

Canada's contribution of $5 million will be used to help fund the Conference international preparatory process, to assist NGOs by playing a role in the process, and to support various activities necessary to ensure that the Brazil Conference is a success. Canadian businessman and diplomat, Mr. Maurice Strong, has been named Secretary-General of the Conference and will head the international preparatory process.

For further information, media may contact:

Paul Turcotte, 994-1412
Environment Canada

Media Relations Office, 995-1874
External Affairs and International Trade Canada