REPRESENT ATION

PUBLICK,

Of AFFAIRS between GILBERT BARKLY of Philadelphia, and JOHN HAY of Quebec.

N June or July 1762, Mr. Hay, at the particular Defire of Gilbert Barkly, brought with him to Philadelphia, to be laid before him, a State of their Affairs in Canada, after Peruial of which, a Settlement of Accompts was made, and figned by both Parties, and a mutual Obligation executed before Witneffes paffed between them; wherein Gilbert Barkly referves the Revifal of their Affairs in Canada to himfef, as the immediate Settlement was only from a fhort Abstract brought by Mr. Hay from the Books, and not fatisfactory to the said Gilbert Barkly, Mr. Hay by this Writing was impowered to dispose of the Goods on Hand in Canada, at publick Vendue, in the Space of fix Months after the Date of the Obligation, if not fold before at private Sale, in Order to enable him to remit Gilbert Barkly a certain Sum of Money, and in End, Gilbert Barkly obliges himself to pay the said John Hay Two Hundred and Forty. Pounds Quebec Currency, for his Share of Profits gained at Louisburg, which Mr. Hay agreed should be in full of all Demands, and that the same should be deducted out of a larger Sum due to Gilbert Barkly by the said John Hay, "in Consideration whereof Mr. Hay resigns, in Favour of the said Gilbert "Barkly, all Pretension he had to any Part of the Goods, Debts, Effects and Profits gained at Louisbourg."

AFTER which Mr. Hay proceeds to Quebee, and when the Six Months he was limitted to in the aforefaid Obligation was expired, he went from Quebec to Montreal, fells off at Vendue all the Stock of Goods belonging to the Company on Hand at that Place, the principal Part of which bought by his own Agents for his private Accompt, and no Intelligence thereof given by him to Gilbert Barkly: In the fame Manner the Brew-house, Diftillery, and Stock of Goods on Hand at Quebec, were fold off, with the utmost Diligence, at Vendue, and the principal Articles bought by his own Agents for his private Accompt, and in whose Possessino to this Day the Distillery and Brew-houses at Quebec and Montreal continue, out of which Subjects a very inconsiderable Sum was remitted Gilbert Barkly, though many Letters were sent, and James Skinner (my own Clerk) sent as an Express to acquaint Mr. Hay of my being in the greatest Need and Want of Money.

In October 1763, the Vendue Accompts were remitted by him to Gilbert Barkly, and with them a stated Accompt Current, dated the Twenty-sixth of the same Month, signed by Mr. Hay, and in which Accompt one Article at Gilbert Barkly's Debit stands as follows, viz. "To John "Hay's Share of Profits gained at Louisboarg, as agreed, to be paid him per a mutual Obligation, "signed at Philadelphia the 25th of October, 1762, Two Hundred and Forty Pounds."

The impartial World is defired to judge, after perufing this Narrative, and what has been done in Confequence of this Writing passed between them at Philadelphia, what Right Mr. Hay has for desiring it should be cancelled, or from what Motive his Counsel advices him to demand it.

In Consequence of the just Right Gilbert Barkly had of perusing the Books kept at this Place in Name of Barkly & Hay, he arrived at Quebec the 22d Lay of June last, and a few Days thereafter demanded the Books: Mr. Hay delivered him a Set of Books keeped by himself, which he called his principal Books, a Set of Books keeped at the Brew-house in Quebec, and others keeped at a Store in the Lower-Town by George Toung, he also delivered Books keep'd at the Three-Rivers, by Brown and Sanguinet, and a Set after they left that Place keep'd by George Richan, as also Books keep'd at the Brewhouse in Montreal, and a Set keep'd by George Toung while hemanaged Affairs at that Place, and Accompts of Sales rendered by Mr. Knipe, George Toung, &c. Gilbert Barkly, with all the Attention he was Master of, continued to revise what was called the principal Books, and found by many concurring Circumstances that they were Books made out on Purpote to annuse and defraud him of his real Interest and Property: He went to Mr. Hay and told him he must not dare to put upon him in that Manner, and demanded the real Books, which with some Hestitation Mr. Hay delivered to him.
