A Graduate Program in Resources and the Environment

Are you interested in doing a Master's Degree in Resources and the Environment? Do you have a particular thesis topic in mind? Is this topic interdisciplinary so that it doesn't seem to fit conveniently into a conventional academic program? If you answered "yes" to all these questions, then the Resources and the Environment Program at The University of Calgary may be right for you.

The Committee on Resources and the Environment offers graduate work leading to M.Sc. and M.A. research degrees.

Areas of special interest include:

- resource management
- resource depletion
- resource alternatives
- environmental quality
- environmental awareness
- environmental ethics
- environmental policy
- impact assessment

For more information write to:
Dr. W.A. Ross
Chairman, CRE
