

Social Notes of the Week

Crowds gathered in King Square on Thursday evening to enjoy the delightful programme of music rendered so well by the Temple band. The evening was ideal, so much so that the small boy could be heard distinctly during intermissions whistling "In the good old summer time." Automobiles lined each side of the square with their merry occupants, everybody forgetting that old Sol had not shown his face for some time while enjoying the delightfully warm evening, and after all it should be like the familiar quotation: "It matters not what the day may be, sunny, rainy or gray, you see, if only the heart is glad and gay, 'Twill make for you a sunny day." Quite a number of informal teas and evening sewing bees have been given this week for the strangers in our city.

On Thursday evening Dr. and Mrs. A. Pierce Crockett entertained the soldiers of the Convalescent Home at their residence, King Square. After enjoying the band music delicious refreshments were served.

While in St. Andrews inspecting the 4th Pioneer Regiment last week Major General Benson, Colonel Guthrie and Major Jones were entertained after the inspection by Mr. and Mrs. E. Atherton Smith at their charming summer home, and in the evening motored to Minister's Island, the most beautiful of the many attractive summer homes of this New Brunswick of Canada, St. Andrews By the Sea.

Mr. and Mrs. Hugh Bruce are visiting at Ottawa.

Mr. Philip Grannan, M. L. A., Mrs. Grannan and daughter, and Mrs. Frank Foster left on a trip to St. Anne de Beaupre.

It was with much interest the many friends heard of the promotion and appointment of Lieutenant Andrew Gordon Rainnie, who went overseas with No. 5 Canadian Army Service Corps, filling an important position on the paymaster's staff at Bramshot Camp. Lieutenant Rainnie is now a captain and appointed paymaster of the 4th Division. Train soon to go overseas.

It was with much relief the many friends of Mr. Paul Kuhling heard the reassuring news that the wounds he had received recently at the front were not serious, and also to note that he was in such excellent hands, that of Nursing Sister Margaret Hare, in whose hospital he is at present.

Mr. and Mrs. A. Morrison spent Thursday at Craig's Point.

Mrs. James S. Gross, Miss Gross, Miss Prescott, Mr. Leonard Richardson, Mr. Fred. Romerary and chauffeur arrived in the city on Wednesday after a motor trip from New York. They are the guests of Mr. and Mrs. H. G. Marr.

Miss Clements is visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. E. N. Clements, at Yarmouth, N. S.

Mrs. C. B. Allan entertained informally on Thursday at the tea hour at the Sign of the Lantern in honor of Mrs. Harvey Morton, Trinidad.

Mrs. Maurice P. White and wife, T. Scott Ryder, who have been spending a few weeks at Youll, are expected home next week.

The many friends of Mrs. Charles McLaughlin, Princess street, will be glad to hear she is daily convalescing, having returned home from the General Public Hospital this week.

Mrs. Frank S. White entertained yesterday afternoon at her residence, Prince William street, at a very delightful tea.

A number of friends gave Mrs. George McAvity Bilzard a genuine surprise party at her summer residence, Woodman's Point, on Friday evening, the event being the celebration of Mrs. Bilzard's birthday. Mrs. Bilzard was the recipient of a number of pretty gifts and good wishes for many happy returns of the day.

Miss Margaret Dunham, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. O. Dunham, Dufferin Row, received her appointment to the war, and left on Wednesday evening for Montreal from whence she will sail for overseas. Miss Dunham has recently been in England with her mother and aunt, Mrs. G. W. Scott. The many friends of Miss Dunham will wish her bon voyage and safe return to her native city.

Mr. F. J. G. Knowlton is receiving congratulations, having been elected as one of thirty-one Canadian Fellows of the Royal Colonial Institute, London, England.

Mrs. W. P. Farris was a guest in the city this week and returned to her home, White's Cove, this morning.

A number of young ladies, chaperoned by Mrs. Reid and Mrs. Harold Magge, have been camping at Craig's Point for two weeks and arrive home today. This delightful outing is under the auspices of St. David's Presbyterian church.

Mrs. Ernest Blair left on Thursday evening for Ottawa, where she will visit her sister, Mrs. Rourke.

Mrs. E. J. Disette and little daughter, New York, are visiting her mother, Mrs. C. J. R. Kerr, Coburg street.

Mrs. Hedley Bridges, Fredericton, spent the week-end with Mrs. J. Roy Campbell at her summer home, Westfield Beach.

Nursing Sister Miss Edith Hegan, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George Hegan, who, since the war, has been doing such wonderful work in France, has had another deserved honor extended her, being one of the nurses chosen to go to Russia. Miss Hegan sailed from England this week.

The many friends of Mr. W. J. Caldwell of the B. N. A. Bank, are giving him a welcome back to St. John from Quebec. Mr. Caldwell is relieving Mr. Skelton, manager of the bank, who is on a holiday in Digby, N. S.

It was interesting to read that Col. T. D. R. Hemming, officer commanding the 3rd Military District in Kingston, formerly stationed in Fredericton, has been made a Brigadier General after thirty-three years in the service of the Canadian militia. Mrs. Hemming, wife of Col. Hemming, was Miss Inches of Fredericton before her marriage.

The many friends of the Rev. Canon Armstrong will be glad to hear that his resignation as rector of Trinity church, on account of continued indisposition, had been promptly declined and provision has been made for giving the rector a long leave of absence. Canon Armstrong is greatly beloved by his congregation and the general public.

Miss Travers is visiting her sister,

Mrs. McInerney, at her summer home, Renforth.

A number of ladies went to Rothesay from the city on Wednesday afternoon to attend the very delightful fete in aid of the Red Cross. The beautiful grounds of Senator Domville presented a very gala appearance decorated with flags, and the tables with flowers. Particularly attractive was the ice cream booth which occupied a circle and was robed with festoons of green and posts of flowers. The "post office" was most realistic; here everyone who called found a parcel containing such dainty gifts. Something very original and fascinating was the "bag lady," Mrs. Walter Treman, who was in a quaint costume bedecked and befrilled, in whose voluminous pockets many delightful prizes could be found; with this "ye olden time" costume was also worn a huge poke bonnet, an heirloom of her great grandmother, and was much sought after by admiring purchasers. Little Miss Helen Allison delighted many by a drive behind her smart pony turnout. Delicious teas were served at small tables waited upon by young ladies dressed in white and wearing a badge of Allie's ribbon on the sleeve. Amongst the ladies from the city were Mrs. Kimball, Miss Kimball, Mrs. Dodd (Montreal), Mrs. Alex. Wilson, Mrs. Gordon Sanction, Miss Homer, Mrs. Norman Geoghegan, Miss Scamell, Miss Bessie Seely, Miss Gladys Hegan, Mrs. Keator, Mrs. C. B. Miss Trixie DeVoeber of Waltham (Mass.), is visiting her mother, Mrs. Boies DeVoeber, Dorchester street.

It was interesting to read the following about our very popular young hero soldier, Private Daryl G. Peters, youngest son of Mr. and Mrs. Fred. A. Peters, Germain street—that he had been recommended for the Distinguished Conduct Medal. The granting of the decoration would be a recognition of gallant conduct well earned. Private Peters went away with the 26th Battalion as a signaller. In some of the recent terrific fighting at the front he was a signaller, with others, in a dug-out which was under the fierce fire of the Germans. Although he had seen much heavy fighting before, he had never witnessed the equal of the shelling on this particular day. Three of his companions were knocked out by shell shock and another was wounded. His nerves managed to stand the strain however and he was lucky enough to escape the shrapnel. He clung to his post and according to advices received by several persons his work attracted the attention of the military authorities. The plucky young soldier is only 19 years of age and he has been in service over a year. Private Peters has an older brother, James D. Peters, at the front, having been in the heaviest fighting with the Princess Pat's Battalion.

Many friends in St. John heard this week with much regret that Captain Austin C. Saunders, the special captain of the 52nd Battalion, was killed in action this month somewhere in France. Capt. Saunders, whose parents reside in Toronto, made many friends during his short stay in our city and deep sympathy is extended to the bereaved ones.
