an' are here perha hired help, an' are here, perhag errent for me, named to com "T'll tell 'em ed to go; "T'll they'll come." And they d with them. A wedding event of no sma event of no sma only in import right-minded pu "Glory Ann's v in the city, an would have a v of "new fangle By three o'c an in front of carriages, tree and fence session of a tab displayed unde side of which shutters, a yea

father. There was a a cousin in Ki from an aunt flat-irons irom and six cans of his wife. Philury broup aper muelin s It was decorat trimmed with y made this herss Mrs. Slimme a poor widow, she said was "kept their own better nor salt The groom Carter a half d a copy of "Gra The other gi tending all the by the city lad pins, given by "Glory Ann" set off them pin "But what,"

even as the lucious ice cream disappears before the onslaught of the all-conquering, all-devouring, summer girl. She was convinced that she could render invaluable assistance in the entertainment of visitors, and valiant were her efforts to carry her theory into practice. It was far harder for her hapless mistress to keep her ployed the Cape in the capacity of a drawing room clear of Alamedaname was Alameda-than it was to keep that same appartment clear of flies. Only the method of treatment for the two nui ances differed, the flies could be driven out or killed, whereas strategy was necessary to dislodge Alameda. One very warm afternoon, Mrs. Smith was taking a well-earned rest on the draw ing room sofa. She had been pursuing her household treasure ail day, and like Mariana in the "Shoated Grange," she was aweary.

Unfortunately she had neglected to inform that damsel of her intention, and no sooner was she missed, than the faithful soul started out to look for her, and a smile of satisfaction illuminated her features when she discovered her prey in the cool, shadowy parlor. "Takin' a rest are ye,' she said, affably, edging as she spoke to-wards the other sofa. "Well, as you're a layin' down, I guess I'll couch it too," who wear their pants bow-legged. But the chief industry of the Cape is its Curtain, to the tune of "Come rise up shad fishery. It is pursued by land as well as by sea. First of all, the shad are

[FOR PROGRESS.] THE TOILERS

SABBATH HOURS-9 30 to 10.45 a. m.; 2 to 4 and with rapture, and weaves a measure to which, noted for anything. It is noted for being the shiretown of the if the boat man may not lift and let fall his county, having been selected as such for the accommodation of the Dorchester oar, he may set his sail, and skim his way lawyer many years ago, and continued as like Necessity, knows no law.

the town a rich alluvial red. The chief exports of Albert County are morland, and its representatives to Parlia-

The industries of the Cape are numerous One of the finest sheep-pastures in the that is alien from the sea, and thinks of it as mournfully monotonous. One calls to me ¶ from his summer mountain home in prospect of Winnepisaukee, and bids me seek and and shelter is admirably adapted for the purpose. It also serves the purpose of a inty Court-house. prefer the cheer of summit breezes, and the healing solitude of his hills. Thus he

Charles Ananias Peck, and Joseph Howe Dickson. One of the best and most successful years in the life of the Reverend George

The Cape has neither theatre nor opera;

but it has a scrutiny show which is running night and day. It is called the Grand Oriental Emmerson - Powell - Turner - Lewis and McLellan Comedy Company. With a few changes of role this show has been running continuously for the past 40 years. The main difference between a scrutiny and other comedy shows is that the audience grows bald-headed less quickly than the actors do.

the Cape. The town is situated on a side that is milked on a side-hill will give more milk. In like manner, the practice of taken at sea by the Frenchmen from upriver; then they are taken from the French-

A fortune I would make my choice, But fortunes wax and fail, As I have seen exemplified In brother Cale. If life were only forty-fives, I'd like a chance to whack The board with ace of hearts And five and jack. In poker now, to hold a full Or flush would not be bad-But, on the whole, please angel dear, I'd like a shad." PLAYFULLY FAMILIAR.

Down, boys, to the sea; What bark can match our fearless own? Go seek ye well from zone to zone, Till all the world be overgone— Hasho! hasho! ho!

Ho! boys, for the sea, Down! boys, to the sea; Away, where space shall close us round, Where breezy sky and wave are found, Where danger and fierce life abound— Ha-ho! ha-ho! ho!

Ho! boys, for the sea, Down! boys, to the sea; Like lions bursting bar and chain, We, once released, new strength shall gain, And feel wild freedom fire the brain-Ha-ho! ha-ho! ho!

From her infancy, her's have been the traditions of sailor's and shore's men's lives ; traditions of sailor's and shore's mentation, she has watched the ships "spreading their sails of snow:" and to her have come, with the shap of waves along the wharves, and and scents of the infinite sea." So she can the breath of universal flame thou shalt be paint the morning sowing its seeds of color "along the ridges of the deep," and make sea ! "

118 800

The gulls that soar and down-ward sweep, With dauntless eye and steady wing, To breast the breakers that upfling Their foam-jets that to music leap.

Casco Bay has enchanted summer spaces for the boatman, and many green delectable islands for retreat; it may compare for praise of beauty with the Thousand Isles † Robert Pollok. * Heine. † Mary Ellen Blanchard.

Gather a shell from the strown beach And listen at its lips: they sigh The same desire and mystery, The echo at the whole sea's speech. At d all mankind is thus at heart Not anything but what thou art : And Earth, Sea, Man, are all in each.

So, Great Being! Sing the song of eternity! Smite thy cymbal-waves afar, and shout thy raptures, or sing thy dirges ! and shout thy raptures, or sing thy dirges ! Interpreter of our hearts; murmurer of love and cf sorrow; winding sheet of our ded, hearthing the hearange. dead; beautiful reflector of the heavens; our eyes shall grow dim, and our ears dull; but the world shall hear thy mighty waters can be got for ten cents. It is carnival rolling evermore!" Evermore? Ever-more? Nay, for thou, inajestic and mys-serious thing! art transient; and, at the a boat comes in with half a dozen shad on

Pride.

as smart as Boston peoples. talk.-N. Y. Sun.

weep with emotion. She is boarded with a wild Italian "hurroo" and the precious booty seized by a score of nervous hands. but as vapor, and "there shall be no more It is very unsafe for a man to venture abroad after nightfall at the Cape with PASTOR FELIX. shad in his hand. It would be simply a case of "your shad or your life." Should § Agnes Maule Machar (Fidelis).
|| Cavaline Dana Howe.
¶ Ralph H. Shaw, to the Heart of Ossipee," New a man be robbed of his shad under such cifcumstances the Cape jury would return a verdict of "justifiable larency." Let a man drive along the road with a basket of Little Boston Girl (to recent arrival)— You jus' come from Heaven, Brudder? Brudder vouchsafes no reply. Little Boston Girl—Heaven peoples ain't Ayer's Hair Vigor has long held the first place, as a hair-dressing, in the estimation of the public Ladies find that this preparation gives a beautifu gloss to the hair, and gentlemen use it to preven baldness and cure humors in the scalp. We can

T. YOUNGCLAUS, Proprietor. The Simplest, Most Durable,

Cheapest and Most Rapid Type Writer IN THE WORLD.

iness than with the per er than be without it.

ARTHUR P. TIPPET & CO., Sole Agents.

"But what, thing a-hangin looks for all th upside down a hollyhocks." "And it is "Glory Ann's them weddin'