

to be executed and to hold and take Cognizance of all and whatsoever may be done touching the execution of the same Process, and make such order, decree and Judgment respecting the goods or Estate that may be sequestered, in the same manner as it made and granted in the first Process of Sequestration, within the ordinary Jurisdiction of such Court.

Process of Attachment or Capias may issue against persons subject to sequestration &c. where the debtor may conceal effects or abscond to defraud Creditors.

III. AND be it further enacted that whensoever any person liable and subject to the provisions in this Act contained and against whom Sequestration might lawfully Issue, shall be indebted and under such circumstances as that the Creditor may make oath that the Debtor is indebted in a sum above Pounds and is about to secrete his effects or suddenly depart from this Province, with intent to defraud his Creditors or shall give such proof or testimony thereof under oath as may satisfy any one of the Judges of his Majesty's Court of King's Bench in the premises, a writ of attachment may Issue against the Debtor, to seize and attach his goods, Chattles and personal Effects, or to arrest and take his Body for security of the Plaintiff's debt so sworn to, and the amount of which shall be indorsed on the Process of attachment or Capias, to the end that the defendant may give security for the payment of the debt, or surrendering the Effects attached, or for his personal appearance to defend the Action and Suit.

Execution of Capias may issue on Judgment against persons liable to sequestration.

IV. AND be it further enacted that in every case where a Plaintiff may obtain Judgment against a Debtor of the description aforesaid for a debt above Pounds, and who legally might be liable to the Provisions of this Act, it shall be lawful for such Judgment Creditor to have and obtain a writ of Capias ad satisfaciendum, to arrest and take the body of the Debtor, before the return to any writ for attaching and selling the Defendant's Chattels and Lands.

Court to fix meetings for the choice of an interim Factor.

V. AND be it further enacted by the authority aforesaid that the Court or Judges who may award Sequestration as aforesaid may make an order upon the Creditors to meet upon a certain day and hour