Moss Ovens' predicted cold snap was around on Friday night. Thermometer several degrees below zero.

Rev. H. Bartlett's condition, we regret to say is not improving. But slight hopes are entertained of his recovery.

As exploration station, to discover the whereabouts of the sidewalks of this town would find a vast field for operations just now.

A full line of Cottage Library, Lilly Series, Poetical Works, Franklin Squares and Robertson Series at the Post Office Book Store.

CHURCH SOCIETY.—The Perth County Council met on Saturday afternoon last, and elected Jacob Brunner, Esq., Reeve of Downs, Warden for the present year. Dr. Shawer was re-appointed Gaei Surgeon.

"THE LISTOWEL JACK."—This is the title of an illustrated monthly, evidently published for the entertainment of the youth of British Columbia and Alaska. The Toronto News Company are the wholesale agents for Canada.

Dolls, sleighs, rocking horses, albums, plated ware, easels, &c., at the Post Office Book Store.

DR. DILLON'S.—He has been suffering for some little time past from an attack of erysipelas, which, during the past few days has increased in severity. At last accounts his condition was more favorable. His many friends, we are sure, wish that he may be speedily restored to health.

If you want goods at wholesale prices? Go to John C. Burt's and secure them.

The Biddulph murder trials are being conducted by special commission at London this week. The prisoners are again being tried separately, James Carroll's case being the first to have a hearing. So far, there has been no new developments, the evidence being similar to that taken at the fall assize.

ADVICE TO MRS. M.—If you want to look nice, and be well dressed, at the smallest possible expense, see the popular Clothing House, No. 3, Main St., Listowel. JOHN KINGS, Proprietor.—42.

BERNARD'S ANNIVERSARY.—The Elma St. Andrew's Society celebrated the anniversary of the Scottish Rite by an oyster supper at Corry's hotel, Newry Street.

The gathering was large, and included a number of gentlemen from Listowel. Addresses touching the occasion were made by members of the society and others.

BURNS AND EXAMINE OUR OVERCOATS before you leave town.—From 30c upwards.—new goods. JOHN C. BURT.

UPWARDS OF SIXTY consecutive days of good sleighing is the kind of a winter the inhabitants of Listowel and vicinity have experienced thus far this season. There is every probability that a round hundred will be reached before the "heavy" disappears. A regular old-fashioned winter this, and no mistake.

CONSERVATIVE ASSOCIATION.—At the annual meeting of the Listowel Conservative Association on Friday last, the old officers of the Association were re-appointed for the present year. The Association will meet again this Friday evening at the Commercial hotel. A business of importance is to be brought before the meeting, a large attendance is requested.

The Post Office Book Store is the place to get your X-mas presents, cheap and good.

BIBLE SOCIETY.—The annual meeting of the Listowel branch Bible Society will be held in Knox Church on Wednesday evening next, 29th February. Report of the business of the branch during the year will be read, and addresses given by the agent of the Society, Rev. J. L. Murray, of Kinross, and the clerk of the town. At the close a collection will be taken up.

THE 12th.—From the promise made by the County L. E. of Perth, to reciprocate the compliment paid by the Orangemen of North Perth in attending the demonstration at St. Mary's last year, it is quite probable that the next anniversary of the battle of the Boyne will be celebrated by the Orangemen throughout the county in Listowel. In this event, a monster demonstration may be anticipated.

ACCOUNTS.—I still have a few accounts which have not yet been called for. My friends will please excuse me, but I must have money. An account of being alone my capital is not sufficiently large to carry on the business I am doing without the aid of accounts due me on book accounts, and those who have not already paid their bill will please make an effort to do so in a short time, and by so doing greatly oblige the undersigned.

TONY HUGO.

A CRASH.—On Saturday morning last a portion of the roof of Messrs. Woods livery stables fell in, owing to the weight of snow upon it. A number of cutters which were underneath. Three of the cutters were totally wrecked, and several others were more or less damaged. Our enterprising livery men had the misfortune to lose a valuable horse only a few days previous, which together with this crash makes a heavy loss. We trust that the unlucky star will not again appear.

PROF. CREW gave two exhibitions of his skill in producing so-called "spiritual manifestations" in the Osborne Hall on Tuesday and Wednesday evenings. The Prof. is very clever in his performances, and the pranks which he played upon some of our citizens, who were induced to take seats on the platform, were decidedly amusing, and some of them extremely ludicrous. On the second night the Prof. left his audience sufficiently into the secret to convince them that supernatural agencies were not required to produce these "manifestations."

NEXT TO GO.—Everybody likes it. I am selling American high top burning oil same price as Canadian, in order to introduce it. J. A. HACKING.

Y not by your goods from John C. Burt, when you can get them at wholesale prices.

ANNIVERSARY.—Anniversary services will be held in the M. E. Church on Sunday next, 30th inst. Hours of service, 10.30 a. m., 2.30 p. m., and 6.30 p. m. The afternoon service will be conducted by Rev. J. H. Hilde, of Kinross, and in the evening Rev. J. W. Bell will preach. A tea meeting will be held in the church on Monday evening, at which Rev. Mr. Hilde will deliver a lecture, subject: "The sons of Japheth, what they have done, what they are doing, what they are likely to do in the world." Admission 25c.

Business men who object to support a newspaper because it does not express editorial opinions to suit them display great ignorance of the first principles of advertising. A properly conducted newspaper—no matter what its editorial opinions may be—adds value to every property in the town where it is published. Advertising in a newspaper is a matter of business, and it is in the interest of business men to patronize the paper that does most to advertise and build up the town, and place his advertisement where it can be seen by the greatest number of readers.

Xmas is past; but John C. Burt will sell during the coming month 25 per cent lower than the regular price.

CARNIVAL.—The first skating carnival of the season took place in the new skating rink on Thursday evening of last week. The attendance was very good. The rink was brilliantly illuminated with gas, being the first introduction in Listowel, was somewhat of a novelty. There was a good number of masqueraders present, whose costumes, if not ingenious, were at least striking. Our excellent town band was also an important contributor to the pleasure of all present. No doubt the success which has attended this carnival will encourage the manager of the rink to undertake during the season other.

HIGHWAY ROBBERY.—Thos. Webb, Wm. Webb and another whose name we have not ascertained, waylaid a farmer on the road between Harrison and Palmerston in the early part of last week, and robbed him of $97. The two Webbs were arrested at houses of ill fame in Wingham by Chief Davidson at ten o'clock on Sunday morning, and brought to the Royal Hotel, where they were searched. The ransom of $500 and new suit of clothes. The Webbs left Wingham soon after their arrest in charge of two Harrison constables.—Wingham Times.

THE DEATH OF MRS. LIVINGSTONE, wife of Mr. John Livingstone, which occurred on Thursday night of last week, was followed by the death of her only son, Mr. James Livingstone, who died on Friday morning at ten o'clock on Sunday morning, and brought to the Royal Hotel, where they were searched. doubt have saved the ratepayers of Wallace several hundred dollars if he had been present at this so-called settlement. I would ask the Reeve to explain the terms of this secret contract made by the Council of Wallace and the High School Board. I think it is due to the ratepayers that all questions affecting their pockets to such a large extent as this transaction is said to do, should be done publicly, and not in such a secret manner as described. I trust that he will see fit to give the ratepayers of the township of Wallace the full particulars of this iniquitous transaction at an early day.
