Ottawa, 2nd May 1914.

Sir,-

With reference to your letter of the 20th ultimo on the subject of Constable Hughes' travelling expenses, I beg to say that the Department did not make a reduction in the Constable's voucher for August. The total of the voucher when received was $67.50, but in his statement he entered it at $69.50. If a mistake occurred, it was made by Mr. Hughes.

Your obedient servant,

Asst. Deputy and Secretary.

Thomas Deasy Esq.,
Indian Agent,
Masset B.C.
