the present Assessment Law, and School Bill, and the all-absorbing question of the Clergy Reserves, will doubtless furnish topics for the "grave debate and popular harsingue" of the assembled wisdom of the Province.

The recent Correspondence between Earl Grey and the Governor General, will form a large and important portion of the Parliamentary Budget. "The advantages of that self-government" possessed by Camida referred to by the Colonial Expositor of Downing Street affairs, and the "corresponding responsibilities" which those advantages demand from the Home Government, will surely attract and receive that attention which they so justly merit. That portion of the Pospatch which has reference to the reduction and removal of a large portion of the Military force from Canada, requires some expression from Parliament as to its expediency or utility. We have, on a former occasion, expressed the opinion, from which we see no reason to retract, that the large Military Force power ampliored in Canada is unaffective to the secondar of the Empire Stale, and the receive and effects of the Spirit says:

The owners and officers of the Empire Stale, and the careful Assessment in the secondar of the American Bosing for the secondar of the American Bosing the last receive by the Spirit of the Times, that three telegrates in 1849 '50 to the amount of $3,133, last year only $250.

DARLY LINE OF STRANDERS SETWINES 1888
CTITES OF QUEENE AND MONTHEAL—From all accounts, we have every reason to believe that the number of travellers for pleasure will be much larger this senses than for many years past. In view of which, we would recommend to our several strambout proprietors, the placing of a day strange, on the line between this city and Quebe. The scenery between the siter cities present objects of interest to the traveller which a manage by night prevents.

While every facility has been provided for the shipping and trading business, little has been done to gratify those who travel for pleasure. The increased number of visitors who may be expected this senses, will, we are certain, justify an attempt on a former occasion, expressed the opinion, from which we see no reason to retract, that the large Military Force now employed in Camada is unaccessary. There are ne warlike tribes of Indiana around our borders, requiring the appearance of a standing army, and from larging aggression there is little to feat. We repeat the sentiment in relation to the immediate protestion of our social and cryic relations—that that freedom which requires to be guarded is of little value. In support of our position, we extract the following language from the Despatch of Earl Grey to Lord Elgin—

"You are well aware that up to the period of the war of the American Revelution, the then British Colonies, which now form the United States, as well as the West Indian Colonies, were required to take upon themselve the principal dame of the best post themselves almost undertaken to extend the Colonial possessions of the British Crown. The North American Colonies were required to take upon themselves the principal dame of the content of the force by which the content of British power with that of France was maintained an the continent of American, and in the West Indian Colonies did not, in proportion to their means, make the exertions," We hope to see those reductions of the force of the content of British power with that of France was maintained an the continent of American, and the West Indian Colonies did not, in proportion to their means, make the exertions."

One of the fanatical preachers of this most deluded of all religious seets has recently declared that " the Second Advant, as Second Com We hope to see those reductions made in the Civil List which are so carnestly desired by a large majority of the people of Canada, and an important of the carnest of the people of Canada, are negative that the feeling of the people of Canada, are negative their white sphes for the distance of the carnet of the people of Canada, are negative their white sphes for the distance of the carnet of Economy is the best safeguard against that oppressive system of taxation too rendity adopted by Governments for the supply of an exhausted, and, too often, wasted Treasury. The sentiment expressed by Enri Grey on the subject of retrenchment, as applicable to the salary of the Governor General, "that the income is fixed rather with the view of embling the holder of the office to perform certain duties which entail expense, than as a neward for service," may, to a certain extent, be true; and yet, in a Colony like the present, the necessity does not, we think, exist for those extravagant expenditures neutly attending similar foreign civil appointments. We shall look to the present deliberations of our Legislative Body, with a proper regard for the public interests, and as rightly becomes our position.
