ABDOMINAL CORSETS.

LONG WAISTED.

A new corset, with which we have had much success for some months, and which we will guarantee to be entirely satisfactory.

These Corsets are made very short over the hips, leaving nothing under the belt to prevent corset from curving in to the waist.

Also a special corset for slender ladies, with spring bustle, which do away with all padding. We guarantee to fit any figure.

Send for explanatory Circular.

MISS THERESE:—Have the moles removed by a physician. E. P. Roe died some years ago. A refreshing fragrant toilet water may be made as follows:

Extract of rose 1 pint.
Extract of tuberose 1 pint.
Extract of cassia 1 pint.
Extract of jasmine 4 ounces.
Tincture of civet 3 ounces.

Mix the ingredients and filter through a funnel with filtering paper, blotting paper or fine cotton wool. A less quantity may be made by using one-half or one-fourth of the quantities given. You may perfume your hair with eau de quinine or some such preparation obtainable at any drug store.

GOLFER:—When the hands grow rough, a liniment or lotion composed of the following ingredients will be found very soothing;

1 ounce of liquor ammoniac.
1 ounce of tincture of opium.
1 ounce of spirits of turpentine.
6 drachms of olive oil.

Place all together in a bottle, and shake well before using. After washing and drying the hands, in the morning, at noon and in the evening, pour a teaspoonful of the liniment into one hand, rub the fingers and palms together as though washing them, and do the same with the other hand.
