

TO THE ELECTORS OF THE NORTH RIDING OF LANARK.

GENTLEMEN.—It may appear somewhat premature to draw you to this early date, as a candidate for the Commons at the approaching general election, especially as there is no meeting of the present Parliament yet to be held; but the more mention of my name as a probable candidate having been the signal for the publication of numerous and contradictory reports by newspapers printed in another riding, and circulating to a great extent in this (such reports being calculated to give you a false impression of my position) it is deemed advisable I should take this step in order to place myself in a proper light before you. You are all familiar with the career which, in 1864, led to the resignation of R. Bell, Esq., and the advent to this riding of Hon. W. McDougall. Many of the electors on that occasion, while favorable to Confederation, were nevertheless opposed to the election of any other than a local candidate. Sympathizing with this feeling, which was not confined to any one party, I complied with a requisition, signed by nearly four hundred electors, asking me to be the local candidate in opposition to Mr. McDougall. The result was not unanticipated by those who were in favor of all the influence of Sir John A. McDonald and his Government, and of many influential Reformers and Conservatives, who were against me, and this, added to the late date at which I was brought out, allowing no time for canvass, rendered the result doubtful. And here a word of explanation as to my resignation on that occasion. On the morning of the election, the committee counted to my resignation, which proved afterwards a very unwise step, giving serious cause of offence to many, as it was found impossible to communicate with them all in time to accomplish the object for which my resignation was intended.

Since that time I have taken very little part in politics, in fact nothing more than to support Mr. Galt as my representative in the Ontario Parliament, and to take an active part in assisting the bringing him out as a candidate for the Commons when it was understood Mr. McDougall's nomination was about to take place.

The condition formed in 1864, for the purpose of bringing about Confederation, has had other results than those which the promoters of that scheme probably contemplated. Old party lines have been almost obliterated; issues, the struggle over which at one time gave rise to the names of Conservative and Reformers, working together in harmony, and in support of a common object, to the Government of the day, itself composed of members of both parties. The motto should therefore now be "men as well as measures," and the question of the hour is "the honest and faithful administration of the affairs of the country, and a wise and economical management of its finances." I am confirmed in this view from the fact that many members of the Ontario Government, heretofore called Conservatives, are to-day found voting with and sustaining a Liberal Government under the leadership of Hon. M. C. Cameron. No one imagines for a moment that these gentlemen are renouncing principle in so doing; they may take it for granted that their opinions are in full accord with those of the Liberal Government represented in the Ontario Government.

Holding these views and bearing in mind that at the approaching session of Parliament, new issues may arise and changes be made which may give rise to modify our opinions, I will now briefly state what course I feel it will be my duty to take, should you elect me to be your representative. Whatever foundation there may have been at one time for the claim set up that the present Government should be retained in power until Confederation became an accomplished fact, now seems to have disappeared. The majority cry at the general election of 1870, and the dread of endangering the establishment of Confederation on a firm basis, contributed to give the McDougall-Cameron Government a new lease of power. The results have been unfortunate. A weak and cowardly Government, which has conducted a rebellion has distinguished the settlement of the terms on which Manitoba became a member of the Dominion, and the late Government has been frustrated with the calls for justice on the part of Scott's country, have been unable to do so. Holding these views, and bearing in mind that at the approaching session of Parliament, new issues may arise and changes be made which may give rise to modify our opinions, I will now briefly state what course I feel it will be my duty to take, should you elect me to be your representative.

At it is a recognized fact that manufactures greatly increase the prosperity of any people, their encouragement will always receive my hearty support. I feel that this is the important factor of duty of all the members of the Commons, to do all in their power to encourage the growth of manufactures, and to do all in their power to encourage the growth of manufactures, and to do all in their power to encourage the growth of manufactures.
